

WILD WEST GUSHERS

Not So Substantial as Indicated by Some of the Reports.

THERE IS SOME GAS IN COLORADO,

But it is Located a Considerable Distance From Any Town.

ONLY A SURFACE ARTICLE IN DAKOTA

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. OMAHA, Neb., Dec. 23.—Nothing takes better among a certain class of Western editors than the announcement of the discovery of natural gas. Pick up casually any first-class paper of Colorado, Montana and Nebraska and the chances are ten to one that you will find a half-dozen fresh fields bubbling out the carbureted fluid at a rate which would discount the big Karg casser in the Fisdlay field. But after a few times going the rounds of the editorial scissors these items are lost sight of in the new crop that has come on.

The fact is, none of the alleged finds in the two Dakotas are genuine. A little surface gas, which exhausted in a few hours, was all the substance the glittering bubble of anticipation could claim. However, there is a real belt in Colorado. In the northwestern part of the State along the white river, and particularly at the mouth of Piceance creek, is a territory which promises to develop wonderfully.

The First Known Indication.

Along this watercourse a number of "burning springs" have been known to exist for several years. About three years ago a cowboy was riding along the course of Piceance creek when he heard a hissing noise. Thinking it was a rattlesnake he dismounted and proceeded to investigate. In a little shallow rivulet he saw a spring bubbling up fiercely.

Guessing what it was he struck a match and a blaze sprang up with such cheerful alacrity that his whiskers had to pay tribute. Staking off a goodly-sized claim he got a company organized and somewhat later drilling began.

Two wells were struck to a depth of 500 feet, both of them getting gas. About the time they reached the porous rock a big cattle round-up happened in that vicinity and the proprietor wanted to help the boys out with a big illumination. He set fire to the gas. The result was he was himself severely burned, and one of his rigs was destroyed. Since then nothing has been done. The wells standing without proper casing filled up with water and are to-day valueless.

No Place to Take It.

About three miles north of this, at the head of Piceance creek, is another set of springs. The same phenomena occurs along the Book cliffs, along the Rio Grande and Midland Railways, from New Castle to Grand Junction.

There is just now, in view of developments in the Florence oil field, a disposition to use this gas. But where can it be taken? The nearest point is Meeker, a little town, and it is 30 miles in a bee line. The next point is Glenwood, but it will take 70 miles of pipe to reach it.

It also claimed in the last several days that a number of gas springs exist about 20 miles from Glenwood, at a place called Aspen. They were discovered by Prof. Sadtler, of the School of Mines.

The Unprecedented Demand for Those Lovely Everett Pianos

Is on the increase. Hundreds of happy purchasers will enjoy this Christmas with mirth and music. Many of them have selected their pianos and had them set aside or Christmas delivery. We have pianos enough to supply the demand at the downtown store, Federal street, and the two stores, 137 Federal street, Allegheny, and 124 Frankstown avenue, East End, are all brim full of pianos; and such pianos as they are the finest ever shown in these cities. They are unequalled in beauty of design and variety in cases; while the more important part, the tone and action, is all that the discerning musician can desire. In point of durability they are absolutely unsurpassed. Every piano is warranted for seven years. Purchasers who want real value for every dollar they spend for a piano will get it in the Everett. Our system of buying and selling in large contracts, 350 pianos at each purchase, guarantees a lower price than it is possible to get from retail dealers. We provide methods of payment to suit every one. If you want a piano delivered for Christmas, come early and make your selection. Our wagons are very busy now, and we will have to increase their number to accommodate our holiday trade.

Why Not Keep Warm? Several hundred ladies' newmarkets, jackets, etc., in real and water weights, just reduced to fully one-half and one-third former price.

INDEPENDENTS ACTIVE,

THOUGH STILL KEEPING THEIR PLANS UNDER COVER.

The Significance of the Position Taken by Lee, Phillips and Others—The Latest Intelligence From the Important Field Centers.

The significance of the independent producers' meeting last night in Pittsburgh, as previously outlined in THE DISPATCH, is drawing the obnoxious interests of the entire oil regions to a just conception of the real state of affairs. There are many who feel slighted because they have not been invited to participate in deliberations which have followed. The reason ascribed for this is that the originators don't propose to take into their councils in the beginning of the new scheme those who are not fully identified with the independent movement. It is no idle thought to assert that the movement which has been inaugurated will be ultimately consummated. We draw this conclusion from the caliber of those who are identified with the new order of things. This forenoon a number of the committee of the P. P. A. and a committee of the independent producers held a conference at the Duquesne Hotel. It was the object of this meeting to ascertain the views of Mr. Phillips regarding the present independent movement. Mr. Phillips, who was called upon by a DISPATCH reporter said that he was simply in the hands of the producers and if they concluded that he was not eligible to their councils he had nothing more to say. Continuing, "My past history should show where I stand and you can always count me on the side of the independent producer. Hon. J. W. Lee who was the conspicuous figure in the couclure, was interrogated, but said it was folly to divulge their plans and intentions to the enemy. The inference drawn from these high authority was that the old P. P. A. would be reconstructed and gentlemen placed at the helm whose ability and integrity would insure the success of the undertaking. Just whether Mr. Phillips had been reinstated by the Executive Committee of the P. P. A. was not decidedly learned. The supposition, however, is that he is to be retained. It is claimed that while Mr. Phillips sold his interests out to the Standard Oil Company, that he did not sell his individuality or his right of franchise. It has also been stated that Mr. Phillips is ready and willing to dispose of his Trust Company stock at any time. In speaking of the late independent movement it has been stated that a prominent Bradford producer that Dan O'Day and Joe Seep have joined the fortunes of the McKinney Bros. and forsaken the Standard. Another meeting of the producers and the Executive Committee of the P. P. A. will convene in this city in a short time.

PSORIASIS 20 YEARS

Body a Mass of Disease. Suffering Fearful. All Through He Must Die. Cured in Six Weeks by Cuticura Remedies.

I have been afflicted for 20 years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some, St. D. V. psoriasis, and others Lapproy, commencing on my scalp and in spite of all I could do, it steadily extended, until a year ago this winter it covered my entire person in the form of dry scales. For the last three years I have been unable to do any labor, and suffering intensely all the time. Every morning there could be seen a dusky part of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of winter my skin commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost that could be thought of, without any relief. The 12th of June I started West and hoped I could reach the Hot Springs. I reached Detroit, Mich., and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a short time to live. I immediately prayed to die. Cracked through the skin all over my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, fingers, feet, and head as a bone, hair dead, dry, and little bits of scales to my feet. How I would like to see you; said, "We will try CUTICURA." Some who are afflicted with the terrible burning sensation from the worst psoriasis, immediately got the CUTICURA, CUTICURA RESOLVANT and SOAP. I commenced by taking one tablespoonful of CUTICURA SOAP freely applied CUTICURA morning and evening. Result: returned to my home in just six weeks from the time I left, and my skin as smooth as this sheet of paper. HENRY K. CARPENTER, Henderson, Jefferson County, N. Y.
