LIVE STOCK REVIEW. Quality of Cattle Received at East

Liberty Stock Yards

Prices of a Week Ago.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, WEDNESDAY, Jan. 7. Receipts of cattle at East Liberty Stock Yards have varied very little for the past three weeks. The total this week was about 80 carloads. Quality of this week's offerings was scarcely up to that of last week. The holiday trade calls for beeves of extra quality in competition with poultry, and hence offerings of the past week or two have been above average in quality. The week's offerings have shown a decline in quality, but in spite of this markets were steady. Prime heavy beeves were a shade weaker this week than last. There was a larger per cent of light butcher cattle than usual on the market, and prices of last week were fully maintained. There is no call for feeders, and, while stockers are in fair demand, supply is light. The highest price paid for beeves this week was $4.85. Dows and enives were scarce and firm. Veal caives were in good demand at a range of 6c to 7c per pound, an advance of 3c on last week's prices. Supply of good fresh ows was not up to demand and range of prices was $25 to $45. For the first time in many weeks the demand for cattle on the local market was above supfor cattle on the local market was above supply and the pens were cleaned up early at prices quoted. There were no beeves shipped on in first hands this week,

a fact which breaks the record for several months past. Supply of cattle for local trude has been uniformly above demand for several months past. This week demand has been above supply on desirable grades.
Prices are firm on all grades, with the exception of prime heavy beeves.

The provision market opened weak and a shade lower on the heavy receipts of hogs and the lower prices reported for them from the yards. Wheat Encounters a Snag in the Shape of Large Pacific Stocks - Corn and Oats Gain Ground-Provisions

CHICAGO-Wheat was firmer at the opening this morning than it closed on Tuesday after-noon and the change was rather unaccount-able. May wheat opened at 97%c bid, with very little for sale at that price, and trading almost change which had come over their spirits ascribed it shortly to strong cables. As the cables were not strong other causes must have been operative, and some of them pointed to the smaller local receipts. Even the latte the smaller local receipts. Even the latter reason, however, was insefficient to account for an advance of Me per bushel in a few minutes, and, therefore, it may be assumed that some heavy shorts had concluded to cover their lines, for the advance was assuredly not the result of any heavy buying for long account.

The prices kept well up for a time around 97%c, touching 97%c97%c on two occasions, but in the last half the market weakened and sold down rather rapidly in the end to 95%c, and closed at that bid. The straw that broke the back of the market was Bradstreef's figures, showing the Pacific stocks to be 12,944,000 bushels of the week previous.

The corn market opened strong on small receipts. This caused prices to start at an advance of 16,00%c, the first sales being at from $27,60%c. OPTION ON VALUABLE PROPERTY. Practical Suggestion for One of the Entrances to Schenley Park.

It was reported vesterday on good author ity-that of a prominent pork packer-that an option has been secured by one of the hotel syndicates on 200 feet of ground on the northwest corner of Liberty and Sixth streets for a first-class hostelrie. The bulk of this property is owned by the Smith heirs. Other owners are James McCoy, Ed Simpson, Samuel Morrison, Mrs. Hattrick and Mrs. Culbertson. Mrs. Culbertson.

An attempt was made to get the inside facts of the matter, but all the individuals supposed to be connected with the project who were seen declined to say anything for publication. There is nothing improbable in the story, however, as it is well known that at least two syndicates are looking for hetel sites.

Useful and Ornamental. The following communication on a subject suggested by THE DISPATCH, is of general in-

To the Financial Editor of The Dispatch: I hear some talk of putting up handsome en-trance gates at Schenley Park. Let me make a suggestion to the quarrymen, stone cutters and building contractors, that they combine to put up two handsome piliars, or piliars and a stone arch, each separate stone to be a specimen of the different stone used in this district for building purposes. The base should be of the famous Beaver county stone so much used for heavy foundations, the granites and stone of different shades to be blended in an artistic manner. The quality of each stone should be designated by letters cut in it, so that contractors and architects in talking about different material for building residences could take their clients out to the park gate and show the their clients out to the park gate and show the shade of stone or granite.

The entrance gate of a public park in Edinburgh, Scotland, the handsomest gate to the park, was in this way permanently decorated. Of course the plan must be prepared by an architect. Each one of the quarry owners should send the stone in the rough of the proper size required. The stonecutters in the city would then cut it and the builders put it in place, all free of charge. We could thus have a beautiful entrance that would look well and be of some use, both to geologists and the building public.

change in front, apparent or real, of foreigners, and where they have been sellers of stocks to-day an effort to get back those stocks with. out advancing prices.

The announcement that the Louisville and Nashville had declared a dividend, and that it was 21/2 per cent in cash, had a most salutary effect upon that stock in the early trading, making it the feature of the dealings throughout the forenoon. There were sales of it by German houses, however, and the traders were bearishly inclined still, and some vigorous efforts were made at times to get certain stocks down. The bearish fraternity were also much concerned over the possibility of a meeting tomorrow, but the general public, which is now in the market to a limited extent, showed no apprehension but that everything would proceed as smoothly as may be desired.

The pressure of short stocks upon the market prevented any material advance in the general list, and gave the market a feverish tone which lasted throughout the entire session. A strong undertone, however, asserted itself, and little or no impression was made upon the list. Louisville and Nashville had a spurt of activity and strength in the early trading, and was followed later by Pacific Mail. Sugar Refineries also displayed marked strength, which was founded to the deal of the content of effect upon that stock in the early trading, lowed later by Pacific Mail. Sugar Refineries also displayed marked strength, which was found to be due to the covering of a large short line in the stock. Jersey Central also made a sharp upward spurt in the later dealings, but lost a portion of the improvement in the final transactions.

The market, if anything, was narrower than that of vesterday, the bulk of the trading being confined more than usually to the leading shares. The best prices were reached before 2 P. M., and while some reaction was seen from the highest points, the close was quiet and firm. The final changes are generally fractional gains, but the early ones of importance were advances of 1 per cent each in Louisville, Union Pacific and Wheeling and Lake Erie preferred, while Jersey Central is up 3 per cent.

ent. Railroad bonds were not quite so active as Railroad bonds were not quite so active as yesterday, the sales reaching $2,197,000, but the same strength was displayed, and most of the final changes are in the direction of higher prices, with a few losses here and there. The active issues were again Atchison incomes and Northern Pacific 5s.

The Postsays: Rock Island was heavily sold short again, both yesterday and to-day, and the outstanding short interests became so large that before 20'clock the bears became uneasy and put it up 1 per cent on themselves in about an hour in their attempts to cover. There is good reason to believe that activity and the advance in stocks were checked to a considerable extent, both yesterday and to-day, by the revival of the talk about silver legislation. It is not so much that speculators believe there will actually be any further silver legislation as they do that the agitation of the subject will set some people boarding gold again, and so have an effect on the money market. At any rate, there is still an active bear party in the stock market who are encouraged by it and make it a factor in specialation.

DOMESTIC MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, WEDNESDAY, Jan. 7, 189L Country Produce-Jobbing Prices. Wild, wintry weather for the past few days has proved adverse to trade. Potatoes are firm and fancy stock readily brings outside quota-tions. Demand for apples is slow, and markets are weak. When apples are about as high as oranges, as they have been for a few weeks past, the latter take the preference. Creamery and country butter are weak, and prices are a shade lower. Since the courts of Pennsylvania have decided in favor of oleo, demand for the latter has improved at the expense of genuine stuff. Fresh nearby eggs are in short supply. Western stock is firm and tendency of prices is upward, a fact attributable to cold weather. Chicago prices are up to 22c per dozen, and this means 25c per dozen at this market.
