"Further than this, the Grangers, in advocating such a course, are not acting without precedent. Benjamin Franklin, in the early days of Pennsylvania, recommended such a course and in New Jersey and in England, where the plan has been partially followed, the experience is that it has worked well.

Reciprocity Gets an Indorsement.

"We also called upon the National Government to use its influence in establishing such reciprocal trade relations as will give a market to our agricultural products. We favor Mr. Blaine's reciprocity idea, so far as it will inure to the benefit of the agricultural class. We are decidedly opposed to any reciprocal trade relations that are exclusively for the benefit of the manufac-

While we have no affiliation with the Farmers' Alliance, we cannot but watch their course with a great deal of interest. We will favor anything they may do that will help along the condition of the farmer. We do not believe in a third party, but we are willing to have the patronage of any party that will better the agriculturist class.

Credit for Delamater's Defeat.

"Our organization numbers over 60,000 in this State and we mean business. We cer-tainly take the credit upon us of Delamater's defeat. He was the only man we opposed on the Republican ticket. We sent three messengers to Senator Quay asking him to withdraw Delamater from the canvass, but Quay said he could get along without us, ad it seems he has, "Mr. Delamater fought our tax bill, and in so doing struck at one of the first objects of our organization, the equalization of taxes. You may expect to hear from us in the coming Legislature

Compulsory School Law Wanted.

At the meeting of the Grange to-day the Committee on Education in its report requested the Legislature to double the an-nual appropriation to public schools, which is now $2,900,000; to increase the school term, and compel parents to keep their children at school until they attain the age of 14. The Committee on Legislation suggested amendments to the game and fish laws, making it a criminal offense to trespass on lands without permission of the owner; and re quiring fencing along public highways and railroads. The Committee on Agriculture recommended a change in the law authorizing the formation of the State Board of Agriculture, so that members must be elected by the joint vote of all the county agricultural and horticultural societies. The Grange adopted the foregoing reports, after which it adjourned finally. The new Committee on Legislation is Rapid Improvement Among the Pupils at the Blind Institute.

The Executive Committee of the Western Pennsylvania Institution for the Blind met yesterday at the school building, on Fortysecond street. The expense of maintaining the scholars now in attendance will aggregate about $500 per month. A meeting of the Board of Directors is called for the second Thursday in January to consider an amendment to the by-laws, by which hereafter the directors chosen by the corporators shall be classified and three elected annually, instead of the whole board annually. A BREACH OF CONTRACT CASE.

A Mexican Railroad Company in for a Heavy Damage Suit.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12 .- A complaint was filed to-day in the United States Circuit Court by the trustees, executors and securities of the Insurance Company of Great Britain and Ireland against the Monterey and Mexican Gulf Railroad Company, for the recovery of $750,000 for breach of con-tract, with interest from May 2, 1880. The railroad company was given a grant by the Mexican Government for the construction of a railroad from Monterey to Tampico, and subsequently for a second line from Monterey to Vanadito, the lines to be exempt from taxation for 20 years. In 1888 the railroad mortgaged all the real and per onal property to the Central Trust, of New York, which agreed to issue bonds payable in gold, due November 1, 1939. The company completed the roads. The bonds were taken up by the foreign company, which
