A Short Sketch of Mr. Seney.

The famous amateur, George Ingraham

Seffey, first saw the light at Astoria, L. L. May 12, 1826. He came from excellent stock, his father being an eminent Methodist clergyman and his grandfather a Revolutionary patriot and his grandiather a Revolutionary patriot, a member of the Continental Congress and of the first American Congress. Young George received his education partly at the Wesleyan University, and partly at the University of the City of New York. After graduating from the latter school at the age of 21 years, he entered the banking business, rising rapidly from first paying teller of the Metropolitan Bank to president of that institution. He also became a promoter of many financial enterprises and a director in several railroads.

Blut it is not through his every day vocations that he is the subject of interest. The world knows him best in the role of an amateur—as a philanthropist and a patron of art. He was prominent in all the work of the Methodist Church, and gave generously to public institutions. The collection of paintings which he brought together under his own roof, is what has made him famous. In America it is second only to that of Mr. Walters, at Baltimore.

During the panic off 1884, Mr. Seney's bank suspended, his priceless art collection was seattered by sale, and it was only through the efforts of his friends that his private fortune was saved. Fully 255 pictures were sold for $406, 910. Mr. Seney again became a millionaire, and gathered a new collection—better than the first because the fruit of a riper judgment.

For and Against the Passage of the Burdick Measure.

THE FIGHT OF THE DOCTORS RENEWED

"SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. HARRISBURG, Feb. 11.-Representative Fow's bill to repeal some of the less popular features of the Sunday law of 1794 has greatly aroused the advocates of a rigid observance of the Sabbath, if the remonstrances against any modification of the ancient law being forwarded to members of the Legislature are to be taken as indicating the sentiment prevailing among church people. Protests against the propose legislation were presented in the Senate and House to-day, and the fight against Fow's scheme is declared by its opponents as only in its incipient state.

Sabbath associations in the East and West and represented in the remonstrances presented in the House by ex-Speaker Graham and others, and by Senators Neeb, of Allegheny; Meck, of Center; Lloyd, of Cumberland, and Critchfield, of Somerset. The latter had one read for the information of the Senate. It was from the Western Penusylvania Sabbath Observance Association, and Association in respecting any change of the Sunday law, which was said to be in accordance with the law of God and promotive of health, happiness and morality.

Pleading for the Sabbath. This moraing the House Committee on Vice and Immorality gave the enemies of the Sunday law an opportunity to give their copinions in opposition to the measure having this purpose in view. Lewis D. Vail, representing the Philadelphia Law and Order Society, and the Rev. Wilbur F. Craft, Honorary Secretary of the Western Pennsylvania Schools (Occurrent) vania Sabbath Observance Association, made earnest pleas against the favorable considera-tion of the Fow bill, as calculated to work great mischief to the sanctity of the Saubar Mr. Vall also appeared before another co Mr. Vali also appeared before another committee in advocacy of the passage of a law to give the judges of the couris the same discretionary power in the granting of wholesale liquor licences that they possess in granting discusses to applicants for retail licenses. He also did a little quiet work against the bill for the appointment of an excise commission by the Couris of Common Pleas of Philadelphia to take charge of the granting of all liquor licenses asked for in that city.

The Grangers of the State are fighting even harder for the passage of the bill for the equalization of taxation than are the Sabbattarians for the defeat of the Fow bill. Members of the senate and the House were loaded this morning with petitions in favor of the proposition to unload some of the taxes imposed on real estate on the corporations.

Grangers Notified to He Warx.

Grangers Notified to Be Wary.

Scores of granges have already sent in their appeals for the passage of this measure, but members of the Legi-lature, who are already mentified with orders of the Patrons of Hushandry at their homes, predict flood of memorials on the subject in the near future. The Grange authorities have notified all the Pennsylvania granges of the importance of taking prompt action on the proposed legislation, in view of the certain and powerful opposition of the corporations, which claim that if the bill should pass, receive the approval of the Governor and stand the test of the courts, they would be compelled to submit to increased taxation amounting to about $1,000,000 annually. The Granger members of the Legislature held a meeting this evening to make provision to meet every possible scheme that may be applied to deleat their bill. Next Thursday evening M. F. Olinstead, of this city, representing a number of corporations, and Marshall Wright, of Allentown, representing the Lehigh Valiey Railroad Commentee against the measure. Scores of granges have already sent in their Oil Men Given a Hearing. The Senate General Judiciary Committee, to which the bill to reduce the rates for the pipeage of crude oil has been submitted to-day, seard arguments for and against the passage of the measure. This committee represented 3,000 oil producers of the 5,000 or 6,000 in Pennsylvania. Those who asked for its favorable consideration were W. W. Brown, W. P. Thompson and T. B. Olimstead, of Harrisburg, as the representative of the National Transit Company, the offspring of the Standard Oil Company, argued against the bill. Mr. Frazine, of Warren, representing an independent oil refinery, said he would not speak in apposition to the second section, which would oblige them to pay 57 cents for the delivery of a barrel oil in Philadelphia, while the shippers of crade netroleum, which is transportable through pipe, could have a barrel sampped to that city for 27 cents. This evening ex-senator Lee, of Venango, addressed the committee from the producers standpoint. This committee represented 3,000 oil pro-Fight of the Doctors.

Senator Herring, of Columbia, introduced a Senator Herring, of Columbia, introduced a bill to-day which is intended to cure an anomalous condition of things in coal mines in Sullivan caunity. These mines produce a semi-bituminaus coal, but great difficulty is experienced in mining the national because anthractic miners are not familiar with the way in which bituminous coal is worked, and bituminous miners cannot undergo a successful examination under the anthractic mining laws. The consequence is that no adequate means exist to develop the coal in the indicated mines.

The purpose of the bill of Senator Herring is to exempt the men who would be willing to operate in these miners from the anthractic miners' examination law, and place them under the act relative to the examination of bituminous coal miners.

Bills were passed finally to provide for an ad-ditional law judge in Luzerne county; relating to public parks in cities of the second class; to public parks in cities of the second class; authorizing purchase or condemnation of lands therefor and the improvement and maintenance thereof, and to sell such parts as may be unnecessary for park purposes; authorizing cities of the second class to change, alter, regulate and improve public wharves or landing, and improve any such as have heretofore been made.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION

A Favorable Report Made on the Farr Bill

by the Committee. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATORA HARRISBURG. Feb. 11.—The compulsory education bill of Farr, of Lackawanna, was favorably considered this afternoon by the Education Committee. Mr. Farr said that illiteracy was increasing in Pennsylvania and that there are 150,000 children between 6 and 16 that there are 150,000 children between 6 and 16 years of age who do not attend any school.

The reports, Mr. Farr said, of county and city superintendents as published in the recent report of State Superintendent Waller, show that there are 78,885 non-school attendants. Twelve county and eight city superintendents make no estimates. Among the cities not included in these estimates are Philadelphia and Pittsburg.

LEGISLATIVE BUSINESS BLOCKED. The Conference Committees at Hartford

Still Fail to Agree.

HARTFORD, Feb. 11 .- The House met at 11 this morning. Chairman Greene of the Conference Committee, said it was not possible as yet to report, and a recess was taken to I o'clock. The Senate met at 12. The Conference Committee reported inability to agree with the House Committee. They said the House proposition conflicted with the position streads taken by the Senate, and that the House members refused the proposition of the Senate Committee, which was to seat all the Democrats, and then let the Republicans contest their seats. The Senate accepted the report and took a recess to 1:30. There was considerable routine business introduced before the House of Kepresentatives to-day, but the report of the Conference Committee was delayed till to-morrow. Meanwhile there will be another caucus of the Republican members. The Democratic Legislators are now in caucus. The Democratic members of the House to-day followed the action of the Senate in refusing, as far as they were able, to proceed to the transaction of Legislative business. The Senate adjourned until to-morrow.

THE AYER BANK SUSPENSION.

Both Concerns Believed to Be All Right,

Though the Cashier Is Missing. AVER, MASS., Feb. 11,-Two banks here, the First National and the North Middlesex Savings, closed to-day, and the cashier of both institutions, H. E. Spaulding, has been missing since Monday evening. The Supreme Court this afternoon issued an ininnetion restraining the North Middlesex institution from paying out any money until an investigation of the finances of the bank can be made.

Investigation tends to show that both the banks are solvent, the savings institution especially so, as none of its lunds have been tampered with. Cashier Spaulding has doubtless been dabbling in stocks. He was a regular member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was accounted a man of steriling habits and upright character. The

The scene in the Madison Square Garden assembly room, where the sale commenced, was certainly animated and brilliant. The demand for admission tickets had been so great that 5,000 were issued. The result was a tremendous pressure upon the capacity of the beautiful room.

Pittsburg Art Lovers Present. A number of well-known Pittsburg art lovers were present. Charles J. Clark, William Thaw, Jr., and H. Du Puv were among these. A great picture sale, such as this, is certainly novel. It is more—it is a remarkable phenomenon. Pictures which have gone on in the even tenor of their several ways for years, passing leisurely out of one hand into another, possibly appreciating steadily in value, always tenderly tondled by owner and lover, now find themselves in a mad race, sourrying along one after another at a most unseemly pace. Bids snap sharply from every section of the room, often without the lapse of a second between them, and the hammer falls with a between them, and the hammer falls with a clang, the echo of which scarcely dies before a new candidate for favor is against the rich plush and actually on the run. In the madrush one gentleman bid $25 against himself tonight, on No. 44, and it was knocked down to him. He deserved it.

All go alike, however, the famous work with the one less known, and where no exception is made no complaint can be entered. Many of the pictures are being purchased by dealers who know thoroughly their value, and the dealers come from every quarter of the country, from Montreal to Kalamazoo.

Vibert's brilliantly colored panel, "The Forbidden Book," called forth a general hand clapping when the curtains were drawn aside and disclosed it. It was started at $2,000 and provoked some very lively bidding until secured by H. U. Slater for $4,100, a dozen different persons apparently bidding for it until the price reached $3,700.

price reached $3,700 A Struggle Between Two Then the competition was narrowed down to two. They bid by twenty-fives for awhile, and finally Mr. Slater named the price by a jump of $100.

No. 62, Maures' "Carting of the Log," was secured by Kneedler for $1,200 against a determined opponent. Philadelphia, in the person of George M. Elkins, secured Guy's little gem, the "Making of the Train," regarded by many as his best production. It cost the Quaker City $1,975. Knoedler made the only bid for Jean Paul Laurens' "The Widow" and got it for $500. Horace Russell paid $625 for George Inness' "Winter Moonlight." It was started at $500. This was by far the most striking of the many paintings by Inness in the collection, although not regarded by critics as the best.

Julian Dupre's "In the Hayfield" was greeted with hearty applianse. It was started at $500 and jumped rapidly to $1,900, at which price it was bought in by William H. Frear, of Troy. The first of the seven Schreyers in the collection was started at $1,000. It was entitled "For Food and Shelter" and occasioned a ripple of applianse. A. C. Harrison, of Philadelphia, secured it for $2,250. Another picture which attracted the multipude was Erskine Nicols' "Mental Arithmetic." That was also started at $1,000 and sold at $2,650. Samuel Untermeyer bid in De Madrazos' "Mine La Marquise" for for $1,150. Mr. Untermeyer also purchased Munkacsy's "The Dreamer" for $50, after considerable lively bidding. Emile Breton's "Evening" aroused no enthusiasm whatever. Some ope started it at $500, and J. C. Rinn, of Boston; secured it for $100 more. George F. Baker secured Cazin's "Mooneys" for $875. Dinz's "Flowers" was knocked down to Knoedler at $550. Mr. Delmonico entered the lists when Daubigny's "The River Oise" was offered. It was started at $1,000 and jomped also to $1,600. Then Delmonico made the price $25 better and kept on till he landed his prize at $2,325. "The Herd," a small panel by Troyon, was captured by Blakeslee for $750. More interest was awakened by Diaz's panel, entitled "The Pet Spaniel," which was started at $500 and brought $1,525. best.

THE PLAYER IS QUITE WILLING. Smothers, the Brownsville Sprinter, Accepts the Challenge of J. Priddy. GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

It will be interesting to patrons of the local ball club to know that efforts are to be made to secure Elmer Smith, of this city, to pitch for the local club next season. This was resolved on yesterday by President O'Neill. The latter and Manager Hanlon are extremely desirous of having a good left-handed pitcher on the team, and after a careful survey of the situation Mr. O'Neill is of opinion that Elmer is just the kind of man

President O'Neill was informed yesterday that Smith desired to play in Pittsburg because his wife and family are here. "Well," replied the President, "we shall be glad to have a man like Smith, although we have a very good man in our other Smith. But Elmer is a Pitts-burger, and he and Berger would make a good home battery. We want a home battery. I have not spoken to Elmer Smith on the mat-ter, nor will I until I have a talk with President Krauthoff, of the Kansas City Club. I will meet that gentleman on Friday, when I will try and make a deal. I can give him a good pitcher and probably a good fielder also in re-

Eimer Smith was seen by the writer and spoken to on the question. He said: "I cer-tainly would like to play in Pittsburg, as my tainly would like to play in Pittsburg, as my home is here. I think arrangements could be made with the Kansas City club by which I could be transferred to this city. I don't want to go there, but I certainly will not go any further East than Pittsburg, so that there is no truth whatever in the story that I am going to Boston. If the Kansas City club gets young Sowders I think I can get my release without any trouble, as the club will not need us both."

If President O'Neill can succeed in making a deal with President Krauthoff by which we get Elmer Smith he will have accomplished an deal with President Krauthoff by which we get Filmer Smith he will have accomplished an achievement highly satisfactory to local lovers of the game. Elimer is not only an excellent player, and an all-around one, but he is a popular player in Pittsburg. He did great work for Kansas City last year, and really won the championship of the Western League for the Cowhoys. On this account it is thought that the Kansas City club will be reluctant to part with him. But President O'Neill means to try and get him, and Elmer thinks that the efforts will be successful.

The Fight Announced to Take Place on the 20th at Jersey City. Boston, Feb. 11.—A telegram was received in this city to-day from Jere Dunn, stating that the fight between McCarthy and Dixon will come off at the quarters of the Hudson County Athletic Club, Jersey City, February 20. McCarthy, the telegram says, has agreed to fight moder the same conditions as previously arranged. Dixon has again gone into training.

Choynski Knocked Out. SYDNEY, N. S. W., Feb. 11.-Joe Goddard, of Australia, champion of the Barrier, and Joe Choynski, of San Francisco, fought at the Sydney Athletic Club last evening, at catch weights, for a purse of £500. Goddard defeated his antagonist in the fourth round. Goddard has fought many battles, and recently worsted Peter Jackson, the famous negro puglist in an eight-round contest with gloves. Choynski was beaten in a contest with Jim Corbett in San some months ago, but was suc in a fight with Jack Fogarty, of Australia. Beaten By a Little Boy. There was quite an interesting swimming ace at the Natatorium last evening between Eddie Foy, of the "Crystal Slipper" company, Eddie Foy, of the "Crystal Slipper" company, and Master Harry Goodwyn. The distance was two lengths of the bath and the funny Foy had as idea that the little chap would not be in the race. The comedian was mistaken, as Master Goodwyn defeated him by a yard and a haif after a most exciting race. The fact of Foy's defeat only dawned on bim a little at a time, and when he realized it he telt very, very weary. The boy will receive a fine medal.

Mr. Stern Declines.

TEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CINCINNATI, Feb. 11 .- Al. Johnson has been requesting Aaron Stern to join with him in fighting the National League, but Mr. Stern has more sense, and emphatically refuses to do any such thing. The reports circulated to the effect that the American Association clubs are making efforts to have a war with the League are all false, and are being circulated by League enemies in Cleveland.

Must Sell Within the State. St. Louis, Feb. 11.-The Upper House of the Legislature has passed a bill prohibiting the sale in Missouri of pools on horse racing out-side the State. Pool selling on political con-tests is absolutely prohibited. The bill as it passed permits pool selling on race tracks in this State while the races are in progress.

Chicago's Ball Team. CHICAGO, ILL., Feb. 11.-The Chicago baseball club has engaged the following players— pitchers, Hutchinson, Luby, Gumbert and Van Haltren: catchers—Nagle, Kittridge and Far-rell; in the infield—Anson, Pfeffer, Cooney and Burns; in the outfield—Wilmet, Ryan and MANAGER LEADLEY, of the Cleveland club, is in Chicago trying to sign some of Anson's players. IF Al Johnson is not very careful he will get as much of a "diakey-dink" in Ciucinnati as he go in the late P. L. One of President O'heill's plans to get Tebeau was to get Stovey to go to Cleveland. That plan was a failure. IT is probable that the Armonde Club, of London, will offer a $10,000 purse for a battle between Slavin and Sullivan. No more hoxing, amateur or professional, will be allowed in Brooklyn without a permit from the police authorities. CLUBS in need of a good and useful player should not overlook Ed Swartwood. Ed can fill two or three positions in excellent style. PATRICK DEAN, of Penn avenue, entered last evening for the Homewood shooting handleap which takes place on the 21st inst. THE limit of handleap in the proposed shooting sweepstakes at Homewood Park is 18 to 25 yards, and not 13 to 25, as previously stated. THE ILLINOIS REPUBLICANS MAKE A PROPOSITION.

The Farmers Receive It Coldly, but Possibly May Not Ultimately Reject It-A Fruitless Conference With the Democrats-Several More Ballots Are Taken SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Feb. 11.-The Republican Steering Committee this morning presented a long list of names to the F. M. B. A. men from which to select one for joint support for the United States Senatorship, among others Cicero J. Lindley, President of the Illipois F. M. B. A. The F. M. B. A. were not to be entired from their determination to name the Senatorial candidate of their choice without assistance. Representative Taubeneck, as spokesman of the F. M. B. A. members, said: "We have decided, gentlemen, that we cannot accept any Republican whom you present; it is useless to negotiate further."

The Republicans then decided to go into joint Assembly, and after two or three bailots change off to Lindley and later to other candidates on the list presented to the F. M. B. A. When the joint Assembly met the first three ballots were cast without change, but on the seventy-seventh ballot the 100 Republican votes were cast for Cicero J. Lindley, President of the F. M. B. A., amid great excitement. The F. M. B. A. east their three votes for Stelle, and the Democrats their 101 for General Palmer. A motion for a recess until 3 P. M. was then carried by the combined vote of the Democrats and the F. M. B. A. men. The several conferences were then held between the Democrats and farmers with no definite result. The farmers say they will continue to support Stelle during the day. They say they have not decided not to vote for Lindley at any time, but that the action of the Republicans took them by surprise, and they were not prepared to change so suddenly. At the afternoon session of the joint Assembly two ballots were cast without change, and an adjournment was taken until to-mo
