

PHASES OF CITY LIFE.

Miscellaneous Events of a Day in Pittsburgh and Allegheny. DEER AT A CHURCH DEDICATION. Other Things That Have Brought People Under the Law's Ban. SEVERAL MEETINGS THAT WERE HELD.

Alderman McGary's office, on Carson street, was the scene of an animated hearing, last night. The complaint was against Charles Link, a wholesale liquor dealer doing business on South Twelfth street.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

The little court room was crowded when the case was called, most of the spectators being unable to do any business with the language "as she is spoken" by the average Allegheny citizen, and the odors that floated over the tribunal fairly dimmed the street lamps.

RECOVERED HIS KEYS. How Law Librarian Digby Had His Peace of Mind Restored. Some weeks ago Mrs. Percy Digby, of Mt. Washington, wife of the Law Librarian, had her pocket picked on Fifth avenue and did not notice her loss until she boarded a street car and found she had no money to pay her fare.

HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGES. A Southside Man Arrested for Cruelty and Neglect of His Children. William R. Jones, of Twenty-second street, Southside, was arrested yesterday on complaint of Humane Agent O'Brien, who charges the prisoner with cruelty and neglect of his children.

A VICTIM OF TYPHOID FEVER. The Remains of John Hayden Sent to Ellipticville for Burial. A long row of carriages headed by a hearse, attracted the attention of people passing the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie station, about 10 o'clock last night.

DON'T WAIT LEGISLATION. The Free Bridge Question to be Settled by City Councils. The Free Bridge Committee was to have met yesterday afternoon to consult with the City Attorney upon the question raised by him in regard to the unconstitutionality of State legislation affecting the subject.

MISHAPS OF A DAY. Broken Limbs and Fractured Skulls Made Up Yesterday's List. The accidents yesterday were few in number, more being of a serious character.

DEATHS FROM DIPHTHERIA. During November There Were 331 Cases, 79 Proving Fatal. The mortality report of the Bureau of Health for the month of November, completed yesterday, shows a total number of 329 deaths as compared with 325 during the corresponding period of 1929.

LOCOMOTIVE BELLS JANGLE. The Ordinance to Prevent Their Being Rung in Allegheny City. The Allegheny Committee on Ordinances last night had before them a bill to repeal that section of the law requiring all bells on locomotives to be rung while running in the city limits.

A FLAG PRESENTATION. The Starry Banner to be Flung to the Breeze From the High School Building—Ben Franklin Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., the Donors. A large number were present at the High School last evening, it being the occasion of the presentation of a beautiful silk flag to the school, the gift of Ben Franklin Council, Jr. O. U. A. M.

MADE UP A TICKET. The Members of the Lotus Club Select Officers for the Coming Year. That stanch Republican organization of the Southside, the Lotus Club, was very largely represented at a meeting held at the club rooms last night.

LAYING OUT STREETS. The Survey Committee Passes Upon a Large Number of Proposals. The Survey Committee met yesterday afternoon in the City Clerk's office and affirmatively recommended the following ordinances:

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

High School Committee Meeting. The regular meeting of the High School Committee of the Central Board of Education, was held last night, and a number of bills passed. Action was deferred until the next meeting on the resolution for the establishment of intermediate schools.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

THE LUMBER BOOM. How the Local Demands Have Crept Ahead of All Facilities for Supplying the Material, DUE TO AN INCREASE IN BUILDING. New Woods That Have Almost Entirely Shot Out Old and Familiar Grades for Finishing Purposes. IMPROVEMENTS ON CHEAT RIVER. Another Steel Plant About Ready to Begin Operations at Scranton.

Arrangements are now being made for a very important meeting of the Union Lumber Dealers' Association of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, to be held at Toledo next month. It is the annual meeting of the association, and it will be attended by about 600 dealers, representing a combined capital of more than $20,000,000.

WHY HE WAS ARRESTED. John Ulrich and Officer Helm Tell Different Stories. John Ulrich is a baker and lives at No. 2 Vinal street, Allegheny. He says that he was on the morning of Sunday, November 23, he started from his home to call Dr. J. S. Phillips, of No. 54 Chestnut street, on the matter of his very sick.

THE PRESENT INCONVENIENCES. A dealer may not have any knowledge of his lumber being on a siding for a day after it has been delivered, and it may be a practical impossibility for him to get the lumber away within the required time.

SENT TO JAIL BY HIS WIFE. Charles Gardner was committed to jail yesterday afternoon for a day after the McManis case. Friday next, on charges of assault and battery and surety of the peace, preferred against him by his wife, Emma L. Gardner.

SMALL SCRAPS OF LOCAL NEWS. THE work of laying tracks on McClure avenue, Allegheny, for the electric line is progressing rapidly. THE Committee on Roads and Surveys of Allegheny City met last night, but did nothing of importance.

TALK OF THE EIGHT-HOUR DAY. The probable difficulty expected next spring in regard to the adoption of the eight-hour work day in the building trades will not be dealt with, except to notice any action that may be taken by the Builders' Exchange between now and the time for the meeting.

A FLAG PRESENTATION. The Starry Banner to be Flung to the Breeze From the High School Building—Ben Franklin Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., the Donors. A large number were present at the High School last evening, it being the occasion of the presentation of a beautiful silk flag to the school.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

MAY MAKE A GUN HERE. Dr. Emmens Makes Strong Claims for His New Explosive. Dr. Emmens, the inventor of the new explosive, ammonite, is still at the Monongahela House. He has not yet made his arrangements with the Pittsburgh Reduction Company to have a special gun made to test his discovery.

SPARE NOT THE ROD. Mayor Gourley and Father McTighe Favor Corporal Punishment. PHILLIPS TALKS OF HIS DEFEAT. Major Greenland Wants to be Adjutant General or Nothing. A FEW CHATS ON VARIOUS SUBJECTS.

Major Greenland, who has been a dominie himself, does not look with favor on the action of the Eleventh Ward School Board in publicly abolishing corporal punishment in the school. In referring to the subject yesterday his Honor said:

A NEW STEEL PLANT. Of Which a Former Pittsburgher Has Been Elected General Manager. The building of the Norristown Steel Company, a new concern, are rapidly nearing completion. The plant is so located as to be added to conveniently in case enlargement becomes necessary.

A NEW MILL FOR HOMESTEAD. Carnegie, Phillips & Co. Said to be Erecting a New Beam Plant. The current issue of one of the trade papers states that Carnegie, Phillips & Co., Limited, are about to begin the erection of a new 36-inch beam mill, adjacent to their present plant at Homestead.

READY FOR REOPENING. Program for St. Paul's Dedication, Tomorrow—Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore, and Other Prelates Will be Present. St. Paul's Cathedral will be formally reopened to-morrow with imposing ceremonies. The edifice has been thoroughly renovated at great expense and its interior is that of a new church.

GOING OVER THE ROAD. Agent Woodside Will Join a Party to Inspect the Erie System. Samuel P. Woodside, general agent for the Erie system in Pittsburgh, has gone to New York. He will join the freight and passenger agents there to make an inspection of the road and its terminals.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

SHE TURNED INGRATE. AN INFURIATED WOMAN ATTACKS THE CENTRAL STATION MATRON. Maggie Castle Refuses the Offers of People to Lead Her in Better Walks of Life—She Will Likely Go to the Workhouse. A case of base ingratitude was developed at the Central Police Station last night, it being the culmination of fruitless attempts to reform a woman of whom better things had been expected.

Maggie Castle, better known as Mac Conroy, the wife of Duke Castle, had been arrested for drunkenness and disorderly conduct and taken to the Central Station, where she was turned over to kind-hearted Matron Brennan, to whom Mrs. Castle is the best of reasons to feel truly grateful.

Illustrations of the results of a policy at any age will be gladly furnished upon application to Edward A. Woods, Manager, 516 Market street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

THE Great Rush at Kiebler & Bros' Already Begun. Persons can have no idea of the popularity of the Kiebler Bros. and the immense business they are doing in the sale of pianos, organs, mandolins, guitars, etc., unless they drop in at their warehouse, 608 Wood street.

CABLE LETTERS from all over Europe are special features of TO-MORROW'S DISPATCH. See for yourself. Twenty-four pages.

JOS. HORNE & CO.'S PENN AVE. STORES. The Men's Furnishing Department has many things suitable for Christmas presents. A very large assortment of Smoking Jackets, hundreds of styles to select from.

NO ADVANCE PRESENT STOCK OF CARPETS AND CURTAINS. Although the manufacturers have advanced prices from 15 to 25 per cent, our stock prices will go at the old low prices.

EDWARD GROETZINGER, 627 and 629 Penn Avenue. Largest exclusive Carpet House west of New York City.

SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS. Seal Plush Jackets at $9, $11, $15, $16, $20, $22, $25, up to $30. Seal Plush Coats, 36 and 38-inch lengths, $16, $20, $22, $25, $28, $30 and up.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.

Without a Husband for a Month. Mary Kathleen charges her husband with desertion and non-support. She lives on the hill above Twenty-eighth street, and alleges that her husband has contributed nothing to her support or her six children for a month. She says he earns a good salary as a barber.