FOUR YOUTHFUL THIEVES.

The Men Who Bought Their Ill-Gotten Goods in Custody.

JOHNSTOWN, Jan. 18.—J. L. Graham, James Jackson, Alfred Owens and Joseph Owens, boys ranging from 12 to 15 years, are charged with the larceny of brass and scrap iron from the Cambria Iron Company to the value of $40. S. R. Gregory, the Chief of Police of the company, is the prosecutor. The boys have not yet been arrested, but can be had when they are wanted. The same prosecutor appeared in court for receiving the stolen brass referred to, the boys receiving a small amount of money for it.

Harshardt has a plumbing shop on the South side, and the other boys work for him. He gave half, but Guyton and Pinkerton were held until this morning, when they gave half. About 150 pounds of the brass were taken from Harshardt's place and the remainder at Guyton's house. At the trial, the officer obtained some valuable pointers from Guyton's wife, and it was on the strength of her statements that Pinkerton was arrested. A hearing will be given them shortly.

KILLED BY THE INDIANS.

A Youngstown Youth Meets His Death at Pine Ridge Agency.

YOUNGSTOWN, Jan. 18.—Information has been received concerning the reported death of William McClintock at Pine Ridge Agency. McClintock was the son of a wealthy farmer residing at Freedom, and a student at Hiram College. Last November a difference arose with his father, young McClintock went to Cleveland, enlisted in the Seventh Cavalry and was sent at once to the frontier. With other soldiers at Pine Ridge Agency, he was detailed to bring in some arms surrendered by the hostile Indians, and while in the performance of this duty was shot and killed by a redskin. Mr. McClintock's wife is bringing the remains home for interment.

THE GHOST FAILED TO WALK.

A Theatrical Company Strikes Hard Lines at Bradford.

BRADFORD, Jan. 18.—The May Henderson dramatic troupe, after a week of business, stranded at Bradford last week. The show had not walked for seven weeks, and the actors wanted their pay. The manager promised to divide Saturday night's receipts, but later on refused to do so. The actors forced their way to his room and went through his trunk, but found no money in his clothes and their threats of personal violence were not carried out, as their star, Miss May Henderson, was not present, and they retired. The members of the company pawned their valuables to get the money. The manager and his star left for Boston in a Pullman car.

CRAZED BY RELIGION.

A Woman Who Thought She Had a Mission to Convert the World.

WARREN, Jan. 18.—Mrs. Martha Knight, of Bloomfield, was taken to the Newburg asylum this week for treatment. She is the wife of a well-to-do farmer. For some time past she has been in poor health, and had taken great interest in a recent revival in the Bloomfield M. E. Church. From an earnest worker she became possessed with the idea that she was instructed in the eyes of the Lord for the conversion of the entire world, and became so violent that it was thought best to remove her to an asylum.

MAHONING COUNTY ALLIANCE.

YOUNGSTOWN, Jan. 18.—The Mahoning County Farmers Alliance met at Canfield yesterday, every township but one being represented by delegates. At the last meeting a resolution was adopted favoring the abolition of the internal revenue tax. The Alliance considered the matter and decided to allow the law to remain in force for the present. A resolution was adopted favoring the adoption of the Australian ballot system, 2-cent railroad fare, and the furnishing of a state of school books at cost to the public schools.

CHOCTAW INDIAN LANDS.

Squaw Men Who Want Outdoors Compelled to Leave the Country.

GAINESVILLE, TEX., Jan. 18.—The crisis over the question of allotment of lands and application for Statehood in the Choctaw Nation is apparently close at hand. A convention entitled to citizenship through marriage to squaws, was held at Purrell, and strong speeches made advocating the expulsion from the country of the editors of all papers that advocate the allotment of tribal lands in severalty. The convention was presided over by a man named Murray, an adopted citizen, who controls 60,000 acres of land and has 1,000 tenants.

Governor Byrd has appointed a commissioner to go to Washington to lay the matter before Secretary Noble and formally demand

A VERY PARTICULAR MINISTER.

He Objects to Certain Meetings in a Hall Where He Preaches. CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—"You must get out of here or I will discontinue my evening services in this house," was the message that fell like a thunderbolt in the midst of the worshippers at Central Music Hall this afternoon. The message came from the Rev. Frank W. Gansaul, and was aimed at the Rev. Flavius J. Brobst and his congregation. It was the first of a series of meetings proposed by Mr. Brobst to be held in Central Music Hall, but he will not have to seek other shelter for his flock. There were fully 1,000 people present. At the reading of the message everyone was dumfounded for a second, and then a general hissing could be heard throughout the auditorium.

A COLD SUNDAY MORNING.

For People Who Got Drunk Saturday Night—Fate of a Man Who Didn't Catch a Car—White-Heaters in Trouble—Borrowed a Horse and Wagon.

The cool weather depressed the spirits in the mental thermometer of the average Saturday night offender, and but few of them registered high enough to come under the suspicion and guardianship of the police. The unfortunate who were gathered in and swore that the atmosphere at the Sunday morning hearings were away below zero.

Fined for Not Catching a Car.

Police Magistrate Swoop was not in a beaming mood yesterday morning, and dealt out justice with a lavish hand to 17 sad Southsiders.

Thomas Brown was arrested by Officer Sheetz, on Carson street, while drunk and lying on the street car tracks. He had attempted to get on a car while it was going and missed his foothold, but managed to catch hold of the car. He was dragged along the street for nearly a square, when he let go of the car and dropped into the street. He paid a fine of $1 and costs. Charles Laughlin (not Tom) was arrested for drunkenness. He filed an objection in strong language and a loud voice and got five days more. John Reisdorf was arrested on Saturday night on the complaint of Anna Duffy, with whom he has been boarding. She said he had been drunk during the past three weeks, and had threatened to kill her so often that she was afraid he would carry out his threats, so ordered his arrest. Reisdorf was sent to jail for ten days.

Fitzsimmons Knocks Out His Wife.

There was a light hearing at Central station, only two prisoners receiving workhouse sentences out of a total of 18.

Robert Fitzsimmons, not the pugilist, got a jail sentence for beating his wife. She had been badly out and battered up, and notified the police. Fitzsimmons acknowledged having been sent to the workhouse before for the same offense, and promised to reform when his sentence expires. The case of John Calico, who stole a bicycle from James Gogin's residence at 35 West 47th avenue while Gogin was in the workhouse, was held over until the police find out whether Calico got a lot of other stuff that is missing.

Just Borrowed the Rig.

George Thornton, colored, was sent 30 days to the workhouse without a fine by Magistrate Hyndman yesterday morning at the Nineteenth ward station. Thornton took a horse and carriage belonging to T. L. Dunn, of Penn avenue, Saturday morning he drove the horse and wagon about all day and returned it to the store about midnight when Officer Irvin arrested him. He told the magistrate he had only borrowed it.

Didn't Have a License.

At Mayor Wyman's hearings Phillip Roch was sent to Clarendon for 30 days for peddling without a license. Ben Williams suffered a similar retirement for insulting women on Franklin street. Henry Hartmeyer was accused of trying to kill his father on Troy Hill, but was discharged.

Armed With a Butcher Knife.

At Magistrate McKenna's hearing he gave Henry A. Neagle 30 days for raising a disturbance on a street car. He had a butcher knife in his sleeve. Samuel Johnson was held for a further hearing on a charge of kicking his wife.

MONOWAI ARRIVES IN BUFFALO.

Poisoned by Scrofula.

Is the sad story of many lives made miserable through no fault of their own. Scrofula is more especially than any other a hereditary disease, and for this simple reason: Arising from impure and insufficient blood, the disease locates itself in the lymphatics, which are composed of white tissue; there is a period of time when the whole body consists of white tissue, and therefore the subject child is especially susceptible to this dreadful disease. But there is a remedy for scrofula, whether hereditary or acquired. It is Hood's Sarsaparilla, which by its powerful effect upon the blood, expels every trace of the disease and gives to the vital fluid the quality and color of health. If you decide to take Hood's Sarsaparilla do not accept any substitute.
