THE MINE WORKERS

Preparing for the Coming Annual Convention at Scottdale.

DISTRICT OFFICERS TO BE CHOSEN.

The Operators Likely to Be Asked to Hold a Conference.

LIVE NEWS FROM THE THREE STATES

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SCOTTDALE, Jan. 19 .- The United Mine Workers began their annual session here to-day. Delegates are coming in from every local assembly in the coke regions. During the session district officers will be elected. The candidates are: Kerloot, Wise and Keegan, for the office of District Master Workman, and Parker and Darby, for Secre-tary-Treasurer. It is probable that the convention will ask the coke operators for a conference, in order to try and reach some settlement of the wage difficulty. As the present contract will expire early in February, efforts looking toward a settle-ment must be made immediately in order to avert a strike. It is regarded as still doubt-ful, whether or not the miners will withdraw their main demands for the erection of weight scales on tipples, and the introduction of the eight-hour system. The region is greatly ex-cited, as it is thought some of the operators may refuse to meet the men in conference. The convention will hardly get down to actual work until to-morrow or next day.

MANY RELIGIOUS REVIVALS.

A Number of Successful Meetings Held at Mansfield Valley.

SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATOR.: MANSFIELD VALLEY, Jan. 19.-The variou clurches of the town have been holding revival incetings for the past two weeks. The First Church is enjoying a gathering of all classes. Quite a number of immersions have already been made in their new church, which was recently dedicated. The First Presbyterian has been holding revivals, and so far have had an accession of 20 members. The United Presbyterians have had a good attendance, and will continue their meetings until next Sabbath. when the Lord's Supper will be celebrated. The First Presbyterian at Oakdale are holding meetings every night, which are conducted by their paster and Rev. J. F. Patterson.

Rev. S. A. Hunter, a missionary of the Presbyterian church in China, and formerly pastor of the First Church here, has written that he expects to pay a visit to his home next summer. Rev. Mr. Hunter is widely known as a devoted member of the F. & A. M. order.

Rev. Morgan Morgan, of Brady, Tex., an evangedist, who conducts the Christian Churches, has been creating quite a stir among the orthodox here. He preaches that the second coming of Christ will be in 1872, and that the great affairs will begin their workings six years from now, The First Presbyterian at Oakdale are bolding

BANKER FOLTZ'S MURDER. Mrs. Sarah Randolph Sentenced to Twenty

Months' Imprisonment. PERCIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCE. NEW CASTLE, Jan. 19.-Mrs. Sarah Randolph, alias McGinty, was brought into court bere this afternoon. In September Mrs. Mc-Ginty was found guilty of soliciting Samuel Kissenger to murder Banker Foltz. At the trial it was shown that some one whom Mc Ginty shielded wanted the deed committed. After the conviction an argument was made to the Court by the defendant's attorneys, in which they stated it was no crime to merely soheity a crime. This afternoon Judge McMichaels rendered his decision, and it was against Mrs. McGinty. She was asked to stand up, and when asked if she had anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced her attorney rose and stated that she was in ill health. The court then said:

"Mrs. McGinty, in sentencing you the Court has no hope of you reforming. You have served one term in the penitentiary, and the Court is informed after serving your term, you committed the same offense you were imprisanted for, and we believe that you are an individual who should be taken care of for the good of society. You are entirely unrepentant, or you would divulge the name of the person who, you say, is nack of you. You are sentenced to pay the cost of prosecution and pay a fine of $1, and undergo an imprisonment in the Allegheny workhouse for a period of 20 months."

THEY ARE FULL BLOWN ROSES. Politicians of McKeesport Getting in Shape to Bun the Town.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. McKeesport, Jan. 19.—The Republicans and Democrats have drawn party lines and appointed city executive committees and set respective dates for the holding of primary respective dates for the holding of primary elections. A meeting has been called for tomorrow for the purpose of setting a date for the holding of a citizens' primaries. This has caused a howl, as it is believed it will break down party lines if carried out.

The Swedish Independent Club will meet tomorrow night to organize a Republican Club, as all but three of its 400 members are Republicans: two are Democrats, and one is a Prohibitionist.

The city charter has been received from Har-risburg, and was exhibited to-night at the council meeting. The document will be re-corded at once, and placed on file at the Court

SETTLED THEIR TROUBLE The South Penn and Electric Roads at

Uniontown Compromise. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.;

UNIONTOWN, Jan. 19.—The warfare tween the South Penn road, and the Elect Street Railway Company over the right of latter to cross the tracks of the former, ended in a compromise. The representati of the two companies met in the office of of the two companies met in the office of the railroad attorney, R. H. Lindsay this after noon, and agreed as to the manner in which the crossing should be made.

It was agreed by the street company the their cars should stop at every railroad crossing until the conductor ascertained that the way was clear. This is the plan usual followed by other companies. The Pennsylv ria Railroad had 100 men on hand this mornis to prevent any attempt at crossing by the Electric company, but serious results we happily averted by a compromise.

Missouri's Supreme Court Clips the Wings of Kansas City. KANSAS City, Jan. 19 .- An ordinance eassed by the Common Council of this city last year, whereby over 20 square miles were added to the city limits, was declared to be null and void by the Supreme Court this morning. The court decides that in as much as the city limits were defined by the charter, it would be necessary to amend the charter in order to extend the limits. All city ordinances passed since the extension will be invalidated. The population of the city is reduced about 16,000. It will probably take 20 years to straighten out all the legal difficulties that will arise under the decision, as city taxes have been levied and collected in the new territory. City officers have also been elected and illegally held their places. Several members of the upper house of the Council from the old city will lose their seats, as well as the men from new districts seather and do not receive a from new districts, as they did not receive a majority of the votes of what is now the city. Mayor Holmes received a majority however, and will not lose his office.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocca, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables wish a deilected flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame." —Civil Service Gazette.
