OLID FOR CAMERON.

llegheny County's Legislative Delegation Holding No Caucuses

S THE SUBJECT OF A SPEAKER.

E. Stewart, Esq , in the Field as a Candidate for the Place.

OM FOR BROOKS OF PHILADELPHIA

Samuel E. Stewart, Esq., of Verona borigh, whose law office is on Fifth avenue, is city, has announced himself a candiite for Speaker of the House of Representives in Harrisburg this session.

This is Mr. Stewart's third term in the wer branch of the Legislature, to which was first elected in 1886. He has the putation of being a faithful and capable ssemblyman, and is popular at the State pital. He is a well-known member of the liegheny county bar. He is yet young, aving been born in Allegheny June 30, 56. He spent his youth on his father's rm, up the Allegheny river. In 1879 he aduated from Washington and Jefferson ollege, and, coming to Pittsburg, read law lih Major It. E. Stewart, being admitted the bar in 1880.

Little more tuan two weeks now remain efore the State Legislature convenes, and ie Allegheny county members have not yet ecided who they will jointly support for peaker of the House of Representatives. he delegation from Philadelphia has held caucus and formally promised Mr. Brooks, f that city, its entire vote. The Allegheny ounty delegation also usually holds a cauus at home before going to Harrisburg, but is quite probable that this year will be an

NOT YET CALLED TO CAUCUS. No call has thus far been issued for a neeting of the Pittsburg and Allegheny ounty members to act upon the Speakerour. The members from this county could not e bound tegether, in advance of the gathering f the Legislature, to vote for Mr. Brooks bethe Legislature, to vote for Air. Process be-use several of them are not friendly to him, that a cancus in his behalf would be useless. As for the other candidates for the position, is enough interest is being taken here to ake any effort to combine on any one of them. It of the members have received visits or per-nal letters from the various candidates, so-iting their influence and votes. All of these twe friends among the Allegheny county repave friends among the Allegheny county repsentatives.

In his canvass of the home members, a DisArch reporter heard Mr. Finley, of Washingon county, Cateb C. Thompson, of Warren ounty, and Thomas H. Capp, of Lebanon ounty, all of whom are candidaces, favorably poken of. Six of the Allegheny county memers replied almost in the same language, when sked about the Brooks boom. They said:
There is better material in the House than
fr. Brooks." Yet all admitted that the noise I his canvass thus far indicates that he will once before the House next month as perhaps he leading candidate. e leading candidate.

Many of the bome members said that Mr.

tewart should be given the whole vote of Al-gheny county as a recognition of a Pittaburg audidate. They thought that even if he does e State is concerned, this complimentary could be given him on the first ballot at

But, on the whole, most of the members who ere interviewed wished to be left free-footed decide for themselves when they reach arrisburg and see how the various candidates

or is it the desire of the political leaders to have a caucus in Pittsburg. They want to old the vote of the Allegheny county delegation for Speaker free to swing at will so as to in the best vantage ground for the more important political battle—the election of a United States Senator. The Allegheny county delegation as a whole will yote for the candislegation as a whole will vote for the candi-tie for Speaker who is most advantageous to the friends of Don Cameron, be he Brooks or out and as Cameron will be reelected, the Regheny county boys will be on the winning de in the Speakership question also. D. R. Jones, Esq. another Pittsburg lawyer to is a member of the Legislature, takes high rounds in his choice of a Speaker of the ounds in his choice of a Speaker of the ouse. He says: "Until I get to Harrisburg cannot decide for whom I will vote. No icus could bind me. I think a Speaker suld be elected who would be absolutely in-pendent—who would not be the tool of nemans in the organization of the Assembly mean, a man who could not be influenced in e appointment of standing committees; who ald put on the Appropriations Committee on who are known for retrenchment and re-

men who are known for retrenchment and reform; who would appoint on the Corporations Committee men who are anti-corporationsis,
and who would appoint on the Judiciary Feneral Committee a few men who are not actorners. It is the custom to make up this latter committee entirely of lawvers, not I think there should be men on it from other walks of life, such as farmers, artisans and business men, so that we could get a common sense law occasionally."

Inasmuch as the heads of committees is one of the chief sources of influence in the hands of the Speaker, and as the Speaker's election is invariably secured by the promise beforement of those appointments, other members is invariably secured by the promise before-hand of those appointments, other members think that Mr. Jones will not have the oppor-tunity this year to you for a man after his own heart-or for a good many years to come.

SILVER IS BOOMING. The Advance in Price Has Increased Pro duction 100 Per Cent. W. H. Dewey, a silver miner, of Silver City Idaho, is at the Auderson. In a chat yesterday he threw out the impression that he was in Pittsburg to float mining stocks. He is inter-Pittsburg to float mining stocks. He is interested in six silver mines. Mr. Dowey says the advance in price has helped the business, and the production has increased 100 per cent. In daho labor is receiving $1 to $4.50 per day, and the Territory is enjoying a boom at present. Mr. Dewey thinks that the Government should coin no more gold or silver, as too much of it is lost in transportation and various other ways, and has to be redeemed. He believes in keeping it in the Treasury and issuing certificates for it.

ACTORS AT THE HOTELS.

Mr. Barrett is Feeling Well But is Look ing Much Older. The actors to appear in Pittsburg this week are scattered among the different hotels. Lawrence Barrett is at the Monongabela House; Elsie Leslie and ber mother are at the Schlosser, Elsie Leslie and her mother are at the Schlosser, and Maggie Mitchell and her husband are stopping at the Anderson.

Mr. Barrett arrived on the limited last evening. He encased himself in a big overcoat and in another figurative one of substantial dignity. He bears an ugly mark on his neck where the incision was made a year ago to relieve the swollen glands. His last illness has not added anything to the youthfulness of his appearance.

The Unprecedented Demand for Those Lovely Everett Pianos

Is on the increase. Hundredsof happy purchasers will enjoy this Christmas with mirth and music. Many of them have selected their pianos and had them set aside for Christmas deliver. We have pianos enough to supply the demand. Our warehouse at 21 Federal street, and the two storerooms, 137 Federal street, Allegheny, and 124 Franks-town avenue, East End, are all brim full of pinnos; and such pianos! They are the finest ever shown in these cities. They are un-equaled in beauty of design and variety in cases; while the more important part, the tone and action, is all that the most exacting musician can desire. In point of durability they are absolutely unsurpassed. Every piano is warranted for seven years. Purchasers who want full value for every llar they spend for a piano will get it i the Everett. Our system of buying and selling in large contracts, 350 pianos at each purchase, guarantees a lower price than it is possible to get from retail dealers. We provide methods of payment to suit every one. If you want a piano delivered for Christmas, come early and make your selection. Our wagons are very busy now, and we will have to increase their number to accommodate our holiday trade.

Money Talks,

But you would not imagine it was of any value from the way people are taken in, buying planes and organs of city dealers whose expenses are enormous, necessitating an additional price of $50 to $100 on each instrument they sell; and please remember that this is in addition to the fair profit that dealers should have. Echols. McMurray & Co., 123 Sandusky street, Allegheny, will save you all this money if you will give them a chance, and sell you an instrument that is second to none in the market. Just think of it!
