terror to his companions. He never let an opportunity go by without arranging some boyish prank upon his schoolmates.

CRISIS FOR CANADA.

The Country's Destiny Depends Largely on the Next Election.

A VICTORY FOR THE LIBERALS

Would Be Taken as the Probable Forerunner of Annexation.

LEADING FEATURES OF THE CONTEST

MONTREAL, Feb. 15.—The crisis in the history of Canada has come. The elections which will be held throughout the entire country on the 5th of March next will settle her destiny as a British colony.

The Government is playing a game for a tremendous stake, and though some of its losses are loaded there is a fair chance of its losing, and of the man whom to-day it brands as traitors assuming control by the authority of the votes of the people.

ANSWER OF THE LIBERALS.

To this the Liberals answer that they are loyal to the British Empire, but that if it is necessary to discriminate against England in order to save Canada, they are Canadians, and will not ruin their future for the sake of sentiment.

A GROWING FEELING OF DISCONTENT.

There has been dissatisfaction East and West almost since the birth of confederation, and there has been a growing feeling of discontent in its maintenance, quality, and vitality.
