SOME ILLUSTRIOUS LADIES ATTEND.

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.—The Tariff Reform Club held a grand banquet to-night in the new concert hall of the Madison Square Garden, to celebrate the recent Democratic victories.

At the speaker's table, on either side of Chairman Everett P. Wheeler, sat President Cleveland and John G. Carlisle, of Kentucky.

At other tables were Henry Villard, Daniel Lambert, Senator Price, W. B. Hornblower, George Hoadley and W. L. Trenholm.

At about 8:30 o'clock Mrs. Grover Cleveland, accompanied by Mrs. John G. Carlisle and other ladies, entered one of the boxes in the first gallery.

When the feasting was finished Chairman Wheeler, in a brief speech, introduced ex-President Cleveland, as the speaker of the evening.

I am at all times willing that the Democratic party should be free to express its views in any direction.

When the speaker had finished his remarks, the speaker of the evening, Mr. Cleveland spoke in part as follows:

It is the treason in the sight of those who, clothed in the Democratic uniform, have been seen to stand at the head of the parade.

The grand and ultimate object of the campaign of education was the promotion of the people from unjust burdens.

Let us be here contented that we as a party had, in these latter days, been able to give credit wherever it is due for the work of our countrymen.

Democracy Weak in the Faith. The more we care about men in the party, the more we care about the principles.

WATERSON DIDN'T BITE. Duval, the Baltimore baby sharper, missed his chance to bite the Democratic party.

LOUISVILLE, Dec. 23.—Duval, the Baltimore sharper, who has just bunked several United States Senators through the medium of a bogus baby, did not limit himself to the Congressional field.

Republican Exultation Over Reform. I am afraid, however that if this task may be considered a step in the campaign of education, the world education, as applied to those who were to be affected, was still alive.

TOO MANY GOVERNORS.

Three Persons Who Claim the Highest Office in Connecticut. THE LEGISLATURE MAY DEADLOCK. In Which Case the Present Incumbent Will Continue to Serve.

BOLD CLAIMS OF THE RIVAL PARTIES.

HARTFORD, Dec. 23.—The muddle resulting from the closeness of the recent election for State officers promises to develop one of the most peculiar phases of the peculiar political history of Connecticut.

On the other hand, the Republican party has not a candidate for election, may continue to hold office for two years to come without having received a vote for the office from anyone.

It will be a strange outcome indeed should Bulkeley be compelled to hold over, and so have thrust upon him the honors of an office which the Republican party refused to give him when he went before its convention seeking a renomination.
