Stock trading was below zero Saturday, only one sale being made, that of 20 shares of electric at 13%. This was not discouraging, however, as little had been expected so soon after one of the great holidays of the year. There were 30 bids and 27 offers, showing about as many bulls as bears.

Owing to the weather and the unusual caution of financiers, business at the banks since the opening of the year is of considerably smaller volume than at the corresponding time in 1890. This leaves room for it to grow, and that it will do so no one entertains a doubt. By the middle of the month settlements will be out of the way and everything squarely on its feet. Improvement will then be in order.

one of the great holidays of the year. There were 30 bids and 27 offers, showing about as many bulls as bears.

The fact that stocks are generally in strong hands, weak holders having been pretty thoroughly shaken out during the recent flurry, leads to the belief that there will be a steady appreciation from this time on until values reach a respectable level. With forced sales, for which there seems to be no longer a reason, eliminated from the problem, those who are predicting an advance are more likely than not to realize their expectations.

Closing prices, as compared with those of the previous Saturday, show fractional losses in Philadelphia Gas and Central Traction and corresponding gains in Luster, Pleasant Valley and Switch and Signal. Electric held its own. The rest of the list was featureless so far as figures were concerned.

The total sales of stocks Saturday were 103,975 shares, including; Atchison, 5,260: Lackawanna, 11,189; Louisville and Nashville, 8,530: Missouri Pacific, 3,065: Northwestern, 2,600; North American, 3,401; Northern Pacific preferred, 6,600; Reading, 2,100; Elichmond and West Point, 2,630; St. Paul, 6,310; Union Pacific, 9,800.

WHOLESALE -:- HOUSE,

Although there was no business in oil Satur-day the traders were in a comfortable frame of mind over the advance noted the previous day, which was fully maintained.

The best bid was 72%, but it failed to bring out any of the commodity. It was offered spar-ingly at 73, and that was the figure at the close. Its rejection indicates strong confidence in the future.

The events of the week were few, but such as occurred were of a bullish nature. The principal factors in the advance were increasing demand, smaller production, an upward movement in refined and confidence in the outcome of the producers' movement.

Burning of the Court House. On May 7, following their induction to office, the Court House, which was the pride of the pioneers, was burned to the ground, and the financial standing of the county re-ceived a shock, which is still tresh in the memory of most of our citizens. Within 20 days of the burning of the Court House, the old University hailding was purchased by the County Commissioners at a cost of $100,000, and later on an additional building on the corner of Old avenue and Diamond was erected at a cost of $51,000, both of which are still the property of the county and are certainly worth more than their cost.

For the plot of ground on which the present jail stands, $162,200 was paid by the county within a year of the fire. In 1885, county bonds, which had been bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent, were refunded at 4 per cent, and subsequently other bonds were issued at 3½ per cent, and were sold at premium. The new Court House and jail, which are the pride of our city and the finest in the land, costing in the neighborhood of $2,500,

Markets have not been so well cleaned up in poultry lines for many weeks past as they are at this time and prices are very firm. Supply of potatoes is good, but there are none too many of choice quality. A good article readily brings $1 25 per bushel. Fancy apples are also firm at outside quotations. Creamery butter and eggs are neither as firm as at the beginning of the week and prices are a shade lower. Tropical

NEW YORK STOCKS.

The Share Market Continues Strong Despite Bear Attacks-Rock Island the Only Important Exception-What the Bank Statement Shows. NEW YORK, January 3.-The bank statement

NEW YORK, January 2.—The bank statement was to many people a surprise, as it was known that there had been a movement of currency out of the banks, both to the interior and through the sub-treasury, and, therefore, the moderate increase in the surplus reserve was not looked for. Money should, however, from this time return to this city and the money market grow easier. The market to-day responded to those conditions and displayed even greater strength than yesterday, investment buying continuing to be the principal feature. Houses which do a strictly investment buying continuing to be the principal feature. Houses which do a strictly investment buying the demand for good bonds and dividend paying stocks. Such a scarcity of securities upon the street has not been known in 15 years, and in consequence every attempt to buy for either side of the account advances prices.

The news from the railroad world to-day was not of special importance, but the Union Pacific and Rock Island difficulty caused considerable comment. The general opinion is, however, that while the trouble may have some effect upon the stocks of those roads, it can have little or no influence on other properties. In the market this morning, the bears were inclined to again test the strength of the late upward movement, and were permitted, with the aid of some foreign selling, to open most of the list at slight declines from last evening's figures. Louisville and Nashville was ½ lower, but among the advances were some of ½ per cent. The buying, however, was too much for the pressure brought to bear, and the natural strength of the market soon asserted itself, the most conspicuous example being Lackawanna, which was run up to 134½, a gain of 1½ per cent. The loss in Louisville was also recovered, while some of the specialities scored material advances, and almost everything traded in made fractional gains.

Rock Island was the only weak point in the list and riving no evidence of support it be-most everything traded in made fractional gains.

Rock Island was the only weak point in the list, and, giving no evidence of support, it became the prey of the bears, who sold it down 1½.

There was some reaction in the last hour on realizations by the traders, but the issue of the bank statement was the signal for the renewal of the upward movement, and the best prices were again reached, and in a few cases higher figures were attained. The close was fairly active and strong at the highest points. The only material advances among the active shares were Lackawanna and Colorado Coal, 1 per per cent each. were Lackawanns and Colorado Coal, 1 per per cent each.

The bond market continued to show the effect of the new demand, and in the two hours of business there were $1,015,000 traded in, which was evenly distributed over a large number of issues. The gains were in many cases large. Northwestern debentures rose 2 to 108, Fort Worth and Denver 1sts 2 to 102.
