THEY ARE HOPEFUL. Builders Say Work is a Little Backward, but Think It Will

BE MADE UP LATER IN THE SEASON. Good Trading on Change, With Electric and Philadelphia Gas as Leaders.

THE NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE CITY

Some additional information was obtained yesterday in regard to building prospects.

An architect whose name is withheld at his request said: "While there are fewer orders for construction work at the same time last year, it is the opinion of those in position to know that the omission will be made good later in the season.

Mr. H. C. Deeds, contractor and builder, at Edgewood, remarked: "The uncertainty of the market has retarded the movement, which will eliminate May 1, a delaying condition. But no matter what the issue may be a large number of buildings will be started this year.
