Fears That the Senator May Be Compelled to Retire From Public Life on Account of Ill-Health.

Some of the Retiring Western Pennsylvania Congressmen

Who Are Leaving Washington.

The Striking Figure of Griswold Attracting Much Attention.

WESTERN TRIP OF PRESIDENT HARRISON

FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Letters from Senator Quay give the information that though he has experienced some improvement, he is yet in exceedingly bad health, and his friends admit a strong probability that he will not be able to actively engage in public life for some time to come.

No member of Congress, and no family of a member of Congress will be more missed in their social circle than Hon. C. T. Townsend, of Beaver, and his family, who will leave for their Pennsylvania home shortly after the close of the session.

Mr. Townsend has no regrets, however, in retiring from Congress, where he has discovered that the chief duties of a Congressman, as they now constituted, are to act as factotum for home pension attorneys, and to go to offices for constituents.

Representative Bayne and Mrs. Bayne expect to start on a European tour as soon as practicable after the adjournment of Congress. They expect to spend the winter of the summer in Geneva, where Mrs. Bayne's mother, and a portion of her family now are with the wife of Consul Ross.

Mr. Dalzell has made so high a reputation for ability and peculiar fitness as a legislator, both here and in the nation at large, that it is expected by everyone that he will be re-elected to succeed most of the retiring members of the House.

Of the new men from Western Pennsylvania one will have a more striking figure than Griswold, of Erie, the wealthy manufacturer, quite as prominent as the late Calhoun. Mr. Griswold has been here for a few days making himself familiar with Congress and Washington, and has many friends among the members.

President and Mrs. Harrison have not yet decided all the details of their western journey, but in a few days more their plans will be settled. Mrs. Harrison's time was pretty well taken up during the past week with the daily reception of her friends for the numbers of strangers, as well as for many others brought to see her by friends.

MANDERSON'S COSTLY F

THE SENATOR SPORTS A FINE TRIP

817,000 IN GREENBACK.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Senator Mander son received a present the other day that he should consider a costly one. It is only a paper hat, but it cost more, probably, than any head gear ever before made.

Senator Mander son weighs 20 ounces—rather too much for comfort on a hot summer day. While a cowboy can invest sometimes $30 to $35 in a huge buckram hat, the senator's hat cost $17,000. The average value of the greenbacks and bonds canceled and destroyed in the burning of the Treasury Department, is estimated at $864 per ounce, so that the 20 ounces of greenback pulp in the Senator's hat at one time was worth to Uncle Sam a sum sufficient to buy hats for the whole country.

CIRCUIT COURTS OF APPEAL

The Bill Creating Them Now Ready for the President.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The general court bill, the conference report on which was adopted to-day, is the bill introduced by Senator Evans and passed by the Senate. It provides for the appointment in each circuit of an additional Circuit Judge, and creating in each circuit a Circuit Court of Appeals, to consist of three judges, of whom two shall constitute a quorum.

A SERIOUS SITUATION.

THE DEATH OF SENATOR HEARST AND ITS PROBABLE EFFECT.

It May Force an Extra Session—The Senate in a Quandary Owing to the Adjournment Custom—Force Bill Greeted With Apathy.

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The death of Senator Hearst puts the Senate in even a more serious situation than it was placed in by the death of a few days ago, of Senator Wilson, of Maryland. At that time the Senate could ill spare a single hour of its time, and now, to adjourn for a day, as is the custom, on account of the death of a Senator, would be almost equivalent to forcing an extra session.

When the Senate met this evening it was with the intention of voting on the force bill, but taking a brief recess, meeting again and continuing in session until the small hours of Monday morning. At this writing the Senators who are managing affairs do not know what course to pursue in regard to the death of Senator Hearst.

The death of Hearst and Wilson, both Democrats, means a gain of four votes for the Republicans, a gain, then, by the liberation of the pair which held two Republican seats in the absence of the two Democrats. This situation has revived the rumor that the Republicans will yet, before the close of the session, take up the force bill and force it to a passage.

They now have the votes to do it. Senator Quay is the only Republican absent, and he is expected to return to-day. Mr. Hearst will be succeeded by a Republican, and this will increase the Republican majority from 16 to 18 in the next Senate.

The House Records in Opinion of the Hawaiian Islands Cable Scheme.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Mr. Hitt, of Illinois, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported back to the House the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, with a recommendation that all the Senate amendments be agreed to, with the exception of the amendment providing for the Hawaiian Islands Cable Scheme.

Mr. McCreary, of Kentucky, vigorously opposed the proposition for a cable. The House committee had adopted a proposition to subsidize the cable, and Mr. McCreary was now proposed to subsidize a company constructing a cable under the sea.

The recommendations were concurred in—yeas, 222; nays, 0—the roll being called in order to emphasize the opposition of the House to the Hawaiian cable project.

PUNISHMENT OF SOLDIERS.

The President Issues an Order to the Army on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The President today issued a general order to the army, fixing a maximum limit for the punishment of enlisted men in time of peace for all crimes and offenses within the military and martial law jurisdiction.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The House substitute for the Senate shipping bill was laid before the Senate and read in full, after which Mr. Fry moved for the appointment of a conference committee.

THE COMING BATTLE.

Excitement Over Tuesday's Election Increases in Canada.

THE TORRIES WILL PROBABLY WIN.

Sir John Macdonald May Be Defeated Himself in Kingston.

CANADIAN PACIFIC INTIMIDATION

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

OTTAWA, Feb. 28.—The Conservatives are not sending as much consolation and sympathy to Sir John Macdonald as they should do. They are at first credited themselves with Jones, one of the unopposed candidates who has been returned to sit for Gaspé, has repudiated his connection with the Conservative party, and has telegraphed here that he will support the Liberal side of the House in the coming Parliament.

Two of the French Conservative Ministers will have a hard time next Thursday. Sir Adolphe Caron was moved from Quebec county to Rimouqui, where there is a Liberal majority of over 300, and Sir Hector Langevin is running in Richelieu, which was carried by the Conservatives by only 58 majority last time.

While the people on the Penland were looking at the Iowa, and wondering how she kept afloat with her masts nearly parallel with the surface of the gently pulsating sea, the Iowa's crew were crowded into the lower part of the life boat.

THE OHIO MYSTERY.

No Decision as Yet From the Coroner in the Defiance Case.

STORY OF A SQUARE OF LETTERS.

It Was Made by the Murdered Janitor Shortly Before His Death.

PROFESSOR BUTLER FLEES TO A HOTEL

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.)

DEFIANCE, Feb. 28.—The excitement over the finding of the mutilated body of John H. Moll has not abated. The opinion is that Moll's death cannot be attributed to anything other than the murder in which the names of the Superintendent of the Public Schools and two of the lady teachers are connected. Ten days ago, as heretofore stated in THE DISPATCH, Prof. C. W. Butler, Superintendent of the Public Schools and two lady teachers were suspended at their request by the Board of Education, pending an investigation.

The charges against them were made by Fred Bethge, a highly respected German citizen. He said he had seen Prof. Butler and the ladies in the superintendent's office at various times, and that they had been guilty of gross misconduct. He watched them through a trap-door. Bethge told Janitors Max and Moll of his discovery.

At the hearing they corroborated Bethge's statements. For their defense Prof. Butler and the ladies called on the witness stand. They were not in the superintendent's room or at the school building at the time when Bethge says he witnessed the scene between Prof. Butler and his wife. The board refused to accept the testimony of Bethge and the professor and the teachers, at the same time dismissing both Moll and Max from the employ of the board.

NOT YET CASHIERED.

The Gordon Cumming Scandal Case is Under Military Consideration.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—In the Gordon Cumming case the military aspect of the matter has been much misrepresented. It is not true that Sir William Cumming has been cashiered. What is true is that his case is under consideration. An army regulation requires that officers should immediately resign their personal honor. When the Doncaster business was made public, though the ladies and gentlemen not directly connected with the case, Cumming resigned. He had happened at the house of Arthur Wilson to his Colonel.

When did this occur? asked the Colonel. On Feb. 22, he said. He had been in the town, several months before, he said the delay in informing him was a serious feature of the case. Sir William explained that he had refrained from mentioning the matter to his wife, and that she had imposed upon him an honorable understanding of secrecy, which had been violated by other people, and into this inquiry was being made.

BISMARCK FOR THE REICHSTAG.

His Friends May Elect Him With or Without His Consent.

Berlin, Feb. 28.—Despite Prince Bismarck's refusal to stand as a candidate for the Reichstag for the Nineteenth district of Hanover, Herr Schoof, prominent National Liberal, has introduced a resolution of the Prussian Diet, asks the electors to return Prince Bismarck, declaring that he will not refuse to serve now that there is a prospect of a crisis in Germany's foreign affairs. It is stated that Herr Schoof has proposed to make arrangements for the election of Prince Bismarck.

Continental Artists Favor the Idea, but Britons Can't See It.

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The Daily Graphic has been publishing opinions of such artists as Irving, Coquelin, Salvini and others upon the desirability of establishing in London a British dramatic school, similar to the Foreign Fraternite in Paris.

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—All of the clerks, stenographers and messengers employed by the World's Columbian Exposition will be discharged Monday. The Commission has entered upon an era of retrenchment. Members of the Board of Control decided to surrender all of their rooms in the Rand McNally building except three, and to merely maintain the Commissioners' organization until Congress comes to their assistance.
