Bold Safe Crackers Attempt to Blow Up a Village Postoffice.

THEY COULD NOT OPEN THE SAFE.

Another Small Coke Operator Makes Terms With the Strikers.

GAS METERS THAT RUN WITH NO GAS

"SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH. CALIFORNIA, PA., March 5.-It has just become known that a desperate attempt was made to blow up and rob the postoffice here a few nights ago. The burglars secured entrance and attempted to blow open the sale. This tailed and they deliberately turned on the artificial and natural gas, with the evident intention of blowing up the building.

When Postmaster Shallenberger reached the office it was filled with gunpowder and gas. The thieves had escaped with some $15 in stamps and money. The safe was so badly sprung that it required several hours to get it open. The matter was kept quiet in the hope of getting some clew, but so far the search has been fruitiess.

TAKING OTHER STRIKERS' PLACES.

Miners From the Coke Region Seeking Employment at Irwin. PUTCUAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH.

SCOTIDALE, March 5.-The United Mine Workers have decided to call mass meetings at all the towns in the coke regions, in order to enlist their sympathies in their strike against a 10 per cent reduction. The first of these sectings has been called for Connellsville tomorrow evening, when prominent labor leaders will make addresses. A large number of solicitors left the coke regions to-day for Clear-field, W. Va., and other fields, in order to se-cure financial aid for the strikers. A number of miners are still on strike in the twin region, and it is said that some coke rehey considering the strike there virtually lost, I not altandoned. Rainey's works are operating almost full time. One man who went to rock at Stonerville yesterday was escorted one in the evening by the strikers' brass and Operator John L. Dillinger, of the Pennsylvania Coke Works, held a conference with the wage committee of the strikers. He made a to the committee to resume at the This was accepted, after the miners had insisted on an amendment to the offect that the wagons of coal be filled level full at the face in the rooms, instead of level full on the tipple, and that none but union men be bired. This was agreed to by Mr. Dillinger, and his plant will be resumed in the morning.

A JOHNSTOWN SENSATION.

The Prosecutor in Oleomargarine Cases Arrested for Embezzlement.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. JOHNSTOWN, March 5-A number of proseentions for violation of the eleomatgarine law will likely go by default in this and neighboring towns, owing to the fact that the prosecuto was ro-day sentenced to one year and three months in the penitentiary by Judge Barker. The presecutions were brought by W. F. Cook, who represented himself as the agent of the Auth-Oleomargarine Society of Pennsylvania, and a number of respectable merchants were brought before the Squire and gave bail for court.

A number of them paid fines amounting to $100 in each case, and it has now developed that the money went into the pockets of Cook and his attorneys. He was mide a Justice of the Peace here, and afterward went to Pittsburg, where he made quite a stake by the same methods. He returned here and entered several suits, but in the meantine was arrested for embezzling a sum of money from a widow, and today his sentence was given.

THREE TRAIN WRECKERS ARRESTED.

'EQUIRE SCOTT'S SUDDEN DEATH. It Transpires That He Fell From His Hor

in a Fit of Apoplexy. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BEALLSVILLE, PA., March 5.-At 1 o'clock this afternoon the funeral of 'Squire Scott oc-curred here. The facts of the untimely end of the 'Squire, as brought out to-day, are as follows: About I o'clock Mrs. E. O. Yorty was standing at her door, when she saw the 'Squire's horse rushed by riderless. The squire's norse rushed by riderless. The animal was a fiery beast, and the people had been expocting to see Mr. Scott thrown every day. The lady ran up the road, and found Mr. Scott lying dead in the middle of the track. It was at first thought his horse had thrown him, but physicians are of the opinion that he suffered a stroke of apoplexy and fell. It is certain he was not feeling well, as he had been leading his horse toward town. Mr. Scott was 75 years of age.

A NEW COKE FIELD POSSIBLE.

Unknown Persons Securing Land in Indians County.

INDIANA, PA., March 5.—About ten days ago wo men, claiming to be from Westmoreland county, were along Twolick creek leasing coal lands. They secured about 50 acres above the lands. They seedred about 50 acres above the town of Upper Twolick, on either side of the creek. The price paid was $100 per acre. This tract is the key to all the available coal lands in that part of the county. The voin is six feet, and the parties leaving say they intend to sell the land, but to whom they will not state. It is reported New Castle parties intend opening a new coke field in that district. They have been here looking around, but will say nothing in regard to their plans, except that they will return in a few days.
