REWARD FOR SPOOKS.

Ghastly Stone-Throwers Molest a West Virginia Farmer.

HE WANTS THE PROBLEM SOLVED.

An Italian Railroad Laborer Murdered for

TESTING FUEL GAS AT JOHNSTOWN

His Money.

WHEELING, Feb. 1 .- A remarkable state of affairs exists at the house of Jacob Cuuningham, on McKines Creek, Pleasant county. For two or three weeks the occupants of the house, which is situated in an open field, have been an-noyed by stones, ranging from a pea to an orange in size, being thrown against the house, demolishing the windows and endangering the lives of the inmates. This has been done both by day and night, and, despite all efforts at detection, even to the posting of guards 50 yards from the house, the nuisance has increased.

There is now scarcely a whole paue of glass in the house. One stone, which flew through a window Saturday and almost buried itself in the wall on the other side of the room, weighed four pounds. Outside of the house a hole cor-responding in size with the stone was found. Cunningham has offered a reward of $60 for the solution of the problem which has made his home untenable. BIG FUNERAL AT BRADDOCK.

The Remains of William Brown Followed to the Grave by Hundreds. BRADDOCK, Feb. 1.—There was a large as samblage of iron and steel men at Braddock today. The funeral of William Brown, who was killed by electricity at Edgar Thomson works, Thursday evening, occurred this afternoon at 2 o'clock. It was under the direction of Rankin Lodge No. 16, Amalgamated Association, and nearly 1,000 men, preceded by the Carnegie Band, of Homestead, followed the remains to the grave. The men belonged to lodges of the 22 and 23-inch mills, of Homestead, and Eankin and North Star Lodges, of the Braddock wire mill, and the local division of the Edgar Thomson.

It is unofficially announced that John Potter, present general superintendent of the Homestead Steel Works, is to be appointed consulting engineer of all the Carnegie interests. It is also said that his assistant will be placed at the head of the Homestead concern. killed by electricity at Eugar Thomson works, #### MURDERED FOR HIS MONEY. The Fate of an Italian Railroad Workman Near Brockwayville.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) BROCKWAYVILLE, Feb. 1 .- Men at work or the Buffalo, Bochester and Pittsburg road, be-tween here and Ridgeway, found the dead body of a man concealed under the floor of their shanty. They drew it to the light, and found it to be the corpse of Guoise Cupaiolo, an Italian who had been employed more or less along the creek.

In the head were three bullet wounds, and cuts from an ax, any one of which would have proved fatal. It was evident the man was murproved tatal. It was evident the man was mur-dered for his money, as the pockets were turned inside out, and rifled. A deposit book on a bank here showed considerable money to the mans credit. As the case bears some re-semblance to the late mystery at Falls Creek, it is thought the deeds were committed by the same parties, and a close investigation will fol-low.

WEST VIRGINIA'S CAPITAL.

A Bill to Have It Moved Away From Charleston.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CHARLESTON, Feb. 1.-A great deal of inter est is manifested over a bill to be introduced in the House to-morrow by Delegate Young, of Upshur county, providing for the removal of the seat of Government from Charleston to some part of the State to be decided upon by a vote of the people at the expiration of ten years. There is a great deal of hostility to Charleston on the part of the people of the northern and western counties of the State, as well as some of those in the extreme east, and it is likely the bill will be renorted from the com-mittee with the recommendation that it pass. The people of this place are wildly excited over the matter, and will oppose it bitterly.

DENIED A DIVORCE.

MRS. MAGUIRE FAILED TO MAKE OUT A PROPER CASE.

The Evidence All Tended to Show Her Reverend Husband Had Been Kind to Her-She Eloped and Then Begged to Be Taken Back

SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. NEW YORK, Feb.1.-Judge Osborne, of the City Court, Brooklyn, decided yesterday not to grant Mrs. Maria Cora Maguire a limited divorce from the Rev. Hugh Maguire, the rector of the Episcopalian Church of Our Savior, at Clinton and Luqueer streets. Mrs. Maguire sued for a divorce on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment, and the husband set up as an answer a general denial of her charges, and the additional allegation that she had eloped from him in Baltimore with a man named Douglass. On the trial, Mrs. Maguire admitted that she ran away with Douglass, but it was only to escape from her husband, who had threat-ened to place her in a lunatic asylum. The testimony developed the fact that she had been an inmate of an asylum on three different occasions. Judge Osborne had this to say in rendering his decision:

I am of the opinion that plaintiff has failed to make out her case. She alone testifies to to make out her case. She alone testifies to the alleged acts of crueity, and there is not a scintilla of evidence to corroborate her. De-fendant denies all of the alleged acts of crueity, and he adduces evidence to show that for a portion, at least, of their married life his treat-ment of his wife had been kind and consider-erate, while her treatment of him was the re-verse.

It further appears that in 1883 plaintiff eloped with one Douglass. Her subsequent letters to the defendant, imploring his forgiveness and begging to be taken back, are filled with expressions of his kind treatment of her, and are utterly inconsistent with her evidence of his alleged acts of cruelty prior to her elopement. The complaint must be dismissed.

AN OLD WOMAN'S SUICIDE.

Decrees of Two Divorces From Her Husbands Found Among Her Effects. CHICAGO, Feb. 1 .- An old lady, of perhaps 55 years, committed suicide by hanging herself in a room at No. 105 South Sangamon street this afternoon. Mrs. Wentworth, the landlady states that last Thursday the old lady came to her and dedesired to rent a room. She was alone. and had but little baggage. She appeared morose and never spoke much about her-self. A large number of letters and papers were found in the room. They have the name of Mrs. Catherine McKuight and Mrs. Catherine Kelly.

Two decrees of divorce and an old marrisge certificate were smoog the papers. The divorce decrees showed that she had been separated from two husbands upon the same plea-drunkenness and cruelty. The first was dated Chicago, October 10, 1864, and showed that Mr. and Mrs. James Mc-Knight were divorced. The second was dated April 4, 1870, and showed that she had been given a decree from Joseph Kelly. The marriage certificate was dated January 21, 1869, the date upon which she was mar-ried at Grace Church in this city. There were numerous other documents, but none giving a clew to the address of friends or relatives or why she took her life.

DEFENDING HIS WIFE'S HONOR. ensational Scene in the Crawford Murder

Trial at Decatur. DECATUR, Feb. 1 .- During the progress of the Crawford murder trial a riot was nearly precipitated in the court room. William Woodruff, a witness for the defense, was testifying to the character of Mrs. Mathias, Crawford's victim. The husband of the deceased was sitting near by. The witness said Mrs. Mathias had held improper relations with different men with the knowledge and onsent of her husband. Before any one could control Mathias, he arose and said: "You are a liar," and in the same instant raised a chair to assault the the same instant raised a chair to assault the witness. Mathias is a powerful man and it required several bailiffs to disarm him. This aroused the crowd who cried: "Let him go, let him go," "lynch the brute," etc. A hundred men started toward the witness and several revolvers were flourished. Some warrant was sworn out charging Woodruff with perjury and he was taken to jail under guard of a dozen police, a mob of desperate men led by Colonel Mathias' brothers hav-

BOLD COUNTERFEITERS FROM GOTHAM. Their Operations in Philadelphia Disc ered and One Man Captured.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. PRILADELPHIA, Feb. 1 .- A gang of ounterfeiters have been plying their game in this city for the past six weeks, and have ucceeded in fastening upon business men a big pile of bogus $5 notes. The gang came from New York, where they found the atmosphere too hot for them, and invaded Gloucester with its inviting track and pool rooms. About 20 men composed the crowd. They are under the leadership of the most notorious bunco steerer and confidence man in the country—a man who boasts, among his other achievements, of having victimized the son of Inspector Byrnes, of New York. He is known as "The Kid."

Since the advent of "The Kid" and the gang, the habitues of Green's have noticed a flashing of bright-hued notes among a number of well-dreased men who invariably made their bow to the bar at 9 or 10 o'clock in the evening and retired to the brass bar railing to compare notes. For more than a month past a special officer has kept his eyes on the gang. The combination became aware that they were watched and shoved no more of the gueer at Green's o more of the queer at Green's.

Yesterday atternoon a man giving his name as Walter Drinkhouse was arrested for attempting to pass green goods at two lunch rooms. No doubt is entertained that the bogus money came from the New York gang. The $5 note, which has been freely circulated, is a gross imitation of the series

MEN'S BUSINESS AND DRESS SUITS

Between the prices of $12 and $16. Every day this week we will give you your choice of several hundred of them at the price named-$7.75. We say, without hesitation, that in giving you these suits at this price we are giving you THE BARGAIN OF THE SEASON. Look elsewhere first, if you want to, and then come and see for yourselves. It will make the selling of them an easy matter for us.

THESE SUITS ARE STYLISH, NOBBY,

Well made and trimmed, cut in the top notch of fashion and of scores of different materials to select from. Sacks and Frocks both. They are just as good in every particular as when you paid us $12, $13, $14, $15 and $16 for them. There's but one reason for the reduction: It's late in the season, and we have too many of them.
