Bad Weather Causes the Association Football Games to Be Postponed Until a Meeting Is Held.

STRONG PLEA FOR A SPRING HANDICAP.

Conners Hus Scmething More to Say to Lewis-General

Sporting News of the Day. There is no indoor baseball for Pittsburg. The opinion of A. G. Spalding and the merits of the came have settled that point. President O'Neill, of the local club, received a letter from Mr. Spalding yesterday, and in it the Chicago magnate gave the local President to understand that there is "nothing in the game." Mr. O'Neill expressed himself as follows on the question yesterday: "Mr. Spaiding assures me that indoor baseball is not worth bothering with because it is not a game that will last. He takes little interest in it simply because, he points out, it is not worth spending any time or money over. In view of this opinion we do not propose to make any venture with indoor baseball in Pittsburg." Just when Mr. O'Nei-I had finished his talk about the indoor baseball idea Mark Baldwin, the pitcher, appeared on the scene. Mr. O' North accessted him as follows: "Well, are your terms if we should at any time want "About $11,000 per month," said Baldwin, "Now, we jesting, Mark. If we could get your release from Columbus at the proper time, what terms would you want from us?" Mark became quite serious and beckoned Mr. O'Neill and the writer close to him. He then, in very grave tones, under the following declaration: "Mr. O'Neill, I have no objections to you, but I will not play on the Pitts have the later leave as long as a cortain party is conoury team as long as a certain party is con-ordered with it. That settles it, and terms or a terms I won't play in Persburg."

The President gave one of his lond and bearty laughs and said: "Why, Mark, I was Baldwin resumed the conversation and said: Now, let me tell you of a player you should get. You must by all means get Connie Mack, lie is the best catcher in the country, except Botle. Mack is a champion and no mistake."

This active reminded Mr. O'Neill of Buck Exing's make up of next season's Pittsburg term, and the President said: "Issee Ewing assigned Ward to Cincinnati. I have known all along that Cincinnati would be our strongest competitor for Ward, and I know why. I will tell the reason at the proper time. But I fail to see why Unclunati should get a good player in preference to us, providing that good players want to come here. However, I feel certain that the National League will see that we get a strong a team here next year as there is in a strong a team here next year as there is in the country. I am very, very hopeful."
