BOBBY BURNS' BIRTHDAY

Celebrated by the Caledonian Society of Allegheny at Masonic Hall,

A night wi' Burns was enjoyed last evening in Masonic Hall, Allegheny, by the Caledonian Society, who celebrated the one hundred and thirty-second anniversary of the birth of the poet by a concert and assembly. The hall was very prettily decorated in honor of the event. The platform was thickly massed with palms and foliage plants and a gaily dressed audience filled the chairs. The President of the society, Thomas Clark, made the introductory address and Prof. Holmes followed with "There Was a Lad," a solo with chorus, "There Was a Lad," a solo with chorus, "Afton Water" was sung by A. Brockie, "O' Whistle and I'll Come Tae Ye My Lad" by Miss Brockie, "Scot's Wha Hae" by W. H. Wright, Scotch ballad by Miss N. Weeden, "O' a' the Airts" by Prof. Holmes and a recitation "That Awfu Word Imphm" was given by Miss B. Murray. Part second consisted of "O' Willie Browad a Pack O' Mart" "a the More

Imphm" was given by Miss B. Murray. Part second consisted of "O' Willie Brewed a Peck O' Maut," a trio by Messrs. Brockie, Holmes and Wright, "Coming through the Rye," Miss Brockie, "Robbin Tamson's Swiddy" H. H. Wright, "The Last Watch" Miss Weeden, "A Man's a Man" Prof. Holmes, "She Liked Him Rael Weel," a recitation by Miss Murray, "Jessie, the Flower O' Dunilane" by A Brockie the Flower O' Dushlane" by A. Brockie, and "Auid Lang Syne" by the audience. The reception which followed was a very pleasing and enjoyable affair and the arrangements reflect credit upon Messrs, James William Dewar, Alex. Bennie William Lockhart and Rodger McClelland,

IN AFTERNOON RECEPTION

Given Yesterday in Honor of Mrs. Jame Wood by Her Mother-in-Law.

The magnificent reception given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Theodore Wood, in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Wood, was a fitting culmination to the week's social doings. The splendid old mansion on Duquesne way was througed with the wealth and fashion of the two cities, and the street was lined with stylish equipages and livered coachmen the entire afternoon. The guests fairly trod upon mosses, and flowers were every where in great profusion, and with the pretty English ivy formed a most charming decora-tion for the luxurious hangings and exquisite furnishings of the stately home. Among the coterie of ladies who as-sisted the hostess and her charming durch sisted the hostess and her charming daugh-1-1-10-law were numerous of the bridesmaid who not long ago attended the pretty bride to the altar, the Misses Julia Watson, Stella ilays, Louise Dilworth and Ruth Bailey, also Mrs. George P. Hamilton, Mrs. Horton Singer, Miss Jackson, Mrs. Frank Bissell, Mrs. James Wood Schully, Mrs. Thomas Cook, Mrs. John Caldwell, Jr., Mrs. George Jurvis and Mrs. John Walton.

The hostess was charmingly attired in a wely toilet of black silk, and Mrs. James Wood in a sweetly pretty costume of mous-seline de soie. The collation was served by Kennedy in one of the prettiest of duning there carnations and pink roses lent their beauty and perfume to the scene.

An Imposter Impersonating the Son of Chief Obtains Sums of Money.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 23 .- Chief Lindsay, o the Fire Department, has received a letter from the Chief of the Montgomery Fire Depariment saving that a man has been trayeling through that section of the country representing himself as a son of Mr. Lind say, and on the strength of these representations has been obtaining sums of money ranging from $25 to $50 from the fire laddies in different Southern cities. Mr. Lindsay says he has no son in the South. The man claiming to be such, ac-cording to the Montgomery chief, has a scar on the forehead, weighs about 200 pounds and is about 28 years old.

ONE DEFENDANT MISSING.

The Embezzlement Proceedings Agains Potter and Lovell Retarded.

BOSTON, Jan. 23 .- The criminal procee ings against Walter Potter, of the Potter-Lovell Company, brought at the instance of Slingtuff, Disney & Co., of Baltimore, on a charge of embezzing notes of that firm, were begun in the Municipal Court this morning. The warrant for Mr. Potter's arrest also named Wallace D. Lovell, but Mr. Lovell leit his home in Newton at about the time the warrant was issued, and has not returned or been found by the police. The case has been continued several times at the request of the Baltimore firm, who desired an op-portunity to find Mr. Lovell.

MEADVILLE MEN SUED.

The Contests Are in Connection With P., S & L. E. Railroad Affairs.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23 .- In the matter the attachments against Samuel B. Dick and Railroad Contractor Arthur G. Huidekoper, of Meadville, Pa., Charles Newes, the plaintiff, has begun suit in the Supreme plaintiff, has begun suit in the Supreme Court to recover $5,000. The Pittsburg, Shenango and Lake Eric Railroad Company, in September last, gave its note for $5,000, now held by Newes. He claims that the defendants, by an agreement with the railroad company, assumed the payment of the note with other debts amounting to $60,601.

ST. PAUL'S ENUMERATOR NOT GUILTY.

Suits Which Grew Out of the Census of Tw Rival Cities.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 23 .- This afternoon the jury in the case of J. O. Vervais, the St. Paul census enumerator who was charged with making false returns, brought in a verdict of not guilty. This is said to be the first complete trial of its kind in the history of the country. The trials of the Miuneapolis enumerators charged with conspiracy, will be held later at Minneapolis.
