I go on to learn that when God writes anything on the wall, a usen had better read it as it is. Damed do', nor missinterpret or modify the handwriting on the wall. It is all foolishness to expect a minister of the gospel to preach always takings that the people like, or the people always takings that the people like, or the people always takings that the people like of the wenders that our race has accomplished? Death at the Banquet. Hearn further from this subject that Death sometimes breaks in upon a banquet. Why did he not go down to the prisons in Babylon? There were people there that would like to havedied. I suppose there were men and women in torture in that city who would have welcomed death. But hopomes to the palace; and just at the time when the mirth is dashing to the tiptop pitch, Death breaks in at the bancare. We have often seen the same thing the could not have believed it. Destroyed; and without remedy.

I am just setting forth a fact, which you have noticed as well as I. Annuias comes to the king's palace, to do their mightiest deads of darkness.

A royal least to-night at the king's palace. Husbing up to the gates are chariots, upbelstered with precious cloths from Dedan, and drawn by fire-eyed horses from Togarmah, his wife cames in. Are there any here who are unprepared for the eternal world? Are there are any user who have been living without God, and without hope? Let me say to you that you had better accept of the Lord Jesus Christ, lest suddenly your last chance he rone. The lunes will cease your last chance be gone. The lungs will cense to breathe; the heart will stop. The time will come when you shall go no more to the office, or to the store, or to the shop. Nothing will be left but Death, and judgment, and Eternity. Oh! flee to God this hour! If there be one in left but Death, and Judgment, and Eternity.
Ohl flee to God this hour! It there be one in this presence who has wandered far away from Christ, though he may not have heard the call of the Gospel for many a year, I invite him now

Good night, my young friends! May you have rosy sleep, guarded by Him who never strong and well! But ob! art thou a despiser of God? Is this thy last night on earth? Shouldest thou be awakeued in the night by something, thou knowest not what, and there be shadows floating in the room, and a handwriting on the wall, and you feel that your last hour is come, and there be a fainting it the heart, and a

Our city has of late years become an important center for the raw fur trade, and trade here in this line has increased 25 per cent on last season. Orders for raw furs are received here from all parts of our country, from the farthest East and West as well as from England and Germany. The furs are simply feshed here and tanned at other places to return again in the finished state. CHICAGO — The grain markets were weak during the first hour of the session to-day, be-ing dominated by the selling of Pardridge in the wheat pit. Trading was inactive early, but was brisk and bordering upon the exciting in the latter half of the session. The St. Louis contingent, which embraces the Hart Club, of that city, and Kaufman, the miller, made large profits on the recent decline, are now apparer profits on the recent decline, are now apparently working the bull side, and there is a numerous body of strong bulls in New York who have been steadily fighting against the recent declining tendency of prices. The business is out of the rule for the present, and is no longer any one's market. Wheat at the close was about 2½c higher than at the corresponding time yeaterday. Corn gained 3½c, oars 3½c and provisions picked up and closed a little over yesterday's closing quotations.
