A DAY OF MEMORIALS.

Impressive Ceremonies in Both Cities

in Honor of the Dead.

DOUBLE MEETING AT THE GRAND.

Rev. E. R. Donehoe and Dr. J. G. Townsend

Members of Grand Army Posts 3, 38, 41, 59, 88, 117, 127, 128, 135, 151, 153, 155, 157, 162, 181, 199, 206, 207, 215, 230, 259, 289, 360 and 540 held memorial services at the Grand Opera House, last evening, in honor of General William T. Sherman and Admiral go David D. Porter. Two chairs on the stage ye held vases containing flowers symbolical of the death of these two martial heroes. Lieutenant James M. Lyle Camp No. 2, Sons of Veterans, acted as ushers, and the gun squad of Post 157 was on guard duty. Department Commander Joseph F. Denniston presided, with Comrade A. P. Burenfield as Senior Vice Department Commander, and Comrade W. J. Patierson as Junior Vice and Comrade W. J. Patterson as Junior Vice Department Commander. On the stage were the commanders of the different posta, and Mrs. Presson Sheriff, President of the Ladies' Circle of the G. A. K. At 8 o'clock Commander Denniston called on Adjutant Bengough, who read the record of General Sherman. The bugle sounded "taps," and Comrade Daniel Ashworth read the record of Admiral Porter. A quartette from the choir of Post 157 sang "They're Gone." The quartette was composed of Miss Carrie Tarrant, Miss Annie Orr, Comrade X. S. Rees and Com-rade H. L. Hoburg. In the name of the comrades of Allegheny county the rose, the Hity and the laurel were placed in the vacant chairs by Thomas G. Sample, of Post 12S, D. L. Jones, of Post 151, and Harry Lambert, of Post 3. Attorney W. D. Moore made the first ad-dress. He said he had biesen a guest of Admiral Porter, and while he had only known General Sherman at a distance, he know something of his virtues, of his abilities, and of his well-de-served renown.

Muss Irene Sample followed Mr. Moore with a solo and then Judge Collier paid a glowing tribute to the memory of the dead. He said hothing new could be said of the lives of the dead-those two stant among the distinguished in the galaxy of noble men. Daniel Ashworth, of Post & followed with a tribute to Admiral Porter, in which he said that the characteristics of the dead seaman were action, faculty of listening to subordinates, and, greatest of all, fighting qualities. Judge Slagie made the closing address. He said that such occasions are a great privilege, and serve to keep alive the fires of patri tism in all hearts, and as such do great good. He thought that of all the great men produted by the civil war General Sherman was among the greatest. Save Lincoln, he was, taking him all in all, the greatest. Miss Carrie Tarrant sang a solo, and the meeting closed with the usual exercises of the Grand Army of the Remblic.

EULOGY FOR THE DEAD.

Memorial Services Held in Honor of William O'Hara Scully-An Able Panegyric Delivered by the Rev. Dr. Holmes to a Large Audience.

A large audience atlended the memorial

Holmes preached an able sermon.

In the first part of his discourse he related the history of Mr. Scully's life up to the time of his death, all of which facts have already appeared in THE DISPATCH. He have already appeared in THE DISPATCH. He space of his early connection with the church, and his great religious devotion. Continuing, Dr. Hoimes said:

 "It is not to our friend's life work that I would point you who would rather boxt the lesson of the hour. It is to his life. Between the life work and the life in this case lies the diameter which measures the difference between medicority and greatness. A thousand men in Pittshurg could have done his work as well as he.
 Numbers of you in this church would have last earthly days. Following this, remarks concerning the char-acter and work of the dead minister were made by S. P. Shriver, John Kirkpatrick, John R. Watson, William H. Graham, R. S. Latimer and the Rev. W. F. Richardson. Appropriate resolutions were also passed, mourning the removal of the assistant pastor, who was also a charter member of the church. A high tribute was paid to his Christian charservice in honor of William O'Hara Scully at the new and preity Sbadyside Presbyter-ian Church vesterday morning. Rev. Dr. Appropriate resolutions were also passed, mourning the removal of the assistant pastor, Bonghild, courteens and most negret partor s assistant." Dr. Holmes praised the character of Mr. Scally very highly. He alluded to the love which Sunnay school children had for him, and spoke of one little girl who said she liked Mr. Scally because he always shook hands with her. In a most able manner Dr. Holmes seized on the salient points in his character, and drew lessons from them for the benefit and guidance of his hear-ers. He reforred to his long connection with the Pittsburg transfer and the vast freight sys-tem which was built up under his management. tem which was built up under his management. The doctor thought the greatest event in his life occurred when he joined the church years ago. He was an active member, attended the prayer meetings and was early elected ruin older. He was also a trustee, and held oth prominent positions in the church.

reminded his authence that he discrimination was made by God in thus chastising His people; that the good had been made to suffer equally with the guilty. It was sought by some people to demonstrate that only the guilty were made to suffer, and that therefore all the sufferers by <text><text><text><text><text>
