CHARGES OF DECEIT.

An Oil Operator Says a Bogus Offer Was Made for a Piece of Land

TO INCREASE THE CRICE ON HIM.

The Case Being Heard Before Judge Slagle in Common Pleas Court.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE JUSTICE MILL

The suit of J. M. Guffey against A. P. Clever and Charles Scarborough is on trial before Judge Slagle. The case is an action in deceit growing out of an oil lease. Guffey, it was alleged, purchased an oil and gas lease to some land owned by Clever. It had been agreed by the first holder of the lease that if the land was productive he would lease the balance of Clever's land at the

When Guffey obtained the lease he wrote to Clever and informed him that he would comply with the terms made with the first holder. The and was productive and when Guffey went to have the balance $20,000 was demanded for it. Under the terms of the agreement he was com-pelled to pay that amount. He did so, but now to recover, claiming that a deception was

FOR PARTNERSHIP MONEY.

6. W. Wurzell Sues C. F. McKenna for $11,000. G. W. Wurzell, Esq., yesterday filed a bill in equity against C. F. McKenna, Esq. Mr. Wur-kell stated that he commenced the practice of law in 1883. In 1887, by a parol agreement he and Mr. McKenna went sate partnership. Kenna's interest was three-fourths and Wurzell's one-fourth and the fees and earnings were to be divided in that ratio. The partnership conthused from March 1, 1887, until September, 1880, when it was dissolved by the withdrawal of Wurzell. He claimed that the earnings in that time amounted to over $63,000. Of this amount McKenna collected and retained about

He relused to make any settlement or accounting of the business. It is claimed that there is over $11,000 coming to Wurzell and he asks the Court to appoint a master to take an accounting of the business, and to order Mc-Kenna to pay to the plaintiff what is due him.

BILLS TWICE RETURNED.

One of the Grand Jurors Did Not Take the Oath Monday.

When the roll was called in the Criminal Court vesterday Patrick O'Donnell, of the Second ward, Allegheny, answered as a grand juror. Clerk Long at once noticed that O'Donnell had not been sworn in the day previous. He was called up for that purpose, when it was discovered that, though he had not been sworn, he had been present and had acted on the bills before the grand jury. At this Judge W hite ordered the bills acted upon on Monday to be returned to the grand jury for reconsid-He next informed Mr. O'Donnell that he was discharged from further service as a juror, and instructed the clerk to give him a certificate for two days' pay. Monday's bills were returned to the grand jury and reconsidered, and again presented to court with the same findings.

AGAINST MR. FLINN'S BILL.

Rivermen Will Fight His Wharf Measure

Tooth and Nail. A meeting of Duquesne way foundrymen and river operators was held at the office of the Advance Coal Company yesterday to protest against Senator Flinn's wharf bill. A committee consisting of Captain Addison Lysle, Com-modore Koontg and Thomas Rees was appointed to go to Harrisburg to fight the bill when it comes up.

Mr. Rees said if the bill was passed it would ruin the Allegheny wharf for steamboat purposes. It is new almost useless for landing, as it is encumbered with lumber and dirt deposited by the city. Mrs. Brennan Found.

Mrs. Brennan Found.

Mrs. Hannah Brennan, the old lady who disappeared from her home at 805 Manor street, Southside, some time ago, was found at the Allegheny General Hospital, where she had been taken for an injury received in some way for which she could not account. Mrs. Brennan was removed to the home of the Little Sisters of the Poor, where she will be cared for. Her relatives of course feel much relieved.

Derrick is a widower, and is said to have been quite wealthy in his time. His wife died sever-al years ago. He was at that time a Liberty street commission merchant, and is said to have been worth $40.000 in ready cash, which he squandered in less than two years through wild speculations. He left the farm on July 14 last, and has been working in the streets break-ing stones. Recently he was injured and has been unable to work. His case will be investi-gated again before he is admitted to the farm.

In the final account confirmed yesterday the assignee charges himself with the balance of the assets in his hands, amounting to $3,674 79, which was mostly received as balances due on old notes, etc. He claims credit for costs, fees and various expenses, amounting to $727 97, leaving a balance of cash in his hands for distribution of $2,846 82.

WINTERING IN ARKANSAS.

The Crowd at the Hot Springs Is Over 50,-000 and Increasing.

S. B. Thompson, Central Passenger Agent of the Missouri Pacific road, states that winter tourists and sick people are crowding into the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and that fully 50,000 outsiders are at the resort now. He expects the number will reach 75,000 during the height of the season this month. Several new and large hotels have been built in recent years to achotels have been built in recent years to accommodate the crowds.

The only road which runs into the springs is the Iron Mountain line, a part of the Missouri Pacific system, and it is a bonanza. The

From Knee to Foot a Mass of Running Scree Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

Total Cost $1 75.

I have been afflicted with a sore limb, which the doctors called ezzema. My timb from the knee to the foot was one mass of running sores. The doctors bandaged it every day for a week, and every time the handage was removed a large scab would come off, and the blood pour down, l got one bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one box CUTICURA, and one cake CUTICURA SOAP, and they cured me. I told a lady who was similarly afflicted to use it, and it cured her also. I gratefully acknowlege that it was CUTICURA that cured me.
