NEW YORK, Feb. 5 .- The trading in the stock market was dull again to-day, but the market showed a continuation of the late market showed a continuation of the late strength, and especially in the forenoon, and with a slight setback caused by weakness in a few stocks there was a strong undertone dis-played throughout the session. Among those which showed most strength at times may be mentioned Missouri Pacific, Wheeling and Lake Eric, Union Pacific and Lake Shore, with special advances in many of the inactive shares. The room was inclined to be bullish in the early trading, one of the features being the buying of the recognized leaders of the bear party and their outspoken utterances in favor of a rise.
