AN UNHAPPY WIFE.

The Search of a Pittsburg Woman for Her Runaway Husbard.

HE IS LOCATED DOWN IN ALABAMA,

. But His Trunk, With Her Belongings, is Found in Cleveland.

A CASE OF DISPUTED POSSESSION

"SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] CLEVELAND, Dec. 24 .- As the train from Pittsburg steamed into the Union depot Tuesday morning, a little woman, closely veiled, was noticed standing on the platform of one of the rear coaches, waiting impatiently for the train to stop. She was the first person to alight, and she immediately hurried through the gates to the ladies' waiting room, where she was joined a few moments later by Depot Detective Sprosty. After a short conversation the pair walked up Bank street to the Lake Shore House, where the woman was found later on by your where the woman was found later on by your

It was learned that her name is Rosa Bullis, and her home is in Pittsburg. She formed the acquaintance of Harold C. Bullis, a young electrical expert, a year or more ago, and April 7, this year, she joined him a young electrical expert, a year or more ago, and April 7, this year, she joined him in this city, and they were married by Rev. Mr. Lutz. a Methodist minister. The couple went from here to Detroit, where they lived happly until last Fourth of July, when Rosa went to visit her parents in Pittsburg. She tarried at her former home about four weeks, which did not seem to suit her loving Benedict, and when she returned to Detroit he had left, and she was again forced to return to her mamma.

Since that time the young wife has been unable to get any tidings of her runaway husband until a few days ago, when she heard that he was at a little town in Alabama. She also received information to the effect that Mr. Bullis had been in this city and left three large trunks containing several articles of clothing and trinkets belonging to her at a hotel here. She at once communicated with the local detectives and the latter discovered the trunks at the Lake Shore House a day or two ago.

Just before the woman arrived here this morning the proprietor of the hotel received a letter from her husband, with $25 inclosed to pay the storage on the trunks and other expenses, with a request to forward the trunks at once. Detective Sprosty ordered the hotel man to hole the trunks. The latter, however, refuses to let the woman have them. He threatens to replevin them. Mrs. Bullis claims to be very well connected in Pittsburg. Bullis is well known in Cleveland, and has an excellent reputation among the electricians.

Rosa left here for her home this evening, but threatens to return in a day or two and begin proceedings. She claims to have a number of valuables in the trunks.

KILLED AT A CROSSING.

While Waiting for One Train to Pass He is Struck by Another.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCHA NEWARK, O., Dec. 24.-To-day Allen Green, aged 70, was standing on the railroad crossing at Third street, waiting for a train to pass, when the east bound Panhandle freight engine struck him, knocking him under the wheels. His left leg was crushed and his left arm mangled, and he had a great hole cut in He begged that his crushed limbs be not taken off, but the doctors amputated them. Green died from his injuries to-night.

EVERY BONE IS CRUSHED.

Horrible Death of a Steubenville Man by

Being Drawn Into a Mill. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCHAL STEERENVILLE Dec. 24.-Levin Jackson of this place, met with a terrible death to-day. He was tending a crusher at Nicholson's brick

He was tending a crusher at Nicholson's brick works. A stone in the clay clogged the crusher, and instead of stopping the engine he reached in to get the stone out while the mill was revolving and fell.

The revolving pan carried him under the immense wheels that grind the clay, and in an instant he was dead, every bone in his body being crushed. He has only been married a short time, and his wife is almost heart-broken,

A NEW EDUCATIONAL PLAN.

The Chicago University May Estal Many Outlying Branches. CHICAGO, Dec. 24.-It has been known me time that Dr. Harper, President of new Baptist University, to be located in city, had made a rather startling educati proposition to the trustees. The nature was not known until to-day, when Rev. Goodspeed, one of the trustees, outlined it. Goodspeed says: "The plan of Dr. Harpe one for college extension. It is propose bring the higher education within reach of common people, and to do so it will be the pose of the new univertity to operate three a system of branch schools or academies, tered through the country. This plan has generally misunderstood. These branches be nothing more than preparatory schools, no power of conferring diplomas or deg All of these branches will, however, be u

DOLLARS AND DIMES SAVED BY THE BARREL

No words can describe the story of the countless thousands that thronged OUR OLD HOME STORE during the first three days of this week. They departed delighted with the fun, the little ones feasted with candy and the adults carrying away thousands of our matchless bargains in merchandise. Thanks for your attendance and liberal patronage. You evidently know where to come to have a good time and save money.

THE NEW YEAR

Will be with us in a few days. Before it comes we are going to make the few remaining days of 1890 forever methorable in the minds of those who appreciate genuine bargains. We intend to
