A HOLIDAY RECESS.

Senate and House Trying to Reach an Agreement on It.

THOM & STAFF CORDESPONDENT 1. WASHINGTON, Dec. 22 .- A last attempt is being made to reach an agreement between the Senate and House for a holiday recess. It will be impossible to hold a quorum during the holidays, and there will be little use in attempting legislation during that time. Speaker Reed is said now to favor the usual recess, and it is hoped that the adjournment to-morrow will be until January 5.

The electoral count matter kept the Fortyfourth Congress in session during the holi. Miller on business connected with the instidays in the second session. Only one other | tution of suits, where none have been begun attempt to dispense with a recess has been made since 1870, and that was a failure. During the second session of the Fortyseventh Congress a recess was taken from December 23 until the 27th. The session on the 27th loated half an hour, and an adjournment was taken until the 30th. From the 30th an adjournment was taken until January 2. At the third ses-sion of the Forty-second Congress recess was from December 20 to January 6; second session of the Forty-third, from De cember 23 until January 5; third session of the Forty-fifth, from December 2 to January 7; third session of Forty-sixth, from De cember 22 to January 5: second session Forty-eighth, from December 24 to January ad session Forty-ninth, from Decemher 22 to January 4; second session Fiftieth, from December 21 to January 2.
