McCULLOUGH'S SUCCESSOR.

It is Generally Believed That McCrea Will Be the Man. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 16.—Officials at the office of the Pennsylvania Railroad in this city, when questioned to-day as to the probability of McCrea succeeding McCullough though as First Vice President of the Pennsylvania Company, said:

"No definite action can be taken until the meeting of the Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Company, the call for which will be issued for several days hence. It is the general opinion on the outside that McCrea will be elected, but nothing positive will be known until the board meets."

GIBSON IS INDICTED.

THE WHISKY TRUST BOARD OF DIRECTORS Takes Up the Cudgel in Their Secretary's Defense—Mr. Gibson is Safe at His Home in Peoria. CHICAGO, Feb. 16.—Secretary Gibson, of the Whisky Trust, has been indicted by the grand jury, and is to-morrow morning, barring flight, will probably be again arrested and compelled to give bail in the State courts, in addition to $20,000 bonds already piled up against him.

The most important witness was T. S. Dewar, the United States gauger, who, it is alleged, was approached by Gibson with the scheme to break up and return the establishment. After Special Agent Brooks had told the jury of his work in unearthing the conspiracy to destroy the distillery and Dewar's part in it, that person displayed such a mass of damaging evidence against Gibson that little if any was needed afterward. Dewar had the letters said to have been received from Gibson, and also the bottles of fluid and the infernal machine alleged to have been sent to him by the secretary. An experiment was made by Dewar of the fluid, and it burst in a bright flame as soon as poured out on a piece of paper. The fluid was sworn to be precisely the same as was taken from the valve carried by Gibson the morning of his arrest.

PROTESTING AGAINST FREE COINAGE.

Representative New York Business Men Before the House Committee. WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.—The House Coinage Committee to-day gave a hearing on the silver question to a delegation sent here by the New York Board of Trade and Transportation. G. Waldo Smith said there was not a single banker in the board, every member being either a merchant or manufacturer. Mr. Smith said he was also President of the New York Wholesale Grocers' Association, and that both bodies were utterly and entirely opposed to any law which would legalize free coinage of gold and silver. He presented them a memorial adopted by them at its last meeting. This memorial declared that free coinage would demoralize gold, and expressed a belief in an international monetary agreement being secured soon. W. L. Trenholm and E. Ellery Anderson also spoke against the free coinage of silver. Mr. Anderson presented the protest of the Cooper Union meeting against the Senate silver bill, and the meeting adjourned.
