On the 2nd of February a new class of 75 pupils from the Birmmgham, Morse, Knox, Mt. Albion, St. Clair, Allen, Humboldt, Luckey and Peebles will take up the course. Owing to the popularity of the cooking schools in Pittsburg the Industrial Committee will soch have to establish apother one. It will likely be situated on the Southside, as the pupils from this district live at very inconvenient distances from the Public Cooking School on Grant street. In a city that furnishes such thorough graduates as the Nor-mal High School does it has been asked why a course of cooking taken at the Public Cooking School should not be a necessary part of the training fitting the graduates to hill the posi-tions in the domestic schools which must be in an avenue to women that is not yet much en-oroached on. Western cities always send to Bos-ton when they need a cooking teacher. Why not have a cooking school to train teachers for the work in Pittsburg?
