FOR THE YEAR 1890,

WORDS TO OUTSIDERS.

Rev. Dr. Talmage Speaks Especially to the Non-Church-Goers.

NO MONOPOLY IN REAL RELIGION.

The Door Wide Open for the Return of Those Out in the Cold.

HE NEVER SCOPPED AT SKEPTICISM

BROOKLYN, Jan. 11 .- The following powerful sermon to non-church-goers was selivered by Dr. Talmage this morning in the Academy of Music, this city, and again in the evening at service in the New York Academy of Music. At the latter service the new choir of 200 voices most effectively led the musical exercises. Dr. Talmage's text was John 10: 16, "Other sheep I have influences, you have a right to one whole side of the Lord's table, spreading yourself out so nobody close can sit there? You will have to hauf in your elbows, and there will come a great multirude, to sit at the table, and on both sides of you. You are not going to have this monopoly of religion. "Other sheep have I which are not of this fold."

McDonald, the Scotchman, has on the Scotch hills a great flock of sheep. McDonald has 4,000 or 5,000 head of sheep. Some are browsing in the heather, some are on the hills, some are in the valleys, a few are in the yard. One day Cameron comes over to McDonald and says: "McDonald, you have 30 sheep; I have been counting them." "Oh, me!" says McDonald, "I have 4,000 or 4,000." "Ah!" says Cameron, "you are mistaken; I have just counted them: there are 30." "Why," says McDonald. "do you suppose that is all the sheep I have? I have sheep on the distant hills and in the valleys, ranging and reaming everywhere. Other sheep have I which are not of this fold."

So Christ comes. Here is a group of Chris-such that are not of this fold."

So thrist comes. Here is a group of Christians; and there is a group of Christians; and there is a group of Christians; here is a Methodist fold, here is a Presbyterian fold, here is a Eatheran fold, are is a Eatheran fold, and we make our annual statistics, and we hink we can tell you just how many there are in the world; how many there are in the world; how many there are in the world; how many there would have are giving an intelligent and an accurate account; but Christ comes, and he says. You have not counted them right. There are hose whom you have never seen, those of shom you have never seen, those of shom you have never beard. I have my chiltren in all parts of the earth, on all the islands of the sea, in all the continents, in all the mountheep on the mountains. And they are coming to-day.

You are now this hour in the tide of Christian influences; you are going to be swept in; your voice is going to be heard in prayer; you are going to live a life of usefulness, and-your deathbed is going to be surrounded by Christian sympathizers; and devout men will carry you to your burial when your work is done and these words will be chiscled for your estable. "Procious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints." And all that instery is going to begin to-day. "Other sheep have I which are not of this fold."

Again I remark, the Heavenly Shepherd is poing to find many of His sheep among those who are now rejecters of Christianity. I do not know how you came to reject Christianity. I do not know how you came to reject Christianity. I do not know how bether it was through hearing Theodore Parker preach, or whether it was reading Remail's "Life of Jesus," or whether it uss through some skeptic in the store or factory. Or it may be—probably is the case—that you were disgusted with religion and disgusted with Christianity because some man who professed to be a Christian defrauded you, and he being a member of the church, and you taking him as a representative of the Christian religion, you said, "Well, if that's religion, I don't want any of it."

Going to Ask a Favor.

I do not know how you came to reject Chris-tianity, but you frankly tell me you do reject it; you do not think the Bible is the Word of God, although there are many things in it you adare; you do not think that Christ was a divine ing, although you think He was a very good being, although you think He was a very good man. You say, "If the Bible be true—the most of the Eible be true—the most of the Eible be true—i nevertheless think the earlier part of the Bible is an allegary." And there are 50 things that I believe you do not believe. Nevertheless they tell me in regard to you that you are an accommodating, you are an obliging person. If I should come to you and ask of you a favor you would grant it, if it were possible. It would be a joy for you to grant me a favor. If any of your friends came to you and wanted an accommonds came to you and wanted an accommo-ion, and you could accommodate them, how ation, and you could accommodate them, how had you would be!

Now I am going to ask of you a favor. I reart you to oblige me. The accommodation eill cost you nothing, and will give me great tappiness. Of course you will not deny me. I want you as an experiment to try the Christian religion. If it does not stand the test, discard it; if it does, receive it.

If you were very sick, and you had been given up of the doctors, and I came to you and I took a bottle of medicine I am sure will help you; it has cured 50 people." you would say, "Ob, I haven't any confidence in it; they tell me all these medicines will fail me." "Well." I say, "well you not, as a matter of accommodation to myself, just try it?" "Well." you say, "I have no objection to trying it; If will be any satisfaction to you I will try it." You take it. Now you are sick in disquietude, sick in sin. You are not happy. You laugh sometimes when you are miserable. There come surges of unhappiness over your soul that almost swamp you. You are unhappy, struck through with unress. Now well you not try this solace, this febrifuge.

Now will you not try this solace, this febrifuge.

The same try this solace, the febrifuge.

Now will you not try this solace, this febrifuge. Now will you not try this solace, this febrifuge, this anodyne, this cospel medicine? "Oh," you say, "I haven't any faith in it." As a matter of accommodation, let me introduce you to the Lord Jesus Christ, the Great Physician, "Why," you say, "I haven't any faith in Him." Well, now, will you not just let Him come and try His power on your soul? Just let me introduce Him to you. I do not ask you to take the advice of clergymen. Perhaps the clergymen may be prejuanced; perhaps we may be speaking professionally; perhaps we may give you wrong advice; perhaps we are morbid on that sauljedt; so I do not ask you to take the advice of ciergymen. I ask you to take the advice of ciergymen. I ask you to take the advice of ciergymen. I ask you to take the advice of very respectable laymen, such as William Wilberforce, the statesman; as Isanc Newton, the astronomer; as Robert Boyle, the philosopher; as Locke, the metaphysician; as Morse, the electrician.

Those men never preached-they never prended to preach—but they come out, and put-ng down, one his telescope and another the actrician's wire, and another the Parliamentary scroll—they come out and they commend Christ as a comfort to all the people, a Christ thint has a comfort to all the people, a Christ that the world needs. Now I do not ask you to take the advice of clergymon. Take the advice of these laymen. It does not make any difference to me at this juncture what you have said against the Bible; it does not make any difference to me at this juncture how you may have caricatured religion. Take the advice of men who are prominent in secolar affaire, as these men whom I have mentioned, and others who immediately occur to your mind. You see 1 do not scoff at skepticism. I had a good reason for not scoffing. I have been a natural skeptic. I do not know what the first word was that I uttered after entering this world, but I think it must have been "why?" There were times when I doubted the existence of God, when I doubted the divinity of the soul, when I doubted the divinity of the soul, when I doubted the immortality of the soul, when I doubted everything. I have been through the whole curriculum of doubt, and you can tell me nothing new about it, and you can tell me nothing new about it, and know about the other land. I have been there. You can tell me nothing new about it; and know all about the other condition of which you do not know anything—the peace, the comfort, the joy, the triumph of trusting in God, and in Jesus Christ whom he has sent. So I am not scoffing in regard to it.

There are some things I believe that you do not; but there are some things that I believe and you do believe. You believe in love—a father's love, a mother's love, a wife's love, a father's love, a mother's love, a m shee have chost of 200 votices most enecutively led the musical exercises. Dr. Talmage's text was John 10: 36, "Other sheep I have which are not of this fold."

There is no monopoly in religion. The grace of God is not a nice little property fenced off all for courselves. It is not a kings park, at which we look through a barrell gateway, wishing we might go in and pluck the flowers and look at the deer and the statuary, It is a father's orchard, and there are bars to let down, and gates to swing open.

In my boyhood days, next to the country school house where I went, there was an apple orchard of great luxuriance, owned by a very lame man who did not gather the apples, and they went to waste by scores of bashels. Sometimes the lads of the school, in the sinfulness of a nature inherited from our first parents who fell through the same temptation, would climb over the fence and take some of these apples, and notwithstanding the fact that there was a simplify, and all going to waste, the owner of a nature inherited from our first parents who fell through the same temptation, would climb over the fence and take some of these apples, and notwithstanding the father of food, and and there are and the same temptation, would climb over the fence and take some of these apples, and notwithstanding the father of food, and all the more they take the better he likes at the table, and all the property of the food of the sound of the same and the same and the same through the command all the time afraid that some will get these apples when they really ought not to have them.

A Great Multitude Coming.

Have you any idea that, because you were bapireed at 8 months of age, and because you have all your life been surrounded by hallowed influences, you have a right to one whole side of the Lord's table, spreading yourself out some and the surrounded by hallowed influences, you have a right to one whole side of the Lord's table, spreading yourself out some and the surrounded by the same of you, You are not going to have the surro Swing the Door Wide Open.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

The Harmonious Conference of Railron Presidents is the Leading Factor in the Situation-Coal Shares Sing-

gish, but Others Full of Life. NEW YORK, Jan. 10.-The complete harmony existing in the conference of railroad managers now in session in this city, has proved to be the now in session in this city, has proved to be the greatest stimulating influence upon the stock market which we have had for months. To-day it turned the temper of the foreign operators from bear to bull, while the confidence displayed by domestic operators of all descriptions has been the most prominent for several days. The offerings of stocks are becoming lighter from day to day, owing to the general revival of confidence in the future of the reilroads in this country, and there is now in the street a general feeling that during the next 60 days there will be a complete recovery from the recent depression. whom you have never heard. I have my children in all parts of the earth, on all the islands of the sea, in all the continents, in all the mountains and in all the valleys. Do you think that these few sheep you have counted are all the sheep I have? There is a great multitude that no man can number. Other sheep have I which are not of this fold."

The Lost Sheep to Be Found.

Christ says that ministers of the gospel are to be fishers for men. Now when I go fishing I do not want to go along Hohokus creek, where there are 10 or 15 men fishing, and drop my line just about where they are dropping their lines. I should like to get in a Newfoundland fishing smack and push out to sea about 50 miles beyond the breakers. I do not think the Church of God gains a great deal when you take sheep from one fold and my.

drop my line just about where they are dropping their lines. I should like to get in a New foundband fishing smack and push out to sea about 50 miles beyond the breakers. I do not think the Churnh of God gains a great deal when you take sheep from one fold and put them in another fold. It is the lost sheep on the mountains you want to bring back—the lost sheep on the mountains. And they are coming to-day.

You are now this hour in the tide of Christian influences; you are going to be swept in; your voice is going to be heard in prayer; you are going to be consecrated to God; you are

and demand is good at more than double the price of the native article. Among the features of the week has been the advance in onions. Creamery and country butter are still slow and prices are a shade lower than a week ago.

In the lines of cheese and eggs trades has been quiet since the holidays, but not so quiet as last year or the year before. At this time a year ago eggs were selling at about 10c per dozon below present prices. A leading dealer in this line permitted an inspection of his books, which recorded sales of fresh eggs Jan-uary 11, 1890, at 20c per dozen, and Eigin cream-ery butter at 27c per h. Last winter there was no cold weather and about this time there was a sharp decline in eggs and butter. Cheese at this date is about 11/2c per B lower than it was this time a year ago. Last winter furnished no cold weather worth speaking of, and prices of butter and eggs were on the downward drift at this time a year ago. Creapery butter has dropped lc per B the past week, but is still 3 to 4c per B higher than at this time a year ago.

Tropical Fruits. The late cold snap has proved adverse to trade in tropical fruit lines. Lemons are away off, and top prices are $1 per box below prices of a week ago. There were four steamers last week in the New York harbor loaded with emons, and a fine opportunity was furnished lemons, and a fine opportunity was furnished to the bears on account of cold weather. It goes without saying that they made the most of their opportunity. Bananas are slow. Quality of oranges on the market of late is good, but markets are dull. Dealers in tropical fruits charge up slowners of markets to cold weather. When mercury approaches zero line the taste for bananas and oranges loses its edge.

The Cereal Markets. The tendency of cereal markets for the week bushel higher than at the beginning of the bushel higher than at the beginning of the week, and prospects are for still higher prices. Corn is also firm, with an advancing tendency. Flour is steady, without change. In the Northwest prices are firm for good values, but while stocks here are light, there are no indications of an upward movement. Hay is coming in freely of late, and only high grades hold their own.

The Situation in Hides.

Markets are active at the late decline and, from present appearances, bottom has been reached. Both East and West prices have been down for a week or two past, but Pittsburg, true to its well-known conservative instincts, was among the last to yield to the downward pressure. At last tanners and hide dealers here have submitted to the inevitable, and have agreed on the following scale of prices, to go into effect Monday, January 12, 1891:

a reduction of 2 cents per pound from above figures.
Cut or hair-slip calfskins to be classed as damaged, and received at 4 cents per pound.
On all culfskins having the feet left in, a deduction of four pounds per set of four feet shall be made from the weight.
Above prices will be paid for stock, trimmed free of all skulls, horns, tall bones, sinews, meat and switches, (switches cut off about 6 inches from hide) all such substances o be removed before hides are weighed and a proper reduction made on wet stock.

Drygoods Market.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—The drygoods market was relatively quiet because of the semi-holiday character of the day, but there were continued good sales of the bleached shirtings lately reduced in prices, and the movement of stocks has already been pretty well completed. It is not unlikely that there may be a reaction in values in the near future. The general market is very steady and in good shape. Prints were selling more freely and wash fabrics are being duplicated. There is a good feeling throughout the market.
