UNITED MINE WORKERS ARE WRATHY

"SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 SCOTTDALE, Dec. 11.-Everson, just across the county line from this place, is all stirred up over a unique sensation, in which Henry Adams, a German miner, and his housekeeper, a Miss-Jones, are the principals. Adams arose later than usual this morning, and in an indignant frame of mind went down stairs to learn the cause, when he found his usual breakfast had not been prepared. . He at once began a search of the premises for the tardy housekeeper, but in vain. He then made diligent search among the neighbors, but received the one negative

He then made up his mind that she had either given him the slip alone, or eloped with either given him the slip alone, or cloped with her lover. As the question of winning her for himself had been uppermost in his mind for some time, he was greatly broken up. Before leaving for his work he took time to examine his savings bank, where he has deposited his carnings for several years. He was dum-founded on opening it to find that it had been emptied, As near as Mr. Adams can tell, Miss Jones took between $220 and $400 in cash, be-sides numerous other valuables, the fair false sides numerous other valuables, the fair fals one leaving him but $12.

Officer Gay was at once notified, and has begun a thorough search for the missing house-keeper. All of the officers in the surrounding towns have been telegraphed to be on the look-out for her, but as yet the girl has not been apprehended.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. HOMESTEAD, Dec. 11 .- For some time work men have been engaged in removing the bodies from the old cemetery to the new one, just above town, which has but lately been completed. When removing the earth from the coffin of Annie Bridges, who has been dead for coffin of Annie Bridges, who has been dead for a number of years, it was noticed that the coffin was very heavy, and a number of workmen were required to lift it.

After hard work five men finally succeeded in getting it out of the grave, whereas, one, or perhaps two men, handled other bodies easily. The workmen opened the coffin and were amazed to find that the body had petrified, and was of a marble color, and rattled about in the coffin like a heavy stone. Every feature was as natural as life. The body was hastily reinterred by the frightened workmen.

United Mine Workers Pass Scathing Reso lutions on the Lang Damage Case. SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATOR.

SCOTTDALE, Dec. 11.—The meeting of the Ex-ecutive Board of the United Mine Workers, held here to-day, was a stormy one. The grand jury's findings in the Lang case were discussed at length, and the following sarcastic resoluat length, and the following sareastic resolu-tions passed concerning them:

Washington, Dec. 11.—The great esteem in which Washington McLean, the deceased journalist, is held was never shown in a more marked manner than by the distinguished character of the people wno assembled at his late residence, this morning, to pay their last tribute to his memory. These included the President of the United States, the Governor of Ohio and Mrs. Campbell, Vice President and Mrs. Morton, the Secretary of State and Mrs. Blaine, Senator and Mrs. Sherman, Senator and Mrs. Payne, Justice and Mrs. Blathford, Justice and Mrs. Gray, Senator and Mrs. Stanford, Colonel John Hay, Mrs. Cockrell, Mrs. Tiffany, Mrs. Hitt, U. In accordance with the often-expressed desire of the deceased, the funeral ceremonies were of the simplest and most unostentations character. The remains were encased in a plain, black, cloth-covered casket, simply inscribed with the name of the deceased and the dates of his birth and death. There was, however, a profusion of elegant flowers, the tributes of loving friends. The religious services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Douglass, rector of St. John's Protestant Episcopal Church, and consisted of the regular burial service of the Episcopal Church and the reading of the hymn, "Rock of Ages," At the close of the services the remains were taken to Rock Creek Cemetery, near the Soldiers' Home, where they were temporarily deposited in a vault until arrangements can be made for their final interment at Cincinnati.
