AN EAST END DEAL.

Calvary Church Buys a Mansion in Which to Bouse the Preacher.

Local Stocks Pick Up as a Direct Result of Returning Confidence.

LIFE IN THE TWENTY-THIRD WARD

THE NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE CITY

The Schoonmaker mansion, on the corner of Shady avenue and Alder street, East Liberty, has been purchased by the Calvary Episcopal Church congregation, through their vestrymen, for a parsonage, at a price approximating $15,000. The deal was closed vesterday evening.

The house, a two-story and mansard brick. is one of the finest in the locality, the inside decorations being unusually elaborate. Being within about five squares of the church, it is convenient as well as peculiarly adapted to the purpose for which it was acquired. The lot is 46 by 127.

Not Yet Effected But Probable.

Somewhat premature mention has been made in some of our cotemporaries of the sale of the old Dispatch building on Fifth avenue to Mr. John Newell, who intends to use it for botel and resturant purposes. It is true that negotiations have for some time been afoot for secount of a lease which stands in the way of immediate possession. It is thought, however, that this may be overcome, in which event Mr. Newei would take possession April 1. Vations prices have been quoted as asked for the property, but the exact figure is $178,000. While this is not as large as was at first reported, it is still true that per foot frontage it is higher than has been paid so far for city property. But the lot is 30 feet by 240, so that counting by the square foot, higher prices have been paid for a good deal of other property, not only on fifth avenue, but also on Smithfield and Wood street, where the depth has been less. Mr. O'Day, the well known oil man, will be interested with Mr. Newell in the purchase, if it can be accomplished, and not unlikely a very handsome hotel building will go up there.

Some of the banks have more idle funds than they want."

The steady improvement of the clearing bonse business shows general trade is healthy and growing. Clearings vesterday were $2,515, 45 73 on Saturday. Balances were $319,733 il.

Money on call at New York yesterday was easy, ranging from 2½ to 3 per cent, last loan, closing offered at 3. Prime mercantile paper of $4, $45, $67 60.4 ay bills and $4, $57 for demand.

The total sales of stocks at New York yesterday were 20,515 shares, including: Atchison, 6,870: Lackawanna, 4,916: Missouri Pacific, 10,492; do preferred, 13,190: Richmond and West Point, 6,121: St. Paul, 19,622; Union Pacific, 12,785; Western Union, 3,156. the property, but they are not yet completed on account of a lease which stands in the way of furmediate possession. It is thought, however,

Timber Getting Scarce.

Unless statistics be at fault, it will not be many years until wooden houses will cost more than these constructed of brick or stone. The timber supply is rapidly falling. The forest wealth of the United States has been so used and abused that already the richest forests have disappeared. The pine of Michigan Wisconsin innesota, once considered inexhaustible. exists no longer. It has been exterminated; and exists no longer. It has been exterminated; and that is readily understood when it is remembered that a single mill has cut 500,000 feet a day, and that the capacity of all the mills of the United States is more that 60,000,000,000 a year. According to the census report there were in 1880 35,175,000,000 feet of pine standing. Since that time 45,475,000,000 have been cut, so that in all the northern part of the United States there is now only two years' supply of white plue of the best quality left, with more or tess pine of inferior quality. This is matter of special importance to Pittsburg, where building is one of the great industries.

The Twenty-Third Ward.

It was recently stated that everything pointed to great activity in the Twenty-third ward, of which Hazelwood is the center, the coming season. This is confirmed by recent developsents there, which are known to very few people. Building lots are beld at very stiff prices, and the demand for manufacturing sites is by no means slow. There is no locality around l'ittsburg that possesses superior advantages for working people. It is convenient to all the manufacturing districts.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

Arw York, Jan. IV.—The stock market to-day has been narrow, and during the greater portion of the time and for the great majority of stocks dull, the disposition evidently being to await the outcome of the financial legislation at Washington. This, of itself has been sufficient to interrupt the upward movement of the first two weeks of the year, and other minor matters seem to work at present in harmony with this cause. To-day there was a heavy bank failure in the West, which immediately checked the upward movement in progress at the time, showing con-A. W. OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH. MONDAY, Jan. 19.

Country Produce-Jobbing Prices. Monday is ever one of the quiet days of the week in this line, and to-day furnishes no exception to the rule. Fresh eggs are firm at quotations. Tropical fruits are fairly steady at the old rates. MARKETS BY WIRE.

The Bears Get Control of the Grain Pits and Give Prices a Black Eye-Longs Demoralized-Provision Markets Also Back Water.

CHICAGO—Bear news, bear markets and bull acquiescence in the downward action of prices by a wholesale abandonment of their holdings were the features of the day's business on the board. The wheat market opened very weak and at a decline for May of %c since Saturday, the bulk of the transactions taking place at 94%. There were rumored sales of a few 5,000 bushel lots in the turmoil at the start at 94%, and even 95c was said to have been paid. The principal cause of the opening weak-ness was the report of the collapse of the American National Bank of Kansas City and a run in progress upon the Kansas City Savings Bank. Some financial trouble was also re-

Bank. Some financial trouble was also reported from New York to be the cause of the decline of a few who were in the English Government securities.

The longs were sellers and the shorts took the offerings. To such an extent of demoralization had the recent upholdings of the long side been reduced that when Pardridge commenced to huv in his short wheat on the first decline to 94½c they were almost inclined to thank that speculator for his support to a market which no efforts of theirs could prevent from going to pieces. The selling by Pardridge later in a subsequent recovery of the price from 94½ to 94½c cancelled the apparent obligation of the lougs, and he continued to take in short wheat on the soft wheat spots and pile the load back again on the market upon every upture during the remainder of the day. It may be very safely assumed that the long holdings have now become very heavily reduced, and consequently the outstanding open interest in the market is now smaller than it has been for a considerable time. Under such conditions, unless something occurs to encourage hope of an improvement in prices duil speculative markets may be looked for in the immediate future.

The first decline in prices was arrested at 91½c; the reaction which followed carrying the market up to 94½æ94½c for May and subsequent important fluctuations on the decline were, 94½c, 91½c, 91½c, 91½c, 91½c, 91½c, and 91½æ92½c. There were a few transactions at 83½c for Max, but there was no general trading under 83½c. The was no general trading under 83½c. The was no separal trading under 83½c. The reaction was a special trading under 83½c. The reaction was something control to the control of the control Demand was good and markets were fairly sysection Max, but there was no general trading under 85%c. The market was without recuperative energy.

The corn market was weak at opening. The weakness of the wheat market and the heautiful springlike weather were the incentives to the selling sprint which animated local speculators at opening, under which the first trading in May was done at 51c as compared with 51%c at the close of the market on 8a urday. After selling at 50%c there was a momentary reaction to 51%c, and afterward weakness was the rule to the close. The decline stopped at 50%c.

The oats market was only fairly active. Heavy receipts, liberal supplies for to-morrow and the weakness in the other markets were the principal hear influences. The fluctuations were frequent but narrow.

The provision market sold off immediately that trading commenced, the grain commission being free sellers. The packers were sellers also, although hogs were reported to be selling well at the yards at 10 to 15c advance. There were reactions on the decline compared with the close showed a decline compared with the close in quotation of Saturday of 7%c to 10c. Lard lost ½c on the same comparison and ribs from 2%c to 6c.
