HAYESVILLE-Guffey & Hummel, who have bought the Osborne Oil Company's interest in this field, are rigging up and will start drilling at No. 2 Rhoads tarm, the coming week. The same parties have located No. 3 same farm. REIROLD-The Forest Oil Company are in the best shape to test their Hartman well that they have been at any time yet. They are now pumping 1,000 barrels of salt water a day since the casing was pulled, and the 4-inch barrel was put on. This well is loozed on as important, if the water can only be exhausted. In advance of the Hartman about 1,000 reet, Turner & Co., on the Michael Heckerf farm, are in the 'top of the samd and the well is showing some oil. Bages & Curtis are rigging up on their new lo-cation on the Uasper Nolsheim farm, while Ed Rigner, of Renfrew, is taking out rig tim-bers for a new rig on the same tarm. AMEKESON-Producers and lease men have for managers." "That is not true of Pittsburg," replied the Colonel. "As the water last week was a greater show than any seen on the boards, so the parade to-day would attract the most people. The business ought to be good to-night. No, it wouldn't pay to have a matinee on such a day in Pittsburg, unless you wanted to play to empty benches. The people enjoy the show on the streets." Mr. Haberkorn was surprised at this state of affairs. It is a fact that outside of Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's, matinees on holidays in Pittsburg are woful failures.

Nothing special presents itself for the week just ended. Wahls, Bishop & Co. within the past few days purchased of Brown, Aldinger & Co. four producing wells, two of which are located on the McNair and two on the Knauf. The daily production is about 10 barrels and the consideration was re-ported as being $4000. Tait weo, shot their No.4 Wm. Dambauch the latter part of this week with a 100 quarts. The result thus far is not favorable; the well shows little or no oil. Campell & White's No. 3 Marshall is settled down to business as a 40 barrel pamper.
