A Daring and Successful Young Gang of Thieves Broken Up.

THEY READ WILD WEST STORIES.

Two Suicides of the Cold-Blooded Variety in an Chio Town.

TWO MORE WILSON SUSPECTS CAUGHT

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCELS KENT, O., Jan. 7 .- The exciting career of a gang of youthful robbert has just been brought to a close by the taking of six boys, ranging from 9 to 14 years of age, to the Reform School at Lancaster. During the past three months the gang has been carrying on a regular system of robbery. The old disused flint glass works was their place of meeting, and regularly they gathered there and, presided over by their regularlyelected officers, planued all their robberies.

Their chief was one named McDermitt, and they used the many odd corners of the old glass house for storing their miscellaneous plunder. Whenever funds ran low they would bring the articles to light and sell them for whatever they could get, By some means the boys secured duplicate keys of a large number of stores in various acys of a large number of stores in various parts of this place, and entered the chosen stores whenever they pleased. They seemed to have a particular liking for tobacco and hardware stores, and their robberies gradually increased in size as they became more bold and

New Year's Day the biggest steal was made New Year's Day the biggest steal was made at 5 pencer's hardware store, and a large number of razors and valuable hardware were taken. The matter was placed in the hands of Detective Kelso and Officer Newton, and they seem arrested a boy named Price, who was trying to sell certain articles thought to have been the same as those taken. After a severe course of training the boy weakened and confessed, and the entire gang was captured and sentenced to the school. They were all of the younger and lower class of boys, and their minds had been inflamed by the wildest of Wild West tales, sent out in yellow-backed novels.

This atternoon a lot of the stolen goods were found under the glass factory. They consisted of rators, knives, rubber goods, cigars, and all souts of miscellaneous goods. They were mostly identified by the merchants whom the boys confessed robbing.

HARD TIMES AT SCRANTON.

The Duliness of the Steel Rail Market Having Its Effect. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR !

SCRANTON, Jan. 7.-The duliness of the steel rail market may be attended with disastrons tesults in this city, where one-sixth of the total output of the world is manufactured an-mually.

The first effects of the scarcity of orders were feit January I, when the Lackawanna Iron and Coal Company cut down the wages of all employes 10 per cent. Yesterday morning the Scranton Steel Company discharged 400 workmen indefinitely. This morning the Lackawanna Iron and Coal Company, to further lessen their production, put their works on half time. As there are thousands of men depending on the steel industry for a subsistence, the effect on trade in general may be easily imagined.

UNINTELLIGENT VOTING.

The Ballot For and Against a Strike in Center County Will Be Retaken.

PHILLIPSBURG, Jan. 7 .- The checkweighmen of Division A met last night for the pur-pose of counting the votes of the miners for and against a strike. In consequence of some misunderstanding respecting the resolutions on the circular issued by the miners' agent, John Paisley, which seemed to have confused a large number of miners, the committee decided that an intelligent vote had not been given. It was then resolved that no record be made of the hallots cast, and that a vote be again taken. This will cause some delay before a decision is arrived at. It is said that the vote stood 5 to 3 in favor of a strike, but with a better understanding of the resolutions submitted to be voted upon, it is expected that a different return will be made.

PLENTY OF MURDERER WILSON.

Two More of Him Have Just Been Cap in the State.

PETECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH BELLEFONTE, Jan. 7 .- Two more men have been captured who seem to answer the de-scription of the escaped Murderer Wilson-one in Tioga and the other in Perry county. The Perry man appears to answer the description very minutely, and his feet were sore as if he The District Attorney has received a letter from a man in another part of the county who says he knew Wilson and will forward his photograph. This, it is thought, will make the capture certain, as there is a reward of $500 on his head.

Members of the West Virginia Bar Meet at Parkersburg.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WHEELING, Jan. 7 .- At the opening of the session of the State Bar Association at Parkers. burg to-day, President H. M. Russell criticised most severely the existing State laws relating to corporations, and denounced the practice of granting charters to bogus enterprises as a burning disgrace. He backed his opinion by citing legal authorities from other States.

The address caused a great sensation, but is generally approved as being a just criticism upon the present unsavory state of affairs.

The miners are printing as many copies of their reply, and will also have them likewise distributed. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

And if not, let us ask why not? We have declared a big dividend to all customers who patronize us this week by making immense reductions in every department of our estalishment. True, there's NOT MUCH money in such a sale for us, but we're not after money now, we're after you. Profit isn't the only thing to be sought in business; friends and permanent patrons are even more necessary.

There are different ways by which to endeavor to stir up trade. One is to whoop it up with a sale of out-of-date and inferior line of goods on which a good profit can be made, although the price is low-the quality being low also. Another way is to offer the best of goods at a low price, with little or no profit. We keep our door-knows bright by the latter method.

In the goods we now offer you, whether you select Clothing, Furnishings, Hats or Shoes, there is Fashion's highest reach in style and honest quality in the goods.
