

ALMOST A CENTURY.
Death of a Man Who Served in the Army of Emperor Napoleon.
A LITTLE TOO LATE AT WATERLOO.
One of the Serranders of a Married Couple Fatally Shot.
MAIL ROBBERING IS A FAMILY AFFAIR.

Special Telegram to the Dispatch.
ALLIANCE, O., Jan. 13.—The oldest man in Stark county has just breathed his last, after almost reaching the century mark. This death is of more than ordinary interest, not only from the extreme age of the deceased, but from the fact that he was one of a very few survivors of Napoleon's army who resided in America. But one son survives him, Mr. Philip Akins, Sr., of this city. For the past three weeks deceased has been daily growing more feeble, though at times it was hoped his life would be prolonged until he might round out a century of existence.
 Joseph Akins was born in Bellford, France, on September 5, 1792. The first important event to make a lasting impression on his mind was the battle of Austerlitz, in which Napoleon defeated the combined armies of Russia. There is little wonder then that young Akins at the tender age of 16 years was so elated with the victories being achieved by Napoleon that he succeeded in enlisting in the French army. He participated in a number of engagements, and his military service was ordered to join 600,000 who went on that terrible fatal campaign to Moscow, fortunately the order was countermanded, else in all probability he would have lived to see America.

MAKING SELLING DUES.
Tanners of Harness Leather Dues That a Trust is Being Formed.
 A meeting of tanners in the harness leather branch of the trade is going on at the Monongahela House. The bulk of the business is expected to be transacted to-day, when the main meeting will be held. One of the representatives inadvertently remarked that the tanners intended to combine their interests in one company, something after the plan of the edge tool combination.
 When J. Dawson Callery, of this city, was asked about it, he denied that such a movement was on foot. Mr. Callery said they had met to adopt some rules about selling, and the question of price would not be considered. It was not the intention to give the newspapers any information about the meeting. About 25 representatives of the trade from all parts of the country are expected.
 Mr. Callery said the business was fair. Most of the tanners in this city make harness leather, and are represented in the gathering.

HEGDED IN BY PRISON BARS.
Willets, the Spiritist, Now Makes His Home in a Tennessee Jail.
 Agent O'Brien, of the Western Pennsylvania Humane Society yesterday received a telegram from W. C. Davis, Chief of Police at Nashville, Tenn., wanting to know whether John R. Willets was in this city.
 Willets is the alleged spiritist who is said to have caused much suffering to a number of people at Center a short time ago by persuading them to adopt the faith cure in preference to sending for a physician in time of sickness.
 Agent O'Brien sent word back to Mr. Davis that Willets was not wanted by him.
 Our January Sale of Table Linens brings a bigger rush of buyers each day. Lots of special gains still here. Come in the morning if you can.

Strange indeed that a PLAIN THING like SAPOLIO should make everything so bright, but "A needle clothes others, and is itself naked." Try it in your next house-cleaning
 What folly it would be to cut grass with a pair of scissors! Yet people do equally silly things every day. Modern progress has grown up from the hooked scythe to the swinging scythe and thence to the lawn mower. So don't use scissors!
 But do you use SAPOLIO? If you don't you are as much behind the age as if you cut grass with a dinner knife. Once there were no soaps. Then one soap served all purposes. Now the sensible folks use one soap in the toilet, another in the tub, one soap in the stables, and SAPOLIO for all scouring and house-cleaning.

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST IN SHOES.
 It's the cheapest in anything, but particularly in an article subject to the constant wear that shoes are. The only reason that people don't buy the best is on account of price. We have been offering all the season some wonderfully cheap shoes, cheap because of serviceable quality and not in price alone. At this, the end of the season, we have many broken lots in which we have only certain sizes, and we are making
