MEETING OF BASEBALL CONFEREES

Clearwater Covers the Forfeit of Kuntzoh-Gener Sporting News of the Day.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 13 .- For a real, genuine, simon-pure championship contest there is less betting on the outcome of the Dempsey-Fitzsimmons fight than any other vicinity. The Fitzsimmons people are holdheard that the Antipodean is down below weight, and is strong into the bargain. They had confidently expected that Fitsimmons would be unable to reduce to 154 pounds and yet be in possession of all his physical powers, but now the fact is assured, they are going more slowly, and the largest bet recorded to-day was $4,000 to $3,200 on Dempsey. Arthur Lyons, a St. Louis bookmaker, taking the Dempsey end, and John Duffy and a New Orleans syndicate taking the short end.

Some Notables Present. Feeling their way, as it were, all day long, the man with the swagger has been prominent on the streets and in the hotel corridors, the St. Charles Hotel being crowded to the doors al-most day and night. Jack McAuliffe. Jake Kilain, Jim Corbett and lesser lights in the pugilistic world have a long train of worshipers in their wake whenever they appear. Fighters and wonloabe fighters are as thick as politicians in Gotham, and seated on the dais in the rotunda of the St. Charies this afternoon THE DISPATCH correspondent noted the following gentlemen of leisure: Lom McGregor, the St. Joe Kid: Toming Warren, Liney Tracey, Jimmy Murray, Andy Bowen, Billy Meyers, Johnny Cash, Denny Costigan and Johnny Files, Frank Stevenson was also present, or, as Tracey puts it, he was "the school teacher." The sports it, he was "the school teacher." The sports massed the day in sunning themselves on the streets and visiting the various places of interest, many of the crowd tempting fortune on the Guttenburg and Gloucester races. Many would listic world have a long train of worshipers in Guttenburg and Gloucester races. Many would have glady visited the New Orleans course, but Colonel Simmons took a holiday to renew acquaintance with Northern friends, and so the horses had a vacation for a day.

The Chicago Delegation. A large delegation from Chicago occupying two cars arrived this evening and others are expected hourly. There is a strong seuse of numer among both the local and visiting sports, and some of the local newspapers are printing all sorts of wild stories and wagers. Bud Renaud, who figured prominently in the pre-bulliaries of the great Sullivan-Kilrain battle, is according to himself the holder of more than a quarter of a million of dollars wagered on the fight, and there was a great roar this norsing when a paper announced that a bet of 25,000 to $20,000 had been made with Renaud as 25,000 to $20,000 had been made with Renard as stazeholder. Another sheet announced gravely that Steve Brodie, Billy Edwards and George Slosson passed Chattauooga on Monday evening in their own special car, and that a large humer floating from the car bore the inscription "Dempsey." Jimms Carroll is exhibiting a relegram from Lord Dashington Murphy, of Boston, which asks his judgment as to how he will bet $10,000. All the Boston sports want to know what game Dan has been up against now. But Masterson, of Denver, who was Kilrain's second in the battle at Richburg, is here looking as smooth as oil and wholly unlike a geutleman with over 20 notches on the handle of his gun, which is popularly supposed to be the case. His sympathes are with Dempsey, but he is afraid that Fitzsimmons is a marvel.

A Terrific Punisher. He declares that he can punish a man second the square in the center of which the ring is pitched. The seats rise abruptly in tiers on all than 45 degrees. The doors will be thrown open at 6 o'clock and it will be a case of first come first served as Tai' as seals are concerned, outside of members of the press and those who have paid big prices for boxes, of which there are half a degree on either side of the ring. The doors will be closed at 9 o'clock, locked and will not be opened until either bempsey or Firzsimmons shall have been declared the wheter. An odd story is told of Firzsimmons, and as it is illustrative of the New Zaalander's confidence in his ability to defeat Dempsey, it is given. It Must Be a Joke. In it he will tell why he came to this country, and will thank the assemblage for coming to see him win the championship fairly and squarely.

The prime topic of conversation this morning was the uncertainty with regard to police nterference. Attorney General Rogers had an cowever, permit glove contests, and the atthe fight could take place. Mayor Shake-speare said to-day that he would not interfere, and it is understood that the Governor will let the matter rest entirely with the muni Attachmens arrived this morning but has

BILLY O'BRIEN'S DEATH.

It Is Believed in New York That the Man Was Murdered.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.-Billy O'Brien is dead, and there is a good reason to believe that he was murdered. He died in the Flatbush Hospital this morning. His body was covered with bruises, his left eye was discolored and

The last wound looked like those caused by blows from a club. He complained before he died of a severe pain in the region of the beart, which he said had been caused by a pollecman, who kieked him. When O'Brien was removed to the hospital, he talked somewhat incoherently, and hence the impression, which has gone abroad, that he was insane. An investigation is going forward.

CLEARWATER'S MONEY UP.

The Famous Pool Player Covers the Forfeit of George N. Kuntzch.

W. H. Clearwater, the famous pool player, has made his challenge to G. N. Kuntzeh good. Last evening the former, accompanied by Mr. Clum, called at this office and covered the 350 forfeit forwarded to this office by Kuntzch, Clearwater states that he covers the forfeit Clearwater states that he covers the forfeit with the understanding that a 5x10 table is to be used and that all the balls be ivory. He also insists that the winner take all the receipts or that the stakes be increased. In case the latter condition is complied with he will be willing to divide the roceipts in any reasonable way, the winner taking the larger share.

It now seems certain that these two experts will play their match in this city. Some suitable building will be secured and the match will take place within three weeks from now.

OPENING DATES FIXED.

The Homewood Grand Circuit Races Will Commence on July 21.

Secretary McCracken, of the Homewood Driving Park Association, stated yesterday big mill that has ever been decided in this vicinity. The Fitzsimmons people are holding off for more liberal odds, and Dempsey's friends are becoming a trifle scarey, having the circuit will open in this city, and the races will begin on July 21. The meetings through the circuit will then proceed the same as last

During a conversation Mr. McCracken said:
"I don't think that Detroit will conflict with us this year. The Detroit meeting, I expect, will commence a week earlier than we do. But if the Detroit dates do conflict with ours, all the leading stables will be here."

Wise Issues a Challenge.

The following challenge was received at this office last evening: I will fight Reddy Mason or Young Dugan at 118 to a finish, Queensberry rules, with two-ounce gloves. One or two ath letic clubs will give a purse if either of these men will fight me, or I will box any other local man before a club for a purse.

Dog Fighters Arrested. Humane Agent O'Brien last night made ten informations before Alderman Beinhaur, of the Southside, against men who attended the Lang-Grinder dog fight at the Southside Driving Park Saturday night. Agent O'Brien will make another batch of informations to-day, and says that he proposes to sue all that he learns were at the fight.

Off to New York.

President O'Neill and Manager Hanlon, of the local ball club, left for New York last evening to take part in the meetings to be held there. Both were sanguine as to the satisfac-tory solution of all the difficulties. Manager Handon expects to secure two or three first-class players before he returns.

The Belfast National League Passes a Vote of Confidence.

EFFORTS TO SETTLE DISSENTIONS.

O'Brien Says That a Satisfactory Union Will Be Reached.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING AT DUBLIN

BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCHA LONDON, Jan. 13.-There was a stormy meeting of the Belfast branch of the N. L. last night, which was kept up until an early hour this morning. The cause of the ex-citement was a discussion on the resolution of confidence in the majority Irish party and an indorsement of Mr. Sexton's conduct throughout the crisis, which were passed two weeks ago. They were finally rescinded last night, and a vote of confidence in Mr. Parnell was adopted by a vote of 57 to 34. A dispatch from Boulogne-sur-Mer says that William O'Brien, speaking of the Irish situation to-day, remarked: "Our difficulties are great, but not insuperable. We are prepared for a great deal of misconception and misrepresentation of our efforts to save Ireland from the horrors of dissension. Whenever the true character of our consultations with our brother Irish members is known some of our friends will be ashamed of their fears and suspicions, and will acknowledge gratefully the consideration our colleagues and friends in Ireland and England have extended to us under trying circumstances. Time for Reflection Needed. "Their overmastering desire, like ours, is the union of the national forces on terms which will satisfy British friendly opinion and preserve and strengthen the good understanding between Ireland and England, while reassuring the Irish National sentiment and safeguarding the interests of our cause. Such a settlement they may rest confiment and safeguarding the interests of our cause. Such a settlement they may rest confident we shall aim at or at none. Nobody realizing what is before Ireland, and possibly England, if this conflict continues, would be cruel enough to begrudge us Irishmen a short breathing time for sober reflection."

John Redmond has authorized the Dublin Telegraph to state that the night before Mr. Parnell's manifesto was handed to the press it was read by Mr. McCarthy in the presence of Mr. Parnell, Mr. Leamy, Mr. William Redmond, Mr. O'Kelly, and himself. Mr. McCarthy then informed Mr. Parnell that Mr. Gladstone said that if it was published he would immediately contradict it and dispute Mr. Parnell's memory as to the Hawarden conversation. conversation.
Mr. Redmond adds: "My recollection of the incident is wholly inconsistent with Mr. Mc-Carthy's denial."

Efforts to Heal the Breach. The Dublin Express to-day expresses the belief that it is incredible that Mr. Gladstone did not know the contents of the Parnell manidid not know the contents of the Parnell manifesto. Arnold Morley, the Liberal whip, went to Paris recently, where he had an interview with William O'Brien. The subject of the differences in the Irish Parliamentary party and the relations of that party with the English Liberal party were thoroughly discussed, but Mr. Morley found it impossible to bring Mr. O'Brien around to his way of looking at the situation and the course to be pursued to bridge the existing difficulties between the Irish factions and the Liberals,

It is said to-day that the McCarthyites expect that John Dillon, on his return from the United States, will signify his adherence to the faction of the Irish party which acknowledges Mr. Parnell's Reception at Dublin.

Parnell's Reception at Dublin. At a meeting of the National League held at Dublin to-day Mr. Parnell was given an enthus iastic reception. He was repeatedly greeted with cheers, and reiterated the statement he has previously made to the effect that he in-formed Mr. Justin McCarthy as to the chief features of his manifesto at least 24 hours before it was published.

ence of Mr. John Redmond. According to Mr. Parnell, Mr. McCarthy said: "All I can say it, as I have already told you, that Mr. Gladstone intends to deny point blank all your statements." which, said Mr. Parnell, showed that Mr. Gladstone was aware of the proposed points of the manifesto.

Mr. Parnell announced that the subscriptions to the National League funds since the last meeting were £5,000, showing that the country is practically with him. Mr. Parnell warmly practically with him. Mr. Parnell warmly urged the claims of the evicted tenants, class-ing them as the "soldiers of the war against landlordism." A dispatch from Longford says that there has heen a split in the National League party in that locality. A division there taken upon the question of a vote of confidence in Mr. Parnell shows that there were 150 Parnellites and 165

His arm was in a sling, and while showing off a ranchman from the interior of Wyoming. His arm was in a sling, and while showing off a horse at Waynesburg the animal tramped in a hole and fell on him. "It is afte first time in my life," he said, "that I was injured by a horse. I have just come from Wyoming with a lot of cattle, and am ready to go back. Am I afraid of the Indians? Well, I hate a redskin, and if I were in charge of them I would send them East to live among the people here who are always sympathizing with them, and then I would hang every one that returned to the frontier. I want the Eastern people to learn what kind of cattle redskins are, and I feel sure they would soon be disgusted with them.

"They have robbed me frequently and shot at me, but you see I still live. My ranch is located about 65 miles from Rawlinson, on the Union Pactific road. I never did fear the savages, though they are a very treacherous set. In Wyoming they are still peaceful, but you can't tell how soon the religious craze will break out among them. The Government makes a mistake in herding so many Indians in one place. They ought to be scattered and then in uprisings like the present they could be more easily handled. It wouldn't be hard to keep them separated and prevent a dangerous consolidation."

"Take that, will you," replied the parent, as he landed his fist on Mr. Williv jaw.

A crowd soon gathered around them, but neither side stopped to linger. The drummer, with his silk hat, took a bee line for the door and disappeared, while the fond parent seized the arm of his firting tamsel and left with her on the next train for Wilkinsburg.

NEW ORLEANS-Clear and cold. THE BARB WIRE TRUST.

It Has Been Incorporated Under Kentucky's Favorable Laws. CHICAGO, Jan. 12.-The outlook for a combination of the barb-wire manufacturers of the country is good. They met two weeks ago in Pittsburg and formed a plan of consol each of those present taking stock. They then adjourned to meet in Chicago last week, and have been in session ever since. The results, so far, are that the Columbia Wire Company has been incorporated under the favorable laws of Kentucky, the stock books opened, and that all, or substantially all, the manufacturers, except the Washburn-Moen Company, are or will be subscribers.

This new company will control all the patents of barb wire and machines for making it, and also the licenses and contracts already made with the Washburn-Moen Company; will issue new licenses to manufacturers; will regulate the output, and establish uniform prices. In other respects the several factories will be run by the proprietors as heretofore. Any intention to raise prices is discouraged.

ILLINOIS FOR FREE COINAGE.

The Farmers in the Legislature Vote With the Democrats. SPRINGFIELD, JLL., Jan. 13.-The session of the Legislature to-day was mainly taken up with the introduction of bills. In the House a resolution was passed indorsing the free coin age of silver, and instructing the Ilinois Senator to vote for the bill on that subject now pending in the Senate.

On the adoption the Republicans refrained from voting, and the farmers voted with the J. R. McKee Booked for Boston BOSTON Jan 13 -J. R. McKee son-in-law of President Harrison, has arranged to settle with his family in Boston, having established a busi-ness connection here with the Thomson-Hous-ton Electric Company. He will still retain an interest in his Indianapolis business,
