Scields of a Well-Known Horse Trainer-General Sporting News of the Day.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.1 NEW YORK, Jan. 16 .- Peace has at length been declared. There will be no more fight in the baseball world. Nearly everything has been settled, with the American Association on top. It was just 6:45 o'clock to-night when J. B. Billings, one of the Boston Triumvirs, came out of parlor "F" of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, where the National League has been in session for three days past, and his own intimate friend exclaimed: "it's all over. We have at last consented to allow an American Association club in Boston. The conditions under which the Bostonians agreed to a second club are: That 50 cents be the admission fee; that the name "Boston" be in no way connected with the name of the Association club; that the National League club have Decoration Day; that the Associstion club have July 4; that there be no conflicting dates; that when the Association finds that the club cannot play for 50 cents that the club be taken out of Boston; that every player of the present Boston P. L club taken from the National League club be returned.

Also in Chicago.

It is undecided yet which club will have Bunker Hill day. According to the agreement the Association also gets Chicago. During the day the Joint Conference Committee gave out its report, which went over the time since the baseball season closed, showing how the effort was made to settle the war. The important things in the report were: "As you are aware the representatives of the clubs in New York and Pittsburg quickly came together and ar-ranged for the consolidation of all conness Pittsburg quickly came together and ar-ranged for the consolitation of all con-flicting interests in their respective cities. The Players' League club of Chicago was purchased outright. The conflicting interests in Brooklyn have been to all intents and purposes settled, a basis of agreement having been reached which is satisfactory to a great majo-ity of all the parties interested. As the American Association is desirous of loca-tions of the set to of Boston and the Base the American Association is desirous of loca-ting a club in the city of Boston, and the Play-ers League club of that city has expressed a desire to accept such membership, the commit-tee is of the opinion that the problem can be solved there if this desire on the part of the American Association can be satisfactorily consume sated.

The Committee Was Unanimous

The Joint Committee are unanimous on this point and so recommend that, to avoid all misunderstanding, all clubs accepting franchises and membership in associations now acting under and identified with the National agree ment must be amenable to and gov-erned by said National agreement, and all players now or heretofore under contract or agreement with any club or clubs accepting such franchise or membership shall revert to the clubs having claim upon the ser-

Their stock cost them SS to $10 a share, while mine with the different assessments has cost me $40. I say it is fair that one of their shares should be of the same value as one of mine. visitors, especially the Eastern men, backed Demusey at odds. Some of the Californians, who had seen Fitzshimmons fight McCarthy, put their money on him, but as a general thing Fitzshimmons' backing came from New Orleans men, who had seen him spar on several occa-sions, thus forming a very high opinion of his ability as a puglist. It is estimated that the New Orleans men and others who backed Fitzshimmons took in more than $300,000, and would have got more if they had had more to bet. There was plenty more Dempsey money, but there were no takers excent at odds that would not be given. Many sporting men went to the ring well prepared to bet, but the rule against betting in the club-room was strictly enforced, and no wagers of any kind were allowed at the side of the ring. After the men stripped the odds would have been in favor of Fitzshimmons. All the visitors agree that it was a square defeat, and they do not make excuses for Dempsey. Quite a num-ber of buts were made of one to eight and one to ten that Dempsey would be knocked out in 10 or 12 rounds. There is there-fore some disposition to complain that the light was not declared over in the eleventh round. Dempsey was knocked completely out then, and his seconds gave in. Jack Mo-Anilife threw up the towel in token of defeat, but Dempsey staggered into the ring and in-sisted on a couple of rounds more. Those who bet that he would be knocked out in 12 rounds low in consequence. Dempsey said to a friend to-day: "I was not lost in consequence.

Members of the committee consulted him, but not in his capacity as the President of the University. He upheld the action of the committee on practically the same grounds that were advanced at the time, namely, the price asked for three years' training. He thought where each year meant but a few hours daily for nine months the price was altogether too high. The price for three years was $10,000, just about the same as that paid the full professors, most of whom receive but $35,500 a year. The college itself would not have been called upon to pay this expense, which is regularly raised by sub-scriptions and benefits, concerts and surplus receipts from some of the athletic contests, and it is for this reason that the action of the Ath-letic Committee, and the approval of their de-SANDY LAKE PA. One of the most prominent of the latter, in commenting on the matter, said: "Why, if we can only get a competent coach like Bancroft, who will lead the crew to victory, the alumni will come forward to subscribe, not $3,300, but $5,000 or $6,000 a year, if necessary." Zahiniser has assigned to his son Harry, as trustee, to protect his depositors to the amount of $28,000 and $2,000 and $1,000 to his son Harry. The assets cannot as yet be ascertained. The real cause of the failure arises from the fact that R. R. Wright, of Mercer, was contem-plating the purchase of an interest in the Sandy Lake Bank, and he would, thereupon, become cashier of the bank. Among the papers upon which Mr. Wright desired better security were those of M. L. Zahiniser, amounting to $18,000. The bank officials urged Mr. Zahiniser to re-duce this sum, or otherwise make it good. Temperature Generally Lower Throughor the Entire Country. PREPARED FOR THE DISPATCE.

The low pressure, with its accompanying rain area, moved northeastward and was central over the South Atlantic coast yesterday. Local snows occurred in the lower lake region and the extreme Northwest, where a storm of slight intensity is forming. Throughout the entire country the weather was generally colder, except in the Ohio Walley, where clear weather prevailed. The cold wave moved rapidly eastward and caused the

The committee met and adjourned without doing anything. Will Dissolve the P. L. Secretary Brunell, in the course of a conver-sation, remarked "I think the Players' League will be dissolved. Baseball affairs are still in a bad mess. I think Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago will be represented in the American Association. Al Johnson will be recompensed in some way with the Cincinnati club. Pitts-burg and New York have already consolidated. Mr. Linton, of Brooklyn, who is nolding out merely to be faithful to other clubs, will then consent to a consolidation in Brooklyn, and the war will end."

At 8 o'clock the American Association met and accepted the resignations of the Toledo, Rochester and Sviacuse clubs. Then applica-tions were received from Boston, Washington and Philadelphix, and these cities were ad-mitted. The delegat s of these clubs were admitted. The delegates of these clubs were ad-mitted as follows: Boston, Charles A. Prince; Philholeiphia, J. Earls Wagner; Washington, Mike Scanlon and C. V. Bennett. By this more the Wagners get the Athletic franchise, and Prince, the President of the defunct Players' League, is cared for. Al Johnson does not fig-uro in the deal stall, and there is a good chance for his getting lef: all around. Chicago was not admitted. It is the play to have Milwaukee complete the circuit in the West. It is quite likely that this maiter will be de ferred for a little time before the deal is made. At 9:30 o'clock the National League received the American Association, and the Western Association, headed by President Krauthoff In a joint joilification meeting. The new na-tional agreement was then read for the first time, and formally signed by the Presidents of all three organizations. The Western Asso-ciation has been admitted as a major league. A board of three will be established to deal with all important business. All contracts with managers and players must be approved by the board. This board will also act as a Joint Playing Rules Committee, thus effec

Joint Playing Rules Committee, thus effecting a great saving of time and expense. A new feature is also presented for the ad-vancement of players by which a dub, instead of incurring the expense of carring substi-tutes to be available in case of accident to a regular player, may supply like vacancy by selecting a player from one of the other bodies of a lower classification which has consented to such selection being made. The player must receive an increased salary and musi consent to the change. Indeed, it is provided in the broadest terms that no player can ever he trans-ferred or undertaken to be, directly or indirect-ly, without his tublest consent. This destroys all criticism upon the reserve rule, and forever ends the existence of what has been called the gales system. sales system.

Many important changes are made, all looking for the elevation of the game and jus-tice and harmony as between piayers, mana-gers and capitalists. The three presidents, Young, Thurman and Krauthoff signed the sgreement on the spot, and it was unanimously adopted. Mr. Byrne offered a resolution thanking Messrs. Thurman and Spalding for bringing about the settlement, Colonel Rogers followed, uaying a splendid tribute to Mr. Thurman. Mr. Prince, of Bos-ton, also lauded Mr. Snalding, and Messrs. Spalding and Thurman responded in eloquent terms, which evoked rounds of applause. It was a most happy occasion all around, and even the beretofore despondent Players' League men drowned their nortification in the general flow of good spirits which followed. Will Be Retained.

Mark Baldwin, John Tener, Ed Swartwood and several other ball players and patrons of the game met in Pratt's store yesterday afternoon, when an interesting conversation was started regarding baseball matters. Among other questions discussed was the make-up of the Chicago League team. On this point Bald-

Anson will keep the two former because ho will need them, and if Pieffer is not on the team Anson will have his equal there. Former's Challenge to Fitzsimmons. The general theme of conversation among local sporting men yesterday was the challenge of Pat Farrell to fight Fitzsimmons. When the challenge was read in THE DISPATCH many people thought that it had not been made in good faith simply because Farrell is a local man and has been leading a very quiet life. Last evening Farrell's backer said: "Certainly the challenge is bona fide and we cannot do anytking more. Our money is ready and we will forward our $1.000 guarantee to any club in a day's notice. We think we have a good man and L85 pounds ought to be a very suitable weight for Fitzsimmons."

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 16 .- A contract wa signed to-night between Bob Fitzsimmons and Jimmie Carroll on one hand and Parson Davies, of Chicago, on the other, by which Davies undertakes the management of the pugilists. Ted Pritchard, the English middle-weight champion. If Fitzsimmons whips Pritchard the puglists will star through Europe, return to this country, and finally take a trip to Aus-tralia. Fitzsimmons and Carroll hope to have enough money by that time to retire from pu-gilism altogether and go into business in San Francisco. Parson Davies left for Chicago this evening to make his final arrangements. It is understood that Fitzsimmons' New Orleans and San Francisco friends will give him a diamond belt on his return from England. Fitzsimmons received his $11,000 from the Olympic Club to-day. The money was equally divided between him and Carroll, his trainer and second, the twe men having gone into part-nership in puglism.
