The Tanners' Trust Refuses to Let the Pubhe Into Its Secrets.

The Committee on Organization of the Tanners' Trust met at the Duquesne yesterday to finish some details that had been neglected. President James D. Callery, Secretary William A. Mooney, of Columbus, Ind., and ex-State Senator George H. Anderson, who is Commissioner of the trust, were among the number Mr. Anderson referred the reporters to Secre-

Mr. Anderson referred the reporters to Secre-tary Mooney for information, but that individ-ual is one of the chilliest Hoosiers living. He had nothing to say, and would not be ques-tioned. Since the organization of the associa-tion, which is devoted to the interests of haras leather manufacturers, the members ness leather manufacturers, the memoership has been constantly increasing, and makers of other Kuds of leather have applied for admis-sion. The general feeling is to admit all tan-ners who put up the collateral and agree to obey all the rules. The capital stock represent-ent is now over $12,000,006, and going higher.

COME BATES NOT CONSIDERED.

No Reduction Looked for Until After the Coke Strike Is Over.

At the meeting of the Pittsburg Committee f Freight Agents yesterday the demands of the Valley furnace men for a reduction in the colle rates were not considered. General Freight Agent Frank Dean, of the Lake Eric and, said the subject would not be brought up intid the coke strike was settled. The business very suddeniy yesterday in Philadelphia, from d the meeting was of an unimportant charan local railroad traffic is not what it should

Mrs. Kate E. Turpin yesterday filed in the Orphans' Court an appeal from the Register's decision in admitting to probate a paper pur-porting to be the last will of her father, Robert C. Henderson, who died October 8, 1889. The will was dated April 24, 1889, and probated Oc-CARRIAGE DRIVER-FOUR FARM HANDS, tober 17, 1889, and letters testamentary issued to C. F. McKenna, as one of the executors. U cooks, chambermaids, house giris, nurses, dining room giris, disiwashers, laundress, 2 giris for hoarding house, 53 per week; colored giris, hotel chambermaids. to C. F. McKenna, as one of the executors. Mrs. Turpin claims that it is not the last will of her father, because, at the time, he was not competent to make a will. The Court issued a citation on the parties interested and fixed February 25 for a hearing. In the will in question Mr. Henderson, who was a resident of the Twenty-first ward, be-queaths one-half of his estate to the Sisters of Mercy in charge of the Mercy Hospital, and the other half to the Little Sisters of the Poor in charge of the Home for Aged Men and Women, on Penn avenue. To his only daugh-ter he gave Sl00, because, he said, he was under no obligations to her; but if she became poor he desired the Sisters of the Poor of dercy, to give her a home, if she would do some work to give her a home, if she would do some work in return. C. F. McKenna and O. M. Edwards were appointed executors.
