The committee representing Energetic Lodge No. 378, of Bennett, which presented the list to the Superintendent, was composed of C. C. Goosnel, Chairman; James Butler, Secretary, W. E. Badger, W. J. C. McGeary, Lawson Jones and E. W. Baird.

This action, as stated in yesterday's Dis-

Jones and E. W. Baird.

This action, as stated in vesterday's DisPAICH, is the result of the work done by the General Grievance Committee while here a few months ago. At that time it was thought the general rules would be departed from, and the receiver rises would be departed from, and that the matter would go directly before the general superintendents. It afterward leaked out, though, that the general committee had been "called off" by their superior officers, and ordered to present the grievances properly, which has now been done. There will probably be a conference to-day.

RELEASED BY THE INSPECTOR.

A Bride and Groom Arrested on a Telegram From Johnstown-The Young Man Told a Good Story and Mr. Me-Aleese Believed Him.

A bride and groom on their wedding tour were arrested at the Union depot last evening by Detective Shore, and after being taken to Inspector McAleese's office, were questioned, and sent on their way rejoicing.

The Inspector yesterday afternoon received a telegram from Alderman Harris, formerly Chief of Police of Johnstown, requesting the arrest of A. J. Post and wife, who would arrive A CONFERENCE MAY BE HELD TO-DAY on the evening train. Mr. Post was described arrest of A. J. Post and wife, who would arrive on the evening train, Mr. Post was described in the telegram as a tail, fine looking man, wearing a silk hat and light colored overcoat. The lady was described as a pretty little blonde, stylishly dressed. Detective Shore had no trouble in picking out the couple when they alighted from the train.

Mr. Post was dumfounded when he learned he was under arrest, and his little bride almost fainted. They were sure some mistake had been made, and went along with the detective willingly. The Inspector informed them that their arrest was caused by a suit against them for detrauding a boarding house keeper.

"Why," exclaimed the gentleman in astonishment, "we were only married yesterday and have neither of us ever boarded anywhere!"
