HEARTS MADE HAPPY.

Some of the Pleasant Features of the New Year's Opening Day.

THE NEWSBOYS' ANNUAL DINNER.

Usual Entertainment at the U. P. Orphans' Home in Allegheny.

A FEW OF THE MANY PRESENTATIONS

Over 800 newsboys and bootblacks standing about eight long tables, shouting at the top of their voices, playing the "Devil's Tattoo" on their plates and filling their little stomachs with good things was the scene presented resterday afternoon at their thirty-second New Year's dinner in Battery B Armory.

The dinner was given by the Leade Publishing Company. Six thousand invitations had been issued to those who wished to witness the povelty of seeing the gamins eat, and fully 4,000 ladies and gentlemen ac-raised platforms at the sides. The boys were formed in front of the Newsboys' Home on Old avenue, and marched to the Armory.

Old avenue, and marched to the Armory. the hall, while the visitors were scated on for the tables, and, despite the efforts of the policemen and attendants, they preserved but little order. It was a wild rush, and as rush with a cheer.

The tables were filled with many good things. There was roast turkey and chicken galore, with other meats, vegetables, oyster soup, celery, coffee and pastry of various kinds, especially pie. Pie was in demand at all times. The youngsters began with pie and ended with pie, and eat pie between times, whenever they could get their hands on their neighbors' property. There was a great deal of pie that was not eaten at the table. It was crammed between shirt and tacket and after dinner every boy on Fifth avenue seemed to be eating pie.

HARD TO PREVENT REPEATING.

It required a sharp eye for the attendants to prevent repeating. When the tables were filled it was found that there were fully 200 boys for whom there was no room, and they were not admitted. There was weeping and wailing among that crowd as they stood on the street, and it looked for a time as if they intended to reach the festive board if they had to fight their way in. They were pacified when told that their turn would soon come; but a more impatient gaug of youngsters it would be ard to find. When the first tables were cleared they were allowed in the hall, and then came the oppor-tunity for repeating. Many of those who had just left the tables fell in behind the newcomers and had another chance at the pie. Many others, however, came to grief when they were yanked out of the line by the watchful police-

The bors were marched to the store in squass of 30 and quickly litted. As they left the store each was handed a good leather pocket book. They lustily cheered the firm.

OPPHANS' HOME ENTERTAINMENT.

Reports of the Affairs of the U. P. Institu tion in Allegheny.

The twelfth annual entertainment of the little orphans at the United Presbyterian Home, corner Monterey and West Jefferson streets, Allegicuy, was held yesterday afternoon. The managers of the home and the ladies interested in its prosperity had charge of the arrangements. The audience was large and appreciative. At 3 o'clock the exercises were commenced. After the devotional exercises, the children, of whom there were about 50, sang several pleasing nursery songs, emphasizing the worth of the songs by well trained and the worth of the songs by well trained and pretty movements of their hands and heads. One song, "Swing, Cradle, Swing," was particularly well rendered and the poetic motions executed so nicely that appliants greeted the selection. Mrs. H. C. Campbell, President of the Board of Managers, made a short address. She said that during the last year 88 children had been that during the last year 88 children had been received at the Home, and at present there were 35 under the care of the managers. The total expense of the last year was $3,990. The cost for the maintenance of each child for a total expense of the last year was $5,000. The cost for the maintenance of each child for a year was $47.00 or about $8.70 per month. This rather low cost is the result of the many contributions received, which obviate many expenses. During the year there has not been a death in the Home, although at present in the hospital there are several sick children, and one is expected to die. The finances of the Home Mrs. Campbell stated, were in good condition: that the value of the property of the Home was $25,000, and that friends from all over the United States and from Egypt and ludia sent donations every year.

A PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT

Given by the Railroad Department of the Y.

M. C. A., Last Evening. The Young Men's Christian Association of the Pennsylvania Railroad Department kept open house at its rooms on Twenty-eighth street, yesterday afternoon, and gave a delightful entertainment in the evening. Railroad employes and their families only were invited and the performers at the entertainment were employee and their families only were invited and the performers at the entertainment were talented railroad folks, so it was strictly a railroad affair and might be called almost a family rounion, so well acquainted did they all seem and so considerate and appreciative of the efforts made for their enjoyment. Substantial refreshments, sandwiches, coffee and cake, were served in the reading room from 12 o doch noon until evening. At 7:56 the literary programme was opened by an overture, "Zaleski," rendered by G. C. Taylor, roundhouse foreman, and his children, Emma, Harry and Walter. A quartet, consisting of Alex T. Miller, George F. Wagner, John L. Marsh and A. S. Simpson, rendered "Hail, Sient Night." Miss irone Daly gave "The Rock Beside the Sea, a piano solo, Joseph D. Brison gave the instigation scene from "Othello" as a recitation. "Dark is the Night" was song by A. T. Miller and children, Master Johntie, Christina, Alison and Jean. Miss Anna Scott rendered as a mine solo "Oscar Wilde's Galop."

Miss Letitia B. Toohill gave a pleasing recitation, and Master Johnnie Miller sang "Where Did You Get that Hat?" "His Black Hat," and other specialties were given by Horace Menter, painter, and a piano solo, "Sweet By-and-By" with variations, was given by Miss Bertha

V. Daly. Other numbers were given by the same performers and the programme closed with a "Good night" quartet and a march. Mrs. J. L. Marsh was the accompanist.

FEASTED WITH AN ALDERMAN. An Enjoyable New Year at the Sevent

Ward Headquarters. Alderman Leslie, of the Seventeenth ward, gave his ninth annual New Years reception to his friends of that ward yesterday. The reception was held from 4 P. M. to 8 P. M. His office was very beautifully decorated with holly, evergreen and a number of flags, presenting a very pretty appearance. Over 800 persons were entertained in a royal manner; the delicacies of the table and the general feeling of good will characterized the event one of the most enjoyable given by Mr. Leslie.

MAKING A JOLLY START.

The Incoming Year Welcomed With Music Dancing and General Hilarity.

Very little business was transacted yesterday. The courts were closed, banks neither received nor paid out money and nearly all the stores, The tables were ranged in the center of he hall, while the visitors were seated on downtown streets were crowded all day long, and the theaters, billiard rooms and saloons did

Celebration of the Marselliaise Club. The members of the Marseillaise Club cele-brated New Years at their club rooms at Carson and South Twenty-third streets yesterday afternoon, by a banquet. None but members were present. An excellent bill of fare had been prepared by the steward and was enjoyed to the greatest possible extent by all. After the banquet a number of recitations and songs were given by different members of the club. One interesting feature of the afternoon's entertainment was the presentation of a hand-some gold-headed umbrella to Samuel Harris, the President of the club.

The inmates of the County Jail had a real American banquet yesterday—they dined on hash. There were two reasons for it. One, be-cause it was on the regular bill of fare, and the other, because no one furnished anything

APPEALING TO THE LAW.

Two New Suits to Test the Employers' Liability Act-Damages Wanted by a Boy Whose Foot Was Ground Up in Rolls for Grinding Brick Clay.

It is probable that in a few years, in this State full of factories, precautions for the safety of human life and limb will be enforced by suits irrespective of the factory inspection law, which went into effect last year, the Supreme Court in the cases of George Rommel, Sr., and George Rommel, Jr., baving in two decisions laid down the law of employers' liability so plainly that there is no escape and argued thy A. The precipes in two suits in Common Pleas No. 1 have just been filed by J. D. Watson, and departed, and that expressed it exactly. It was a mess, for not only the tables but the floor was strewn with broken food.

It requires a great deal of food to satisfy 800 boys, and at such a dinner there is bound to be considerable waste. All that was left over was given to poor femilies. Captain W. W. Full wood, of the Leader, had entire charge of the arrangements for the dinner, assisted by a large volunteer corps of walters, while the kitchen was under the care of colored cooks. The Cathedral Band furnished selections before the dinner began, but the boys had no cars for music when pie was put before them, and the band gave it up.

EUROPEAN PRESS CLUBS

Will Probably Be Represented at the Convention in Pittsburg.

The National German Association of Press Clubs, including local organizations in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, San Francisco and Cleveland, will have as a spokesman in the International Conven-tion of Press Clubs to be held in this city Januas a spokesman in the International Convention of Press Clubs, to be held in this city January Z. Dr. Joseph Scuver, of the New York Staats Zeitung, President of the association, and other officers and leading members. Accompanying the invitation to take part in the convention sent by the President of the Pittsburg Press Club to the press clubs of Berlin and Vienna were letters from Dr. Senver offering a cordial welcome in behalf of the German Press Clubs of the United States to any delegates which the newspaper men of the German and Austrian capitals might send. As all the press clubs of Germany and Austria are organized as branches of the Central Associations in Berlin and Vienna, the delegates sent from the latter cities will be national as well as metropolitan representatives. The press clubs of London and Paris, on the other hand, represent those cities alone. The question of admitting associations of women writers to the proposed international association is one which the convention will be early called upon to decide. The decision of course, will depend largely upon what form the organization may take. It is quite probable that a majority of the delegates will favor extending the right hand of fellowship to the ladies. The New England Women's Press Association, upon whose roll of membership are the names of many noted women, cditors and authoresses, has intimated, through its secretary, its intention of sending delegates. Several similar organizations in the country are expected to follow suit. ganizations in the country are expected to follow suit.

OIL IN FOURTH SAND Interest Revived in French Creek

THE FACTS ABOUT AN OLD WELL,

Fields, Venango County.

Reports From Harmony and Wildwood Are Not Encouraging.

The beginning of the new year has generally been observed by the oil fraternity. There is, nothing startling from the fields in the southwest. Burt Brothers yesterday brought in a good well at Mannington, which is estimated anywhere from 100 to 400 barrels a day.

Some Fourth Sand Developm VENANGO COUNTY-The well just finished on the Duffield farm, south of Uties, revives the interest in the county along French creek. The Duffield well is located on the hill 400 feet above the level of French creek. Third sand was found at 1,000 feet, and 50 feet of fourth sand at 1,550 with a show of both oil and gas.

In 1865 a well was drilled on the Stevens farm, on Deer creek, about one mile west of the Mercer and Venango county line, finding 50 feet of sand at the same horizon, of better quality, and although drilled wet had considerable oil. This would indicate the existence of a fourth sand for a distance the existence of a fourth sand for a distance of four and one-half miles at Raymitton, One of the 23-year-old wells produced oil from this sand at 1,400 feet, and being eight miles south of the Sievens well, on Deer creek, shows the sand to extend south.

The Raymitton well has been regarded as producing from the Speechly sand, producing oil sat Walnut bend; but from recent levels taken, the Speechly sand would be found, if at all, to be 500 feet below the Raymitton. Duffield and Stevens sand. This field, having a 50-foot sand at three points so far distant from each other, with one producing oil for the past 25 years, with another prospective sand 300 be-25 years, with another prospective sand 500 below, would be a field for some of our ente prising wild-catters to enter.

The Williams well, in Canall town

The Williams well, in Cauall township, operated for a number of years by J. J. McLavin, produced oil from the second sand two miles southwest on French creek. The gas comes up as from a crevice, extending across the creek, and a mile further on the same course gas raises in Deer creek at the old Deer Lick, and again in Mill creek, East Lebanon.

Not Looking So Good. HARMONY-Direct information to-night from Harmony puts the Duff well at 25 feet in the sand with no showing of oil. The venture is located 200 feet northwest from the Chustie & Lutton producer, in which the oil was found at 20 feet in the sand. While there is yet a living hope of the well being a producer, this fact clearly demonstrates the uncertainty of the 100-foot territory.

A Wildwood Well Overestimated. WILDWOOD—Reports have overestimated the importance of the McDevitt well, on the Guyton farm. The well was struck Tuesday night, and has since made five tanks of oil. Mr. McDevitt says the well is only six or eight inches in the sand. The gauge of the three Kress wells to-night is 40, 50 and 110 barrels an bonr.
