PARNELL'S EYES OUT. (Continued From First Page.) Kilkenny spoke he would not be in the minority. He did not wish to assail men that had stood by his side during a long day, but he was not going to ask permission to speak from a cock-sparrow like Tanner or a jackdaw like Davitt. The Parnell carriage is mobbed. While other Parnellites were addressing the crowd, a number of Davitt's followers got together and began shouting at the speaker. The Parnellites closed around the vehicle from which their orator was addressing the people, and the police appeared and tried to divide the factions. The meeting ended in a scene of wild confusion and Parnell and his friends drove off amid a shower of stones and mud. Frequent attempts to assail the members of the party were made and several bags filled with lime were thrown at them. Mr. Harrington's shoes were covered with lime, and the face of one of the Parnellites was completely blinded by it. This incident, however, did not prevent the Parnellites from entering a laborer's cabin in a fainting condition.

SILVER LEGISLATION. Must Now Take the Lead of Everything in the Senate. FREE COINAGE MEN IN EARNEST. But the Administration Has a Measure They May Have to Swallow. TO BE CONSIDERED IN CAUCUS TO-DAY. (FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—The elections bill is so generally looked upon as being virtually dead that the continued and laborious efforts of the Democratic Senators are viewed as one would estimate the fellow engaged in kicking a corpse, as the performance is merely taking time until a finance bill can be agreed upon. Senator Morgan was put forward for the vote of the declaration of yesterday and today, as he is the Blaine of the Democracy—that is, he is the Senator of the Democrats, who, like Blaine of the Republicans, can talk till the crack of doom without fatigue and their protest against Gabriel's blowing the horn. The galleries have been nearly emptied the last few days, and the occupants are visitors who drop in to have the noted Senators pointed out to them, and then they leave. The debate on the subject has been so anxious to save their lives.

Professor Kirschner's efforts in arranging an indoor athletic exhibition were well rewarded last evening at the East End Gymnasium. The splendid hall of the gymnasium was well filled by a fashionable audience, fully 90 per cent of which were ladies. Everything passed off successfully, and the professor has much encouragement to make another venture. Of course the leading features on the programme were the wrestling and boxing contests. Just before the proceedings commenced Secretary Henderson remarked to the writer: "There is a strong prejudice prevailing against boxing and even wrestling. I don't know why there should be, but it exists all the same. Those who witnessed last evening's contests would certainly be of the same opinion as Mr. Henderson. The young gentlemen who took part in the boxing caused lots of fun; nobody was hurt, as in a football game, everybody was pleased and the ladies applauded. The boxing wasn't first class by any means, but it was earnest, and the few 'warmers' that each contestant received only served to make matters more interesting. A horizontal bar performance by Messrs. H. R. Layne, W. H. Hastings, E. C. Morgan, H. C. Fry, Jr., E. E. Keene and J. B. McNeill, opened the evening entertainment. They all did well, Layne and McNeill being very good. This was followed by a high-weight wrestling contest between Fred Good and George Hagan. Hagan was the victor, and the contest was a very close one. The referee, Mr. C. S. Miller, was very fair and the contest was a very interesting one. The referee, Mr. C. S. Lime Thrown Into Parnell's Eyes. A local physician says the lime that had become caught beneath his eyelids, and the doctor was only able to remove some of it by using a silk handkerchief and some hair oil. The physician finally advised Mr. Parnell to drive to Kilkenny, so the latter returned to his home and proceeded on his journey. The pain again became so intense that a second operation was made, this time a roadside public house where the doctor was able to remove all the lime from the eye. The doctor was able to remove all the lime from the eye. The doctor was able to remove all the lime from the eye. The doctor was able to remove all the lime from the eye.

There was some further canvassing of the laboring financial question today. Members of the Senate Finance Committee and Caucus Finance Committee got their heads together informally and overhauled the differences between the two bodies. Occasionally a member of the Senate Finance Committee would be heard to say that he was in favor of the ultra silver men, but he was usually speaking in a very guarded way. The ultra silver men are somewhat discouraged at the situation. So much has been said in the Senate and in the Caucus that there is a disposition with some of the ultra silver men to withdraw from the caucus and to support the administration proposition. It is not being charged against them that they have not in the past been sincere in their demands for unlimited silver coinage, but they merely took that radical ground for the purpose of the cover-up of their real intentions.
