UNDER A LOCAL PROHIBITORY LAW

An Attempt Being Made to Have Licensed Saloens Permitted.

ATTITUDE OF THE LEADING CITIZENS

APOLLO, PA., March 6.-The article in last Sunday's issue of THE DISPATCH regarding the fight now on between the two factions in this place and Leechburg on the temperance question, caused so much com-ment here that the leaders of those who prefer that the two boroughs should remain free from saloons decided to secure the services of some person entirely neutral to give a plain statement of the conditions of affairs there at present.

For that reason I came to Apollo and have talked to men prominent on both sides of the question. The peculiar part of the whole matter is the absence of what are sometimes termed "cranks" on the temperance question. Very lew were found who considered it wrong to take a drink, if a man would stop at that; but the great majority of men can't do that. For this reason the majority of the public-spirited people in Apollo and Leechburg are on the side of temperance, and declare that the licensing of saloons would work great harm to the boroughs in many ways. They argue that Apollo is at present enjoying a siege of prosperity that promises to continue. But they say that Fortune is at best a fickle goddess, and it is not well to try too many experiments with her for fear she may withdraw her patron-age, leaving the field to that hard worker,

Temperance People Hard at Work.

Thus, no sooner had the persons interested in having a couple of licensed saloons started to work, than the other side was on the alert, and they have been keeping a close watch on the movements of the liquor faction, as well as to put forth every effort to counteract the effect of the more or less logi-cal argument advanced.

Upon arriving in Apollo, I stopped at the Hotel Chambers, which, by the way, is alleged to be the bone of contention, the temperance people claiming that it is not a paying institution because it has no bar attachment. Mr. Chambers, the manager, is a genial gentle-man, but he is decidedly unpopular with many of his townsmen, because he heads the list of petitioners for a repeal of the temperance law. He is accused of working entirely for his pecuniary interests, and during a conversation with the writer he was told of what was being said, to which he replied:

"For my part I will not run a saloon, as it is against my principles. I am working for my own personal interests in this matter, and suppose that other members of the hotel company are doing the same. We built this house at an immense outlay of money, and it is not doing the business it should. If a license could be secured for the house we could rent or sell it to a good

They Want Matters Evened Up. Mr. Chambers turther insisted that he believed it would be a good thing for the place if it had a licensed saloon, as there would not be so much drinking. At pres-ent several messengers go to and from Pitts-burg to supply residents of Apollowith their various wants, and the main one seems to be quarts of beer and whisky. In their petition for the repeal of the law they al-lege that it is unfair, inasmuch as it does not give Apollo citizens, who want to engage in the sale of liquor, the same chance it does those of Kittanning, "It is un'air," said Mr. Chambers, "and if two wrongs don't make a right, it at least evens things up."

Enough Drunkenness at Present. Mr. Nelson said he didn't think the drunkenness could be any worse than it is now, and wouldn't say whether or not it might be bettered by opening up a saloon as much as might suit his fancy. Dr. William McBryar, Sr., and T. A. Cochran, the druggist, are also stockholders in the hotel on Saturday, the 29th ult., the most satisfactory and largest in the history of this firm. This is due to the increased demand for fine bats, the fact that Dunlap's is the stockholder, was not to be found but the stockholder, was not to be found but the stockholder, was not to be found but the stockholder. said that he is decidedly in favor of the reense system for the two boroughs.

Without its mills Apollo would hard-have an exense for its existthe case of one of those mills, that of the Apollo Iron and Steel Company, the proprietors have been encouraged to make large extensions during the past five years, mainly on account of the temperate character of the town and nigh class of workmen to be obtained in the vicinity. The company wants sober sinstrious men, and recognize the fact that the removal of direct temptation carries with it three-fourths of the dangers from Workingson Can Save Money, It works for the best interests of the men as well, as they can save money if they do not spend at for drink, and can buy their own homes. At present it is impossible to rent a house in the borough, and almost impossible to buy one, because about every man owns his own home and is reluctant to The works of the company are marvels of neatness and accidents rarely happen. Since its starting, over five years ago, no one has been killed, and the most serious mishap was that of a man who had his hand crushed in the rolls. The breakings of machinery have been reduced to a minimum, and on the whole the members of the company be-lieve that they have without drunkenness what they would not have with men who are in the habit of imbibing too freely. Mr. S. S. Jack, chief clerk of the company, was asked if the company was not too exacting with their employes in regard to drinking, to which he replied: "In employing men our superintendents sever ask impertment questions, as to what they eat or drink. If temperate and com-petent we want them, otherwise we do not." "What is your opinion of the working of your present local option law?"

No Discharge for Drunkenness. "I can answer this concisely by stating that we have not discharged a skilled working the past three years, and yet we have quite a number who acknowledge that they man on account of being intemperate durormerly drank too much for their own good. This they attribute to saloons und the treat-Have you any difficulty in securing such men as meet your requirements?"

"None whatever. In fact, we have constant applications for positions by expert workmen from all parts, as our own men enjoy the reputation not only of being skillful, but thrifty and companionable, both on and off duty. Several of them are worth from $10,000 to $15,000, and their families are for above the average in retinement and intelligence. Under the circumstances we should let well enough alone." "What are the prospects for the repeal of your present local option law?" "I do not think it will be repealed. License would be a great misfortune to the town, and particularly to many who have been induced to ask for a change of existing

Every Man Owns a House,

In this connection a statement made by In this connection a statement made by Dr. William McBryat, Jr., would not come amiss. "Every day," said he, "people ask me where they can rent a house. Dozens of people ask for only a couple of rooms, some place to live for a little while until something better can be secured. There is not a vacant house in the place and some are crowded. Nearly every married man owns a house and the young fellows are buying lots, getting ready to be married."

I heard the name of one young man, who

I heard the name of one young man, who is now 20 years old, who owns a house and lot which he has paid for from his earnings in the mill during the past four years

If the millmen are prosperous, so will the town be, but if these men spend their money in saloons the town will not amount to anything, as they compose the backbone of the borough. There was virtually no town here before they came, and they have made it what it is. J. C. Hammitt, one of the Apollo Iron and Steel Mill employes, is one of the leaders among the millmen on this question. He declared that while at present the majority of the men own their own homes, if the law was changed the same state of affairs would not exist very long, as the inclination of too many is to take a drink at every opportunity.

Calls Himself an Occular Demonstration G. W. Burgett terms himself au occular demonstration of the evils of having saloons around. He said: "Up to four years ago I drank up everything I made, and I was making good wages, too. For nearly 20 years I never saved a cent. Now I have been working in this mill for four years without once having been drunk, and in that time I have secured a nice home, which is now almost paid for, I am a better man physically than for years and can say that I feel much better. I have been trying to teach my old friends some of my ideas, but they will not all listen to me. I have been through the mill, though, and know all about it." He is one of those whole-souled fellows who make friends with everybody, and even before he reformed his friends were to be numbered among the best people.

There are dozens of just such cases through the Apollo mills, and their only fear is that, with open saloons yawning before them, they may be unable to withstand the temptation to go in and take a glass-which will lead on to others, and it is liable to end disastrously. It is to prevent just such an outcome that the temperance people are work-

A Bell Boy Who Said He Was Kidnaped Claimed by a Woman.

CHICAGO, March 6 -The story told by Harry J. Ferguson, a bell boy in a hotel in this city recently, to the effect that he had been kidnaped from his home in New York State when 5 years of age, and that he had fallen beir to $80,000, has led to unexpected developments. A widow living in a tashionable quarter of the city claims the boy as

She says she was divorced from August J. Ferguson, the lad's father, in New York, and moved to Chicago, where she married a man named Norton, since deceased. She picked Harry out of a group of boys as her son, and in further proof of his identity and ber knowledge of it, described certain marks upon his body. She also related to the lad a number of incidents in his childhood which he did not remember till she called them to his mind. The police are investigating the matter, and have written to Lawyer Ferguson for further particulars

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Spring Humors, whether itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, pimply, or blotchy, whether of the skin, scalp, or blood, whether simple, scrofulous, or hereditary, are now speedily, permanently, and economically cured by the Cuticura Remedies when the best physicians and all other remedies fail. The almost miraculous cures daily effected by them prove this. No statement is made regarding them not warranted by the strongest evidence. They are, in truth, the greatest skin cures, blood purifiers, and humor remedies of modern times. They are absolutely pure, and agreeable to the most sensitive, and may be used on the youngest infant and most delicate invalid with gratifying and unfailing success. CUTICURA, the great skin cure, instantly allays the most intense itching, burning, and inflammation, permits rest and sleep, soothes and heals raw and irritated surfaces, clears the skin and scalp of crusts and scales, and restores the hair. CUTICURA SOAP, the only medicated toilet soap, is indispensable in cleansing diseased surfaces. CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood and skin purifier, and greatest of humor remedies, cleanses the blood of all impurities, and thus removes the cause. Hence, the Cuticura Remedies cure every humor of the Spring, from the simplest facial blemishes to the worst case of scrofula. Sale greater than the combined sales of all others.

OH MY HEAD, MY HEAD.

CATARRHAL TREATMENT.

Mr. Ehrhart, a plasterer by occupation, makes the following statement concerning his recent suffering and the prompt relief given him by Dr. Byers:

"My trouble came on about one year ago," says Mr. Ehrhart, "with neuralgic pain over the eyes. My nostrils would clog up, first on one side and then the other, and during the night there was a continual dropping of mucus into my throat, causing me to hawk and spit constantly with annoying roaring in the ears. After awhite my stomach became affected. I had a bad taste in my mouth in the mornings, my appetite left me, and what little I ate caused a bloated up feeling and general distress. I often got such dizzy spells I would stagger, and, although I slept pretty weil, I would get up in the morning more tired than when I went to bed.

Mr. T. J. Ehrhart, No. 9 Garland Alley, City. "Two weeks before consulting Dr. Byers all "Two weeks before consulting Dr. Byers all these symptoms became aggravated by a cold, and the day I called at his office I suffered such agonizing pain I had to hold my head in my hands and groan. After a careful examination the doctor told me the pain was caused by a catarrhal inflammation of the masal mucus membrane. He gave me a treatment at once and some medicine to take home. The pain was considerably relieved at once, and when I awoke in the morning, was gone entirely. I had but one return since and that in a modified form, which the doctor relieved as quickly as before, and under his careful treatment all the other symptoms have disappeared, and I am gaining in strength and flesh daily."

TREATMENT $5 A MONTH, MEDICINE IN-TREATMENT $5 A MONTH, MEDICINE IN-CLUDED.
