

THE EBBING FLOODS.

High Waters Stop Short of the Mark of the Big 1884 Freshet.

FLOOD NEWS FROM MANY POINTS.

New Methods Followed in the Famous Greely-Snell Contest.

THE MOYER MINE FIRE ALMOST OUT

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WHEELING, W. Va., Feb. 19.—The river came to a stand at 5 o'clock this morning, with over 45 feet of water in the channel. A new set of river marks have been put in since the flood, showing eight inches less water at any given stage, and that amount must be added before a proper comparison with the memorable deluge of seven years ago can be made.

THE MOYER MINE QUENCHED.

The Company Preparing to Clean Out the Mine and Operate It.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

SCOTTSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 19.—This afternoon it is reported that the fire which has been raging in the Moyer shaft is certainly quenched. The water, which has been kept steadily flowing into the shaft, has been kept steadily flowing into the shaft.

WILL ACCEPT THE COMPROMISE.

The Meeting of DeLamater & Co.'s Unsecured Creditors So Decided.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

MEADVILLE, Feb. 19.—The final meeting of the unsecured creditors of DeLamater & Co. convened today to receive the report of the committee to whom was delegated the task of preparing compromise papers, according to the proposition of the DeLamater family.

THE TOLL HOUSE TRAGEDY.

The Durr Boys, Who Have Turned State's Evidence, to Testify.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, Pa., Feb. 19.—The trial of George Teater, charged with the murder of Mrs. Sanders at the toll house, was continued today. The prosecution opened the case by playing on the stand Surveyor R. V. Johnson. He was followed by Frank Sanders, a son of the murdered woman, who testified to hearing the shots and rushing to the assistance of the murdered woman, but found that the men had fled.

THE KEEPERS OF COWS.

The State Dairyman's Association in Session at Meadville.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

MEADVILLE, Feb. 19.—The seventeenth annual convention of the State Dairyman's Association convened in this city yesterday, and will conclude its labors to-morrow. Quite an array of noted agriculturists and those in sympathy with the cause are present.

GIL INTERESTS SUFFER.

The Flood in Venango County Causes Great Damage to Producers.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

FRANKLIN, Feb. 19.—The destruction by the high waters along French creek and the Allegheny river in Venango county has been very great, the oil interests especially suffering. Many derricks, engine houses, tanks, etc., were carried away and destroyed, and the loss to oil producers will be many thousands of dollars.

HARD ON POOR PEOPLE.

People of Mansfield Valley and Vicinity Returning to Damp Homes.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

MANSFIELD VALLEY, Feb. 19.—The flooded districts here have recovered and the water has receded, yet the misery is greater than the proper cause than ever before. The stores along all the principal streets have suffered considerably. Grain, feed, and wood are recovering from their washout.

ALMOST A JAIL DELIVERY.

Friends of Prisoners in Franklin Make a Desperate Attempt.

FRANKLIN, Feb. 19.—A desperate effort was made to liberate the prisoners confined in the county jail here this evening, during the absence of Sheriff James Montgomery. Two men, Harry Wood, the turkey, outside the jail, knocked him down with a club, forced a sledge surmounted with chloroform into his mouth, and then the others of the jail from him, after blinding him hand and foot.

GAS FOR CARNegie & CO.

They Strike Their Largest Well on a Washington County Farm.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

LONG PINE, Feb. 19.—The drillers on Carnegie & Co.'s Great Monitor well, 1 1/2 miles from this place, had orders last week to pull the casing, it being a duster at 2,400 feet, but the better judgment of Mr. Crawford, who had charge of the well, prevailed, and orders were given to sink it a few feet deeper. This was done to the depth of 20 feet in the 50 feet sand, and the drill struck gas.

NEW INDIAN PUPILS AT CARLISLE.

The Daughter of American Horse One of the Latest Recruits.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

CARLISLE, Feb. 19.—To-night Assistant Superintendent Standing of the Carlisle Indian School, arrived here with 18 Sioux children from the Pine Ridge Agency. Ten of these are girls, one of whom is Julia Two Elk, a 18-year-old daughter of the chief, American Horse, who, on his visit to Washington, objected to Eastern Indian schools, but now sends his daughter to Carlisle, since his visit to this school.

THREE TIMES AND OUT.

The Beaver Falls Gas Main Over the Ohio River Again Broken.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

BEAVER FALLS, Feb. 19.—The high water in the Ohio river has again broken the main of the Bridgewater Gas Company in two places, and the gas has escaped into the Ohio river. The gas has returned to their old occupation of a warning wood to keep warm.

JOHNSTOWN PEOPLE STILL HOMELESS.

JOHNSTOWN, Feb. 19.—It had been announced that the public trustees would be responsible today, but later on it was found that most of the buildings were too damp for occupancy.

Strange indeed that

A PLAIN THING

like SAPOLIO should make everything so bright, but "A needle clothes others, and is itself naked." Try it in your next house-cleaning

What folly it would be to cut grass with a pair of scissors! Yet people do fully silly things every day. Modern progress has grown up from the hooked sickle to the swinging scythe and thence to the lawn mower. So don't use scissors!

But do you use SAPOLIO? If you don't you are as much behind the age as if you cut grass with a dinner knife. Once there were no soaps. Then one soap served all purposes. Now the sensible folks use one soap in the toilet, another in the tub, one
