He is Not Alarmed Over the Effect of the McKinley Act

ON BELGIUM'S GENERAL TRADE,

Figures Quoted by Him in Pavor of His Own Little Country,

THAT ARE PLATTERING TO HIS HOPES

THE DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANT.1 BRUSSELS, Warch 4 .- A Dunlap reporter has had several interviews during the past few days with Belgian politicians and business men regarding the effect of the McKinley tariff act upon Belgian trade and manu facturers. M. Sabatier, Laberal Deputy for Charleroi, and an important manufacturer in that district, is a strenuous advocate of free-rade. He says:

'I am told that the United States are paying off their debt. That is perfectly true; but they are impoverishing themselves at the same time. Their coffers are replete with cash, but that does not mean that they are rich. Wealth does not consist of having a pocket full of money, but in money which is making money. England, France and Belgium have debts, but they are rich and their wealth is mexhaustible. The customs revenues of the United States are enormous they may suffice to pay off the country's debts, but they are not productive.

Not Afraid of Huns. "Belgian workingmen, who have been in the States, say they can live better in their own country on a fourth of the wages they received in the States, where the necessaries of life are made so dear. The United States sends us the raw material, cotton for example; we send it back to them as manufactured goods, and they impose a tax on these articles which have been made from their own

"In my opinion the McKinley bill will not do us much harm. The sole danger lies in the faculty which it gives to the President of the United States to augment certain taxes by way of reprisals. It constitutes a standing menace to foreign trade and a lasting temptation to the American manufacturers designs a manufacturers designs and a memorial temptation." temptation to the American manufacturers desirous of augmenting their profits. The United States revenue from customs is increasing annually to an enormous extent. It amounted last year to 1,000,000,000 francs. It smows that the importation of goods into the United States is increasing. The new tariff will not prevent the entry of European manufactures. It will only render them more expensive for the American buyer. The following table will illustrate my argument:

Figures on Exports and Imports. "The value of our exports to the United States was in 1878 9,307,000 francs; 1879, 19,600,000 francs; 1880, 35,240,000 francs; 1881, 42,632,000 francs; 1882, 44,677,000 francs; 1885, 33,42,000 francs; 1884, 33,560,000 francs; 1885, 33,181,000 francs; 1886, 40,047,000 francs; 1887, 42,301,000 francs; 1888, 32,290,000 francs; 1887, 42,301,000 francs; 1888, 32,420,000 francs; 1888, 32,420,000 francs; 1888, 43,442,000 francs; 1888, 42,633,442,000 francs; 1888, 42,633,442,000 francs; 1888, 42,633,400 francs; 1888, 42,633,442,000 francs; 1888, 42,634,400 francs; 1888,400 francs; 1888,400 francs; 1888,400 francs; 1888,400 francs; 1888,400 francs; 1888,400 francs; 1888,4 glass was valued at 40 francs per 100 kilogrammes, and is now worth 20 france. At the old rates our exportations to the States would be much larger. Here you have in the order of their importance the principal goods exported by Belgium to the States in 1885: Glassware,

Afraid of the President's Power. "Relgium's largest customers are, in the order of their importance, France, England, Germany, the Netherlands, the United States, Switzerland. But though not afraid of Mr. McKinley's tariff act, we are not going to shut Mckinley's tariff act, we are not going to shut our eyes to the consequences of that measure. The Americans are not overserupulous in dealing with their commercial rivals; and I confess to some measuress in regard to the great powers which the act gives to the President of the United States.

"In 1888 America's imports were valued at $.370.555,000 frames, and her exports, consisting chiefly of raw material, amounted to 4.225,000,000 frames. Now let us see what is taking place in Belgium. During the protectionist regime, which lasted from 1880 to 1850, our exports amounted to 167,000,000 frames; from 1880 to 1899, under free trade, they were 1,282,000,000 frames.

in the protectionist period above referred to the value of merchandise produced and ex-ported was estimated at 48 francs per head of the population. In the free trade period of 1880-88 it was estimated at 227 francs per head

SKIPPED FROM VIENNA.

The Young Duc D'Orleans Distinguishe Himself in Austria's Capital.

IBY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.) VIENNA, March 4.-The enterprise of certain Sournals has caused the precipitate flight from this city of the Duc D'Orleans, who was late in St. Petersburg. The Prince arrived here last week, accompanied by Mme, Melba, the wellknown prima donna of the Paris Grand Opera. and his friend, the Duc de Luynes. The party took rooms at the Hotel Sacher, where Mme. Meloa was registered as Mme. Armstrong, of Landon, that being her husband's name. The Duke veiled his identity under a different title. During the first two days the Prince and his companion indulged in long promonades in the Ruingstrasse and Prater, but at the end of the week occupied a private box at the opera. This indiscretion proved fatal, as Mme. Melba, from being attired in a rose-colored gown and wearing many diamonds, also aroused the curiosity of the audience, and also aroused the curiosity of the audience, and during the second act every glass in the house was turned on her.

It was not before the Prince was recognized by a nobleman in the audience, and Mme. Melba was also identified. In a few minutes the news had circulated among the boxes, and the Prince, realizing that he was discovered, beat a hurried retreat. The following day the Wiener Tagolial announced the distinguished arrivals, and in its pext issue was able to insert their names again under the head of departures, as the Prince and the Duke de Luynes hastily took the express for Brussels, while hime. Melba left for Paris,

CHARGED WITH BLACKMAIL

Serious Allegations Brought by a Former Monte Carlo Proprietor. THY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.

Paris, March 4 .- M. Edmond Blanc, a well known sportsman, who was formerly proprietor of the gaming tables at Monte Carlo, has just taken steps which have aroused a great deal of interest on the part of the public and no little trepication in journalistic circles. He has brought before the Association of Republican Journalists a charge of blackmail against M.

Journalists a charge of blackmail against M. Camille Dreytos, the Radical Deputy of Paris, and the managing editor of the newspaper which is known as La Nation.

Mous. Blanc has published documents which go to prove these blackmailing attempts. Because he refused to give him an interview, the editor of La Nation proceeded to publish articles inveighing against the grambling saloons at Monte Carlo, and a sailing the character of Muns, Blanc, as well as of the members of his family. This is not the first time sunitar charges have been made against Mons. Dreyfus, who was formerly the secretary to Mr. Wilson, Grevey's son-in-law.

A Fresh Story Involving the Name of a Prominent American Singer. TRY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY. 1

LONDON, March 4 .- Some excitement was caused here by the publication by a weekly journal called Modern Society of a story con-necting the talented American singer, Miss them. Sibyl Sanderson, with the death of Prince Badouin, of Belgium. It was stated that the heir to the Belgian throne was calling upon Miss Sanderson one evening after the opera in $1 25, $1 50 to $2; best assortment even Brussels, when Prince de Ligney, now 37, whose chateau is near Mons, unexpectedly entered the chavan is near Mons, unexpectedly entered the room. PARNELL'S LATEST MOVE A Big Meeting of Irish Nationalists to Head Off the McCarthyltes.

LONDON, March 4.—The approaching important Parnell meeting here, to be composed of delegates representing the Nationalist party, is another instance of that leader's enterprise. The arrangements for the gathering, which is to be strictly private, have been kept a profound secret. It is intended that it shall prove a rallying movement around Parnell and has been organized to steal a march on the McCarthyites, whose inactivity is beginning to excite remark even among their own friends.

The delegates will meet in Foresters' Hall, a large building, and will comprise representatives from all the Nationalist lodges in the metropolis, the object being to cement the Parnell influence in the Irish colony here. In his address, Parnell will advocate an attack all along the line, both against the Gladstonians and the McCarthyites. IBY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.

SEVERAL EXPECTED WILDWOOD WELLS ARE NOT VET IN.

Jack Frost Delays Operations-A Disco ing Report From Harmony-Nothing New at McCurdy-Some Experimental Wells-A Paucity of News Yesterday.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. HARMONY, March 4 .- The decline of developments on the town lots at Harmony is very marked. It is questionable whether this place will ever see the lively times which gave it notoriety and promise a few short days ago. The Sutton & Co. well, on the M. Zeigler farm, has had the effect of stimulating a little new work, but it will require several wells of like caliber to restore lost confidence in this territory. When the day of settlement comes and the books are posted, it will be found that the account in the aggregate will stand two to one in favor of the

An important well is now drilling on the Enders farm, southeast of Harmony, which is owned by Barnum, Fredrick & Co. This com-pany were led to drill this well in the hope of finding a connection between Harmony and the Muller farm developments, south of Zelienople. The well is on top of the sand to-night, but at this writing it is not far enough in to tell much about it.

this writing it is not far enough in to tell much about it.

By to-morrow, if nothing occurs to retard present progress. Becheley & Co. will tap the sand on the A. Zeigler farm. From present indications, Laishaw & Co., who dropped the tools some time ago in their well on the Gruntz farm, have plugged the hole. On the Franker farm, McKinney & Co. are down 650 feet with their No. 2, and Captain Marsh is nearing the interesting spot on the Muller farm. A new rig is being started on the C. Vogle farm south of the Muller, by Levines & Co.

On the Stembach farm, east of the Muller farm, unknown persons are drilling a well, while No. 2 Niece, on the Zeigler, is a small pumper, and not good for more than three barrels a day. The Markham well, on the Meisle lot, is doing ten barrels a day: the Sutton & Co. well, on the M. Zeigler, is good for ten barrels a day.

Jack Frost Retards Operations.

WILDWOOD—Wildwood, for a wonder, has remained passive for another 24 hours. This has been the case for several days, and in a great measure may be attributed to Jack Frost, whose child demeanor has greatly retarded when he had other prisoners under arrest. great measure may be attributed to Jack Frest, whose chilly demeanor has greatly retarded the progress of work.

Finegan & Downing's No. 2 Wallace tapped the pay to-day and made one small flow. What this venture will amount to, when drilled in cannot now be predicted with certainty but this venture will amount to, when drilled in, cannot now be predicted with certainty, but from the showing it is safe to call it a well.

Barnsdail & Giliespie were unfortunate in dropping 200 feet of small casing in their No. 14 Kress. It will be some time before the hole is cleared. Phillip Dunn & Co. alsol are fishing for two sets of tools in their No. 5, Smith.

This morning McDevitt & Co. shot their No. 1 Guyton. On the Scott farm Gibson & Giles are putting up their No. 3 rig, and Graffith & Co. have tubed their No. 4 Ringheisen.

Four miles west of Wildwood, at Nedskey station, Roisehouse & Co. are down 1,450 feet with their experimental well. The Statey & McDonald well, at Eberhart station, is doing about 20 barrels a day from the fourth sand. This well has been sold to Park Bros., but the consideration was not given for publication. Griffith & Co.'s No. 8 Ringheisen is shut down preparatory to bringing the well in to-morrow.

The Duva & Beers Oil Company's well on the August Kyle farm is near enough the sand to get the golden fluid by Thursday night. This well is in line with the Alston gusher. People's farm, and No. 5 Ringheisen well. Secretary Eeers writes that the prospects are for a good well.

No Change at McCurdy.

No Change at McCurdy.

McCurdy—McCurdy, like the other fields, presents no material change. The old McCurdy No. 1 for the past 24 hours shows a gauge of 280 barrels, and No. 2, same farm, is drilling in the Gordon sand, with 1,200 feet of 30-foot oil in the hole, and No. 3 is in the 100-foot, with a strong flow of gas.

They are fishing for the tools in No. 4 while No. 1 Lloyd is drilling in the 30-foot. Alken & Co., on the Parsonage lot, are still fishing for the tools, and the well is making but little oil. They are building a No. 2 rig.

the tools, and the well is making but little oil. They are building a No. 2 rg.
To-day's gauges indicate that Palmer No. 1 is doing 400 barrels a day; No. 2 Palmer, 550 barrels a day, and Murphy & Gailey's Church lot well, 20 barrels an hour.
It is reported that Staley & Pratt have sold a half interest in a 12-acre lease, on the Riddle farm, to Hackett & Shuly for $14,000. On this property there is one well drilling and another rig up.

Spring--Theoretically! Spring Bargains -- Practically! THIS TELLS THE STORY OF THINGS AT

However "off" the weather may be, March is spring for merchandise. That's what the manager of the overcoat department thought when he pointed out to the writer a line of about 500 Men's Fine Spring Overcoats, which had just been received. "Mark them at $10," the manager said, "and I'll guarantee the last one will be sold

before Saturday night."

Nothing in it for the house at this rate but lively times. Well, that's worth something. But to return to these Overcoats: They consist of medium and light weights, with full, seamless backs, English sacks or Prince Charles style, cut short and medium long, some with the very latest ideas of fancy stitching and pockets, in tan, gray, brown, black, mixed and other fashionable shades and patterns. They are just such Spring Overcoats as any fashionable man will take pride in wearing. $15 wouldn't be too much for them. We give you choice of the entire line for only $10.

HERE COMES A RATTLING GOOD THING IN MEN'S SUITS:

We have just taken off our regular $9, $10 and $11 counters about 350 Men's Suits, and will close them to-day, to-morrow and Saturday

FOR JUST $6

Nothing trashy about these Suits. They're made of dependable

Cassimeres and Cheviots, in neat mixtures and other stylish patterns, and are cut in Sack and Frock styles. No man who wants a really good Spring Suit for little money should miss this rare
