

stead of having nothing to do with the case, bave considerable to do with it, if the case is a new spring bonnet. On it they will bloom is great profusion, great magnificence and great naturalness. A large Liberty street wholesale house had their suring opening last week and took orders from retail dealers for a sufficient number of roses, daffodils, morning glories, sunflowers, dzisies, tulips, Easter lilies and chrysanthemums to stock a national conservatory of immense proportious. Russell to the contrary, they appear in the colors bestowed upon he kind, if exceedingly inartistic, Mother Nature and the roses are imitated to the most minute point-that of the thorn which pricks with surprising realism if you give it an

The flowers mentioned which are the larger once are to adorp huts of corresponding size and small sprays or buds of less pretentious flowers-"small untertais" the dealers call them-will deck the close-fitting bounets, and maller hats. . . .

Natural Gas and Millinery.

Everything is to be light and airy, regardless of the fact that this is no longer an exclusively gas city; but the knowing ones say it is the last doubtless, the atmosphere will not be taken into consideration when purchasing headwear. The jayous days of delicate tints are over while the somber colors adopted by the quakeress and ann will prevai in the city ere another spring. However, it isn't wise to borrow trouble even prevail spring. II, werer, it isn't wise to horrow trouble even changed it is the easiest thing in the world to horrow, and until and experience forbids light chanke, beize, tan and ecu will reign as crowns for the queens of oreation. Heliotrope, too, will retain its grasp upon the feminine heart and will be largely worn. Gold cord will give a inge of dash if any is needed after arranging a souquet on a hat and black and combination nee-will be largely used for ladies past the iewday of youth.

uin. themselves, are light weight, the uppest until med hardly weighing two ounces. The crawns are mestly wired and to be covered with soft, fluffy materials or en:wined with howers. A new Swiss braid that comes in lengths and can be worse or sewed into any regins and can be woven or sewed into any hape gives scote for originality in design, but be wide flat brim is to be strictly the thing. It is a contous fact that millinery openings we getting earlier each spring, and a triffe later in the fail. What a giorinos day it will be for long suffering, patient, enduring man when they run together and one bill will answer all purposed. Let him console himself by reflect-ing on such a possibility when he receives an epistic in the near future with a milliner's spring the provided the second second second second epistic in the near future with a milliner's Mrs. William Scott, Ridge avenue, Allegheny, gave a very successful reception on the afternoon of February 28, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock. The beautiful parlors and re-ception rooms ware crowded with elegantly dressed ladies, representing Pittsburg's most exclusive society. The hostess, Mrs. Scott, wore a velve: gown trimmed with old point lace, diamond ornaments being worn. Among the guests were noticed several beautifulgowns made by the celebrated Worth, of Paris, Among those present were: Mrs. Scott Walker, Mrs. J. T. Horner, Mrs. S. A. Cummings, Mrs. Reed Jones, Mrs. William Horner, Mrs. Arthe Speer, Mrs. Moorhead, Mrs. Nellis Hendarson Bailey, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Hoover, of Wash-ington, Pa., Mrs. Judge Ackly and daughter and Mrs. Senator sproul, of Chicago. 2 and 4 o'clock. The beautiful parlors and ren the envelope.

summers are not alone with their early open-ings, 1 judge from the Beau Brummell imita-tor I see coming up the street attired in a natty dark blue suit of new cut, with gloves, stick, galters and hat of tan. He looks like a New Yorker. . . .

Fawn Parties Now the Style.

From time immemorial the sterner sex has prided itself upon its "Stag parties" at which the gentle sex has been present only in imagi-Ladies have had their exclusive parties also at which not a masculine, except in apron and cap, could gain admittance, but until recently they have never given them any distinccentry they have never given them any distinc-tive name. It remained for the bright young misses of Si. Zavier's Academy to discover an appropriate name for such parties. After nutting their pretty beads together and in-night the pretty beads together and in-night the pretty beads together and in-night the pretty fun shared programmed such the pretty fun shared programmed. All the preity fan shaped programmes

Fillie Daub, Annie Metzgar, Anna Keating, Myra Null, Maggie Elder, and James S. Jilea, John H. Elder, Edward Daub, D. M. Reynolds, Will Gill, Edward Morgan, William Jiles, Henry Daub, James Jiles, Sr.

f numerous gifts.

So'clock. Following is the programme: Music by Mrs. Belle Hughes, Prof. A. C. Fogo, Mr. Fred W. Robertshaw, Mr. Charles C. Griffin and the Schmertz Orchestra, and literary exer-cises by the Rev. J. F. Regis Canevin, Mr. Will-iam J. Medullen, Prof. A. C. Hughes and Mr. James A. Burns, The Panthopean Society gave a "smoker" and card party to its members and their friends. Thursday evening, at their club rooms, No, 110 Federal street Allegheny, About 40 gentle

Federal street, Allegheny, About 40 gentle men were present, and enjoyed themselves thoroughly. The head prizes were won by Messre, J. T. Garrison and R. M. Trimble. The society has secured ground on Fremont street, and will prepare tennis courts for the use of its members during the summer, and is in a most flourishing condition generally. Much credit is due the officers-Messre. Samson, Kimmel, Scodgrass, Keen, Cowan and Willock for their efficient services. Among those present were: George C. Arnold, Harry H. Willock, Martin N. Ballard, H. A. Hesse, J. T. Garrison, R. A. Rowland, J. A. Dodds, J. E. Fulton, R. M. Trimble, R. B. Ferres, M. D., T. Lee Trimble, Will G. Griffith, Jr., W. R. Hirst, Harry S. Beaver, John L. Klumel, Charles Bradshaw, John Cowan, David Fulton, Frank J. Kron, H. G. Sampson and Edward Snougrass, Jr. The reception held at Cyclorama Parlors Wednesday evening, March 4, was a brilliant success, and was largely sttended by a select and fashionable gathering. The ladies were and fashionable gathering. The ladies were especially conspicuous for their charming ap-pearances, and the gentlemen were all in full evening dress, Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Orr and Mrs. Tavlor, of Washington, Pa.: Mr. and Mrs. George Kelley, and the Misses Mcclinton, Smith, Huumel, Mattern, Wolf, Rose, Louis, McCabe, Huber, Brown, Armstrong, McKee, McClarier: and Messes, Krebs, Adams, Marshall, Dr. Kesler, Orout, Sturgeon, Gaches, Wiley, Graham, Courtney, Langenheim, Bennet, Phillips and Armstrong. Armstrong.

Penn avenue, Tuesday evening, March 17, at

One of the social events of the week in Wilkinsburg was the reception held at the resi-dence of Mrs. Robert Ferguson, of Hampton place, Friday evening. There were about 60 guests present, comprising friends of the host-A surprise and birthday party was given by guests present, comprising friends of the host-ess from Allegheny, the East End and Wilkins-burg. The dising room was artistically deco-rated with flowers and palms, forming a damity background for the varied costumes of the ladies and the black and white of the evening dress of the gentlemen. Some of the toilets of the ladies were dreams of loveliness. Music and euclire took up the bour- from S P. M. till 1. A. M., and when the guess departed the time seemed to have been all too short for their satis-faction. Mr. and Mrs. H- D. Swearer to their son Robert at their re Flence, No. 85 '.outh Tweny-fifth street, Friday evening, it being the 17:5 anniversary of his birth. The following persons vere present; Mr. and Mrs. John R. Speelman, Miss Jennie Brooks, Mr. Howard Swearer and Miss Jennig Brooks, Mr. Howard Swearer and Misses Estelia Brooks, Fannie Stick, Alice Spielman, Mabel Swearer, Stella Compbell, Sadie Turner, Belle McDowell, Bortie Gue, Bessie Davis, Eulala Happenny, Emma and Mary Waite, James McDowell, Elwond Swyers, John K. Harry, Joseph D. Hurus, David L. Carney, Abner C. Jarrett, Job R. Spielman, Evan M. Roberts, Alfred C. Davis, John W. Phillips and Janus Swearer. The principal feature of the evening's entertaivment was a duet given by Miss Essle and Master Edde Swearer. The ovening was spent playing social games, after which a very delicious sup-per was given. Mr. Swearer was the recipient of numerous gifts. faction The second annual Purim masque ball in bonor of Queen Esther will be held on the evening of March 24 in New Turner Hall, Forbes street, by the Disraeli Social. The hall rorows street, by the Distanti Social. The half will be elaborately decorated and lighted with calcium lights. Prizes will be given to the compile wearing the handsomest costumes. The committee in charge are A. J. Adelheimer, Benjamin Biggard, Joseph Frankfurther, Samuel Baum, Gus Arnold, L. Kokeman, Max Arnold, J. Bickart, Ike Sholem and A. Block.

One of the most pleasant surprise parties of the season was given in honor of Miss Lotta Burry at her residence, No. 39 Ohio street, Al-A charming party was given by the Misses legheny, Wednesday evening. Dancing was the principal enjoyment of the evening. The Maggie and Annie Burgess, of Alfred street, Wilkinsburg, last Tuesday evening, to friends music was furnished by the Havdn Mandolin from Turtle creek. The amusements of the ocfrom furthe creek. The amusements of the oc-casion were music, tiddledywinks, etc., besides the rather important item of refreshments, Among the guests were Misses Flora Mackey, Mattie and Lizzie Owens and Maggie Johnston, and Messes. Fred Votter, Walter Lane, Charles Teets, John Kuhn, Will Hudson and Heury Kuhn. Orchestra. At midnight an elegant supper Orchestra. At midnight an elegant supper was served. Among those present were Misses Louise Faber, Maggie Douglas, Fernada Reese, Blanche Reese, Birdie Burry, Emily Rodney, Jennie McKelvey, Nettie Henderson, Annie Kellth Jean Douglas, May McClelland, Lizzie Gilland, Niollie Ross, Ennma Elsenbeis and Larzie and Minnie Roséder, and Messra. Frack Kelly, O. M. Hezlep, Thomas McKelvey, Edward Burry, Thomas Boyd, Harry Frazier, Wesley Kelly, Joseph Longmore, Charles Tay-lor, Ralph McKee, Robert Stevenson, William Morrison and many others.

A select party was held at the residence of Miss Anna J. Longabaugh, Fifth avenue, Mo-Keesport, March 5, at which a most delightful

Accesport, March o, at which a most delignthin evening was spent. Among those present were the Misses Orah and Sadie Lake, Frances Meyer, of Sewickley; Orah Walsh, Emma Davis, Lou Cox, Elia Moore, Birdie and Edith Hartman, Alma Coon, Cad Garer, Mande Woods and Bertha Haler, of McKeesport, and Messrs, Charles F. Cole and Harry Lake, of Sewickley, and others. Some elegant dinners, receptions and pro gressive suchres have been given in Latrobe lately. Mrs. Dr. J. A. Hartman gave a charming musicale, which was largely attended. The ining room presented a beautiful appearance and reflected much credit upon the taste of the lovely hostess. Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Fink gave a delightful progressive euchre to a num-ber of friends last week. Editor Fink and his A "C" tea is to be given by the ladies of the R. J. Reed Mission Band in the Wilkinsburg Presbyterian Church on Thursday evening rest, No coe knows exactly what a "C" tea is, but it is said to be something appetiging, with tea and cake in it. An hour or two of social intercourse, enlivened by music, is also ex-pected to be part of the entertainment. popular wife are noted for their unstinted hospitality. The abundant and delicate collanospitality. The abundant and dencate colla-tion sustained the reputation of Mirs. Fink's culinary skill. Mr. Fink and Mr. Stockberger in the capacity of waiters did admirably. Mirs, J. Wiley Hartman recently gave a cobweb party and a "bonnet trimming" which afforded merri-

Miss Jennie Van Scribner, of the American ment for a large number of guests. Mr. and Mrs. Mathias Saxman, Jr. (parents of Mrs. Hartman), did much toward making this brilliant affair one of the most enjoyable of the House, left the city yesterday on a two weeks' visit to relatives at Wellsville, N.Y. By request and under the auspices of the Young People's Bociet of Olean, N. Y., she will give select readings at a charitable entertainment to be given at the Second Presbyterian Church at that place.

Thursday night was the occasion of a pleasant birthday party given by Mr. Alfred M. Hogg. About 30 guests were present and were generally residents of Herron Hill. The com-pany were charmed by the splendid singing of Mr. James Henderson, of Herron Hill, and reading by Mrs. J. N. Hogg, of Allegheny.

A very pleasant birthday party was given at the cozy home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beil-He coly all spring Garden avenue, Allegheny, Wednesday afternoon, in henor of their little daughter Erma, About 30 little folks were present. Music and refreshments were the features.

A number of Miss Jennie Lawton's friends elebrated her birthday Friday evening at her home in Duquesne Park, Tenth ward, Allegheny. The young lady received some nice presents. Music was furnished by the Alpine Orchestra, with harp, Prof. J. Burger prompter.

on Monday last. The bride's home, in Alle-gheny avenue, was well filled with valuable and useful presents, gifts from numerous

PITTSBURG DISPATCH. SUNDAY, MARCH 8, THE 1891

oming quite helpless, and will be sent by the ost to one of the homes soon unless he repost to covers.

MEMBERS of Post 128 will attend services a the Ladies of G. A. R. Home, at Hawkins station to-day at 3 P. M. Trains leave Union station at 2:25 P. M. COMMANDER SAMUEL SCOTT, of Post 88, and Past Commander C. O. Smith, of Post 259, were visitors at Post 157's meeting Thursday night. They enjoyed their visit. THE sick of Post 88 are all happily improving. Senior Vice Commander Harper, Chaplain Griffiths and Adjutant Brauff hope to be with their comrades next Tuesday evening.

THE Detroit Association of Post 157 received an accession in membership of about 15 last Thursday night. In a week or two a committee will be sent to Detroit to secure quarters.

THE committee having in charge the Ladies of G. A. R. Home, turned it over formally to the Department at the Encampment at Al-toona. From all sources $6,283 53 was received during the year.

THE department delegates of Post in gave a report of the convention to the post on last Tuesday evening. The delegation, led by Com-mander A. C. Frank, can tell some wonderful stories of the trip. COMEADE D. A. JONES, Secretary of Post 151's Detroit Club, was authorized at the last meeting to communicate with the committee in Detroit with a view of securing quarters during the encampment week.

week a man dropped into the library of the encampment. In examining the many interestver the mantel attracted his attention.

"Well, I declare," said he, "if there ain't the COMBADE JAMES OSTEN of Post 157, died at lefield of Gettysburg."Then in enthusiastic earnestness he told a friend how true a likeas of the historic place it was. He pointed out many places of interest, marked the positions of certain commands, and at last, in triumphal tones, he announced the discovery of the exact spot where he stood during Pickett's torrible charge. After gazing long and earnestly at the pict-ure and calling to mind many familiar scenes, he denarted. A great laugh broke forth as he he departed. A great laugh broke forth as he vanished down stairs. The reminiscent visitor had failed to observe in large letters across the bottom of the picture, "Andersonville Prison."

Two Veterans Appointed.

Two Western Pennsylvania veterans were appointed last week to positions in the State Arsenal. One is Francis M. Grim, of Freedom, Beaver county. He enlisted February 27, 1864, in Company F, One Hundred and Forlieth Pennsylvania Volunteers, commanded by Colonel Richard P. Roberts, who was killed at Gettysburg. Comrade Grim was wounded at Spottsylvania Court House, Va., May 12, 1864.

Spotisylvania Court House, Va., May 12 1884, losing a lec, and was discharged in consequence March 19, 1863. He was indersed by General A. L. Pearson, of this city, and leading Demo-crats of Beaver county. The other courade appointed is J. Edward Thompson, of Hollidaysburg, Blair county, He served in Company H. Third Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, three months service; two years and six months in Company A. Eighty-fourth Pennsylvania Volunteers and six months in Company A. One Hundred and Ninety-second Pennsylvania Volunteers. For nearly two years he served as private, corporal and sergeant in Company C. Fifth Regiment N. G. P. and over ten years as quartermaster sergement of that regiment, which last position he now occupies. He was indorsed by the field and staff officers of his regiment and a majority of the captains; also leading Democrat- of Blair county and such Republicans as cx.Sneaker Hewitt, Sena-tor Republicans as cx.Sneaker Hewitt, Sena-tor Lemon and Anditor General McCamant, Comrade Thompson is a carpenter and will overcome an embarrassment in this particular which for years has existed at the arsenal.

General Hartranft's Command.

The command of the late Major General J. F. Hartranft, the Third Division of the Ninth Army Corps, will hold a grand reunion at York, Pa., on Wednesday, March 25. It will be under the auspices of the Two Hundredth Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. This will be ment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. This will be the second reunion of the division. In the cir-cular sent out is the folowing: "The committee extend a cordial invitation to all members of the division to attend the coming reunion, and earnestly request the patriotic and hearty support and co-operation of every soldier who wore the 'shield of blue,' to make this, the second reanion of the divis-ion, a grand and successful one. No efforts will be spared on the part of the committee to make the occasion a memorable one, and one features. Latrobe will probably organize an Episcopal Church shortly. About a dozen prominent families are interested in the project. During the year they have frequently held services but in no regular meeting place. The Rev. P. S. Mesney officiated a week ago and delighted his hearers. A quiet wedding in Allegheny joined Mr. Sidney S. Sheppard and Miss Clara M. Kurtz on Monday last. The bride's home, in Alle-the organize and the project of the Third Division can justly feel proud. As time passes on, our numbers are decreasing, our ranks are thinning from year to year, many who were with us in the historic past have answered the last roll call and passed past have answered the last roll call and passed

THE department delegates of Post 151 gave a

In the picture of General Sherman's floral

tributes in Frank Lestic's current number, the effering of the Grand Army of Allegheny county stands foremost. It was the most hand-some of all and is given the place of honor.

ast Sunday. The remains were sent to Corry, Pa., and were buried there with Grand Army honors by Post 70, of that place, on Tuesday. A delegation from Post 157 escorted the re-mains to the depot. THE new Department Council of Administraion will hold its first meeting next Friday evening at department headquarters in Phila-delphua. Contrade William J. Patterson, of Post 157, who received the largest wote for Council of Administration, will attend. COMRADE D. R. SPEER, of Post 155, who met with a severe accident while at work on the Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston Railroad, near Thompson station, last week, has not been able to get out yet, and when he does he will be led to use a crutch. He has the sympathy of all his comrades. Post 3's meeting last Monday evening was a large and interesting one. Stirring addresses were delivered, oue by Commander John S. Lambie on the late General Sherman, and one by Comrade Daniel Ashworth on the late Ad-miral Parter. There were visiting delegations from posts 88, 151, 155, 157, 162, 206, 215, 230 and 258. COMMANDER A. J. CASSIDY, of Post 41.

culture in the Sterret School, East End, and instructs a class of ladies at the Linden Club, has for some time been confounded with Miss Best, of Meadville, who won the Sargent prize for being the best physically developed woman in America. The report was not gen-erally current, but a DISPATCH reporter hear-ing of it interviewed Miss Nichols, who is also from Meadville, and found that while she knows Miss Hest, the two are not the same persons. The report probably originated from the fact that the homes of the two ladies are in Meadville, and both are exponents of physical culture. Miss Nichols says that Miss Best is of a retiring di-position, and very much resents the notoriety given her by published statements. Miss Best refused to take the prize offered to her for being the victor in the conquest and she still continues to teach physical culture and elocu-tion in the Meadville College. pears the proud distinction of being the engineer that brought the Sherman funeral train from Altona to Pittsburg. During the war Comrade Cassidy served part of his time under General Sherman, therefore the honor conferred upon Commander Cassidy was an appropriate one.

POST 85 is bending all its energies toward getting the "Fall of Atlanta" ready for presentation. It will open at the Grand Opera House two weeks from to-morrow night. The post ex-pects to give even a better presentation than that of last year. The ladies and gentlemen in the cast are studying hard, and several expect to make a hit in their charactors.

A GRAND reunion of the Blue and the Gray in Chicago during the World's Fair is planned. The Confederate veterans propose that the State help build a grand blue and gray pavilion, where all war relics are to be stored during the fair, and each State furnish trans-during the fair, and each State furnish trans-portation to its veterans. The Government is to furnish tents and rations to all, and the troops are to camp by States. The reunion is to last 30 days, and is intended to show to the world that the old veterans are united under the flag of one common country. The Con-federate veterans have appealed to President Harrison and the Bouthern Senators and Con-gressmen, and the G. A. R. is to assist in mak-ing the reunion a success.

Sons of Veterans. THE camps in this vicinity show signs of un usual activity. The building up the camps promises full ranks on Decoration Day. LIEUTENANT B. G. STECK and Color Sergeant Arch. Gemmell, of Camp 33, are still confined to the house with sickness, but hope LIEUTEXANT B. G. BTECK and Color Sergeant Arch. Gemmell, of Camp 33, are still confined to the house with sickness, but hope to be out soon. A MEETING of the Executive Council of the Pennsylvania division has been called for March 30 at Reading, Pa. This will be the last meeting of the council prior to the encamp-ment at DuBois May 6. CAMP 33 held quite an interesting meeting that Monday night. Quite a number of visiting prothers were present to willness 33's muster team muster in three new recruits, among whom was a brother of Quartermaster P. H. Farren, They will have another meeting to morrow night. CAMP 33 will attend the National Encampmproved that its treasury now contains a coodly surplus.

ENGAMPMENT No. I desires it stated that it hus no Auxiliary or Ladies of the U. V. L. at-

ENCAMPMENT No. 1 had a visitor from

The Faults and Follies of the Age

A Peculiar Medicine.

tached to it in any way.

Union Veteran Legion.

Next Friday evening Prof. Delos Fall, o

Albion College, will lecture on the "Coup d'etat in Brazil,"at the Butler M.E. Church at 7:30 o'clock. The next morning, at 9:30 clock, at the same place, Prof. Fall will give a talk on "Methods," and Miss Nelle

Nichols will have a class drill in physical culture. As the class drill ends with a-heeland-toe measure, a fantastic trip that Miss

Nichols states has an exhilarating effect,

there was a question as to whether the trustees of the church would allow such a performance, but when its simplicity was explained, they readily al-lowed the use of the church for the exercises. Miss Nichols, by the way, who teaches the Delsarte system of physical culture in the Sterret School, East End, and who stand first in the highest grammar rooms of the various ward schools:

who stand first in the highest grammar rooms of the various ward schools:
Washington School, John Martin; St. Ciair, Annie Prossu, Thad Stevens, Robert Chess; Liberty, Maggie Davis and Mabel McKee; Luckoy (No. 1), Lizzie Vanghan; (No. 2), Flor-ence Hill; Grant, Marie Gosline; Mt. Albion, Louis Voelker; Morse, Charles Laughran; Howard (No. 1), Lizzie Waiker; (No. 2), Wal-ter Sucking; Allen, Emma McCullough; Humboldt, Ciara Torch; Moorhead, Jennie Herrow; Forbes, Fred Toerge; Peebles, Lottie Biessing; Bedford, Katle Moschel; South, Clarindia Thomas; Springfield, M. Considine; Lawrence, Charles Peybon; Lincola, Dick Young; Hiland, Margaret Stein; Riverside, Lizzie Foley; Birmingham, George Kambach; Homewood, Corz Rogers; Knoz, Rey Goff; Monongabela, Tillie Fisher; Wickersham, Alma Moeller; Minersville, Hatty Johnston; Hancock, Blanche Stuart; Ralston, Florence Newlands; Franklin, Alue Leech; O'Hara, May Feighley.

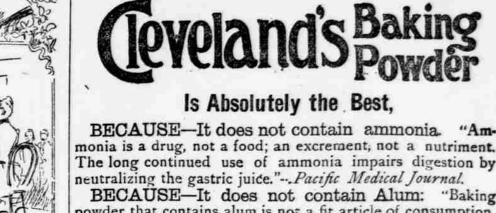

. . . Superintendent Hamilton, of the Allegheny county schools, yesterday spoke of the rapid growth of the schools of the county. In the ourse of two weeks a handsome eight-room building will be dedicated at Copeland in Brad dock township. This place is made famous for powder that contains alum is not a fit article of consumption. Parties selling or manufacturing such baking powders will be liable to arrest for selling an article that is considered deleterious to health.--Ohio Official Report, page 17. BECAUSE-Food keeps moist and fresh: "Food made with Cleveland's Baking Powderkeeps moist and fresh, and in this respect it is superior to any powder I know."-Mrs. S. T. Rover, Principal Philadelphia Cooking School.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Because-It is most economical: 'An even teaspoonful of Cleveland's Baking Powder will do as much or more than heaping teaspoonful of other powders."-Mrs. S. T. Rover, Principal Philadelphia Cooking School.

THE Board of Officers of the Fourteenth Regiment meets to-morrow evening, at which time a number of details relative to the sp.ing time a number of details relative to the spring inspection will be arranged. Colonel Perch-ment has not yet announced who will be the successor of Mr. Robb as Adjutant, but the ap-pointment will be made this month. A number of gentlemen not connected with the regiment are mentioused for the place.

Clarion, to be Quartermaster General, Major

Greenland has been Quartermaster of the Second Brigade for the past six years and consequently should be able to fill his new position in a satisfactory manner. For the vacancy on

General Wiley's staff, caused by the promotion of Major Greenland, the names of several Pittsburgers are already mentioned, prominent-ly among them being that of Mr. Robert Pat-terson, formerly Quartermaster of the Four-teenth Regiment, but lately connected with Battery B. Mr. Patterson while connected with hatery B. is a record for himself as a hustler in the handling of supplies, and his selection by General Wiley would be

COPIES of the report of General Hastings for the year 1800 were received in the city yester list, commencing with Company F, of Franklin, on March 16, and continuing through the regiment. The Fifth Regiment is next, commence ing with Company B, of Bellefonte, on March

a good one.

Birthmarks, moles, red nose, enlarged veins of gentlemen not connected with the regiment are mentioused for the place. MAJOR ALEX. MCCANDLESS, of the Four-teesith, has written several letters to his mill-tary friends in this div from his journeyings through the far South. Before his return the Major writes that be is going to match dollars with the Emperor of Patagonia to find out who owns the place. Should His Majesty succumb of generation and hair, has treated hundreds of skin, complexion and hair, has treated hundreds 502 Penn avenue, Pittsburg-

FIT GUARANTEEL

The members of Encampment No. 1, U. V. L., are enjoying a good mugh at the expense of an unknown individual. One evening last the inscription "Fawn party," no streach of the imagination equired to associate the lovely, ful girls with their bright eyes and wavy required air, their color heightened by the exercise of ripping in rhatomical non-ure over the highly outshed, well-waxed floor, with the timid anwhose name they util zed and whose every ent is symbolic of grace and beauty. Fawn parties will not be confined to St. Kavier's, but as soon as Lent is over will make

Advice a, but as soon as Lent is over will make their appearance in this city. Prepare for a wave of bronze-brown hair-au humonies wave that will extend from the At-lantic to the Pacific, for the divine Sarah has treases of that color, and hair dressers are al-ready experimenting on dyes that will produce the exact shade for the many ultra fashionable that chance the color of their hoir as they do that change the color of their hair as they do that of their gowns. With Patti's last farewell tour the athern hair received an impetus that did no write until Sarah arrived. What next, I wondet?

. . . Forms of Dinner Invitations.

Dinner calls are no longer correct form and aritten invitations, when it is possible, are discarried for vorbal ones. Such is the edict from New York, and originally from London, where they still take time from card playing and to make improvements on social forms for New York ew York. Jement weather is prevailing and sore it is very popular. The sore throat is Inclement weather is prevailing and sore firmat is very pupular. The sore throat is varied more in form and name than in feeling, and one can almost have their choice of names. The list of one physician, popular in society, is as follows: Acute catarthal pharyngitis, ca-tarthal tonsitiutis, acute sore throat, acute ton-suilitis, quiney, phlegunous pharyngitis, acute catarthal laryngitis, catarthal pharyngitis, acute croup, reasons a struggits, mombraneous croup, true croup, fallendar tonsilitis and diphtheria. And a gentleman who is not a physician adds to the list a "mighty sore throat" and a "blank dish." or "revised version" sore throat. You pays your money and you takes your choice-and no matter what the selection made, the following is the bill of fare-all soups-for two weeks, more or less Green turthe, terrapin, chicken, chicken gumba, pures of gaace, ox tail, consentme, touato, French boution, ju-hence, printance, mutton broth, vegetable, hard an above the orthout of the set as the source of tail, consentme, touato, French boution, ju-hence, printance, mutton broth, vegetable, hienne, printanier, mutton broib, vegetable, beef, pea, clam chowder, clam broth, peari tapioca and mulligatawvn. KATHLEEN HUSSEY-WATSON.

MID-LENTEN PLEASURES.

Social Gatherings of Interest to Society People of the Two Cities.

very dolightful surprise party was given in Wednesday evening by Miss Lon Faber and Mass Maccie Douglas in honor of Miss Lottie Burry, at her residence, 29 Ohto street, Allecheny. A very pleasant evening was spent in nancing and playing games. An elegant supper was served at midnight. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Burry, Miss Lon Faber, Miss Maggie Douglas, Bertie Burry, Lottie Miss Magpio Dongias, Bertie Burry, Lottie Burry, Ed Burry, Jean Dongias, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Haubensak, Jr., Kata Gerber, Emma Gerber, Luzzie Roeder, Minnie Roeder, Emily Rodney, Magrie Deverlöge, Grace Bevoridge, May McCleiland, Jennie McKervy, Jennie Ross, Mollie Ross, Luzzie Bardsiay, Annie Kelley, Elasche Resse, Nattie Henderson, Bossie Lonch, Fernada Reese, Annie Mitchel, Emma Eisentes, Annie Fielding, Luzzie Gillen Stellte Eisenbeis, Annie Fielding, Lizzie Gillen, Stella Eisenbeis, Annie Fielding, Lizzie Gillen, Stella Eisenbeis, Annie Vigel, Jennie Tipton, Beil Copeland, Will Gerber, Walter Johuston, Oliver Hezlep, Walter Floyd, John Billings, Joe Hagan, Ton Tatem, Christ Lappe, Will Mitchel, Tan, Beau Fennk Wanner, Bach, Mathematical Hagan, Fom Falen, Christ Lappe, Will Mitchel, Tom Boyd, Frank Bauers, Raiph Minhart, Frank Evans, Will Warnock, Fred Benet, Will Morrison, Harry Frazier, Alex, Lappe, Walter Kreps, Al Haumuel, Frank Keliey, Tom Mo-Kelvy, West Kelley, Charles Taylor, Ed Fisher, Charlio Fisher, Ed Kolh, Jr., Press Tompson, Ealph Nickee, Press McKensy, Clair Gould, Mr., Swan, Jesse Smith, Tom Gould, Pro Leafleit, Mr. Charles Earnart, Ed Reber, Mr. Billings.

A surprise party was tendered Mrs. D. N. Greves, of Penn and Winebiddle avenues, last Thursday night. Dancing and progressive eachre were the features of the evening. Caterer Kuhn, of the East End, furnished the supper. Mr. James S. Jiles won first prize for entlemen, Miss Myra Null that offered for the dies. Mr. and Mrs. George Dubarry won the netwo wanally received by those who lost the post points. The party was in honor of Miss Inost points. The party was in nonor of Miss Badie Eider, and was very enjoyable. Among those present were: Dr. J. C. Dune and wife, J. C. Smite and wife, George Dubarry and wife, A. B. Van Horn and wife, D. N. Greves and wife, Frank R. Huff sod wife, Mrs. Mary Eider, and Misses Same Eider, Margie Jiles, Eita Gledhil, Mollie Jiles, Mary, Emma and Miss Annie Lytle, Mr. Silverman, Mr. Will-iam Logan, Mr. John Porter, Mr. Frank Killin, Mr. Moni. Neves, Mr. Harry Atkinson, Mr.
 And plant decorations. Novelties for iancheon, dinner and german favors. Loose bunches to carry and corwage bouquets a speciaity.
 N. PATTERSON, Su 41 Sixth avenue, opposite Trinity,

Among those present were: Miss Carrie H. Harrington, Miss Mary S. Comley, Miss Nellie Douglas, Miss Margle B, Comley, Miss Hattie Hall, Miss Jennie Lawton, Miss Lizzie J. Com-ley, Messrs, J. H. Kruse, A. H. Donaldson, Fred Schrader, Charles Carpenter, S. J. Buch-anan, G. H. Douglas, R. C. Comley, C. H. Schauer, M. S. Connelly, G. S. Comley, Frank Bitts J. Warren Suirley, Herbert Lawton, lams, Mr. and Mrs. Lawton and others.

One of the most enjoyable events of the Lenten season so far, was the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Thackeray, of Rebecca street, Allegheny. The evening was most pleasantly spentiu singing, recitations and dancing. At friend of the bride. On last Saturday evening a very pleasant birthday party was given in honor of Mrs. Chara L. Reberat her home on Lafayette street, Hazelwood. Music, dancing and games were indulged in to a late hour.

spentiu singing, recitations and dancing. At midnight a deinchtful "lunch" was served, atter which the dancing was continued until a late hour. Among those present were the Misses Thackeray, Forrester, Fisher, Bradley, White, Shedden, Cutler, Breeze, Ewan, Wise, Jennie and Asinie Wooster, Mr., Vandevort and Meers, Benner, Beech, Foster, White, Parker, Geissinger, Parkhill, Roubins, Young, Neeld, Black, Wooster, J. D. and W. J. Ford and dhers. and others. be expected.

sirs. Lottie Heideger Meyer gave a high-class musicale at her beautiful home at Woods' Run

The Epon Club's select reception Friday, station Wednesday night. The brilliant pro-gramme included an overture from "William March 6 was one of the most successful affairs of the season Tell" by Ida C. Burgy and Ernest Meyer; reci-

The Woman's Club held one of its profitable tation, Maude Holtzman; vocal solo, George tation, Maude Holizman vocal solo, George Heideger; recitation, "Ben Hur," Albert I. Christy; whistling solo, John Heideger; violin solo, Carl J. Braun; and plano solo, Ida C. Burgy. After a long and delightful entertain-ment the guests marched to a delicious supper. The affair was a decided success, dancing crowning the pleasures of the evening. and enjoyable sessions at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Personal Small Talk.

Miss Jennie Kenser will leave for the East this morning.

Mrs. Charles 1. Wade is slowly convalescing after a severe attack of the grip. Miss Edna E. Tatem, the charming young daughter of Thomas Tatem, entertained at her W. S. Bookwalter, of Ross street, Wilkins-burg, is traveling through West Virginia. home, on Western avenue, Allegheny, Friday night, in honor of Mollie Beachler (Beatrice Miss Carrie Reed, of Rosenbaum's, is visit-ing Ohio friends for a few weeks' vacation at Salem. foore), the actress formerly with Oliver Mrs. B. F. Harris, of Mt. Washington, left last evening for the East to spend a week with friends. Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Carskaddon, of Wallace street, Wilkinsburg, have returned from Phila-Moore), the actress formerly with Oliver Eyron. The evening was spent in music, re-citing and dancing. Among those present were Athert I. Curisty, Lillian Reddick, John Heide-ger, Marie Hangan, Heien Reddick, Miss Hart, of St. Louis; Theodore A. Rentz, Prof. A. Lie-felt, Prof. Vetter, Milton J. Henrichs, Jessie Tatem, Richard Faulson, Mr. and Mrs. Beach-ler, Mr. and Mrs. Tatem, Ben A. Burns, A. Sende and others. delphia. Miss Mame Burgwin, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Miss Mary Armstrong, of Shetland ayenue, East End.

The home of Miss Mary Pruse, of Fayette street, Allegheny, was brilliantly illuminated and a scene of pleasure on last Friday evening, the occasion being a surprise party tendered Miss Pruse by a number of her little friends to Mr. L. K. Lippman and wife have returned from their wedding trip, and are now at the Monongahela House.

tal music.

ARTISTIC EFFECTS IN

Miss Bertha Hemsfurter, of Parkersburg, W. Va., is visiting Miss Julia Friedman, 282 Fed-eral street, Allegheny. commemorate the anniversary of her birth.

commensorate the anniversary of her birth, Among these present were Maggie Fulton, Emma Bott, Edua Scott, Lizzie Fisher, Lulu Larimer, Mary Pruse, Nellie Marsh, Ella Ross and Masters Stuart Hollman, Howard Marsh, Walter Bott, Arthur Easter, Dick Wilson, Howard Burtt, Jean Galvin and others. Miss Sadie Hann, of Clarion, Pa., who has been visiting friends in Park place, Wilkins-burg, has returned home. Misses Minnie and Gertie McWilliams, of Wilkinsburg, have returned from a week's visit to friends in Greensburg,

One of the pleasant events of the week was a surprise party Tuesday evening at the residence of Miss Lillian Diehl, corner Nineteenth and Jane streets, Southside. Those who parand Jane streets, Southside, Tuose who par-ticipated were the Misses Bertha Gue, Emma Graham, Tillie Reithel, Nora Stolte, Annue Stolte, Blanche Stewart, Clara Loren, Alma Beyer, Kate Stokes, Lenora Haberman, and Henry Urban, Wilbur Faux, Otto Rectanus, John Brown, Arthur Jones, Albert Berlipp and Lab Barday. John Barclay.

Mrs. M. J. Dewrose, of the Thirty-second ward, left for Thomasville, Ga., last evening to meet here brother, David R. Hunter, formerly a resident of the Southside. Mr. William Hackett, Assistant Superinendent of the Prudential Insurance Company, Allegheny, was the recipient of a handsome testimonial at the company's office yesterday atternoon. Mr. H. leaves for Detroit, having Mrs. Allison, wife of A. B. Allison, formerly of the Alleghenv County Light Company, and her son, James Harold, are spending the month of March with friends in Salem, O. been promoted to the superintendency at that point, and the field staff presented him with a valuable timepiece and a beautiful piece of statuary as a token of their esteem. The presentation was made by Mr. J. C. Bergstres-Miss Ellen D. Wineland arrived in Pittsburg

The Misses Ferguson entertained a number of their friends at their home in Wilkinsburg Friday evening. The guests divided into two Friday evening. The guests divided into two parties, one occupied themselves with dancing in one of the iarge parlors while the other spent the evening with cards in another. A splendid supper was served at 11 o'clock, after which the fun rontinued fast and furious until 1 o'clock A. M., when everyone went home chuckling over the splendid time they had had.

John Porter, Robert street, Thursday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis, Mr. and Mra, John Luzell, Mr. and Mra, Frank Lewis, Mr. and Mra, John Luzell, Mr. and Mrs, Will-iam Donahue, Mr. and Mrs, Wilse Fleming, Miss Emma Hill, Misses Mamie and Cora Killin, Miss Annie Lytle, Mr. Silverman, Mr. Will-iam Logan, Mr. John Porter, Mr. Frank Killin, Mr. Mont Neves, Mr. Harry Atkinson, Mr. James Morrison on to the silent majority. The survivors too are feeling the infirmities of advancing years. Though our steps may not be as agile and The ceremony uniting in marriage Miss Aggle Acheson and Mr. Vincent Stevens will take place at the bride's residence on Thursday, March 12. None but the immediate relatives will be present except Miss Minnie Mitchell, a elastic, nor our carriage so erect, let us show to the present generation that the patriotist within us is still as strong, and our fraternal feelings still as warm as in the ever memorable and trying days of 1855." This will be the tweety-sixth anniversary of Fart Stradeger Fort Steadman.

New Ladies' Union Veteran Legion.

The new Ladies' U. V. L. elected for the year the following officers: Mrs. George W. Hughes, President; Mrs, Grine, Senior Vice President; The many friends of Miss Emma Chisley, of play. Mrs. Mary Dawson, Junior Vice President: Mrs. L. Kunzeker, Chaplani, Mrs. S. Ctalmers, Secretary; Mrs. Marguerite Weyman, Treasurer; Mrs. Walker, Conductress; Mrs. R. Anderson, Guard; Mrs. Schuber, Color Bearer; Advisory Committee, Mrs. Rase, Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Graenawalt Allentown, will be glad to hear that after a long and serious illuess she is able to be about, and that she is gaining strength as fast as can city and Allegheny. Mrs. Jones makes a most Greenawalt, The National President has sent a letter to Encampment No. 1, U. V. L., in relation to the Encampment No. I, U. V, L., in relation to the society, from the national headquarters of the Ladies' Union Veteran Legion, anxillary to the Union Veteran Legion of the United States, and as soon as Encampment No. I replies to that letter the new society will receive further instruction. The following ladies can be ad-dressed for information: Mrs. George W. Hughes, No. 168 Beaver avenue, Allegheny, Pa.; Mrs. Saran Chaimers, No. 95 Center ave-nue, Pittsburg, Pa.; Mrs. Mary Dawson, No. 184 Main street, West End, Pittsburg; Mrs. Mary Rase, No. 71 Soventeenth street, Southside, Pittsburg.

The Ohio Encampment.

Major Edward Fisher, Chairman of the Arch street to Monath's Hall, Third street, Allegheny. Allegheny County Executive Committee, has received the following letter: CHARLES F. MCKENNA will deliver his illutsrated lecture, "Travels Abroad," in the hall of Encampment No. 6, 54 Arch street, Alle-

"W. F. RIDGELY, "Chairman of the General Commit.ee," The letter is dated Stenberville, where great preparations are being made for the encamp-ment. Comrate Fisher extends the invitation to to different posts of the county on behalf of the Excentive Committee. He hopes that have a understing will reasoned them will the large delegations will respond from all the posts, as the Ohto posts have always attended the celebrations here in goodly numbers. A meeting of the Excentive Committee may be called to consider the matter.

The List of National Delegates.

The Faults and Follies of the Age Are numerous, but of the latter none is more ridiculous than the promiscuous and random use of laxative pills and other drastric cattar-tics. These wrench, convulse and weaken both the stomach and the boweis. If Hostetter's Stomach Bitters be used instead of these no-remedies, the result is accomplished without pain and with great bonefit to the boweis, the stomach and the liver. Use this remedy when constipation manifests itself, and thereby pre-vent it from becoming chronic. Mr. and Mrs. George F. Hara, of Center street, Wilkinsburg, have gone to Columbus, O., to spend a week with relatives. Many inquiries have been made the past week for the list of National delegates. It was not to be given ont until the Department Command-er promulgated it in general orders. As no word of it was received in this city up to a late hour last evening, it is supposed that it has not yet been issued from Philadelphia. The list will likely be sent out early this week. It will be published in the Grand Army column next Sunday. Rev. D. D. Davies, formerly of New York, will preach to-day at the Welsh Congregational Church, Southside, morning and evening. Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Stephenson and Miss Ella Stephenson, of Pittsburg, are enjoying life at the Hotel del Coronado, Coronado Beach, Cal-

Heard in the Post Rooms

THE Detroit Club, of Post 151, will soon give entertainment.

Post 157 will celebrate the anniversary of ee's surrender on April 9. Post 215 was largely represented at the meeting of Post 3 last Monday night. COMRADE JAMES LEWIS, of Post 155, is last night, after an extended trip through Texas, Missouri and Kansas, and is stopping at her brother's on Ligonier street, Lawrenceville. roving to be an a No. 1 commander. Miss Mary E. Fulton, daughter of Dr. Fulton, of New Florence, Pa., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. P. Davis, of Vine street. Miss Fulton is a student at the State Normal School at Luck Haven, Pa., where she has attained a high rep-Post 128 will attend the regular meeting of ost 151, next Tuesday evening, in a body cold give it an honest trial and they will COMBADE FRANK SMITH, & former member soon become convinced of its excellence. of Post 151, died last week. The pallbearers It possesses qualities peculiar to itself, which makes if far superior to any other for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds, croup and influenza. For utation for proficiency in vocal and instrumenare from the post. COMRADE WILLIAM CROOKS, officer of the day of Post 236, who has been sick a couple of weeks is recovering.

Mrs. A. I. Scott and daughter will leave Pittsburg Wednesday for South America, They will sail from New Orleans on the 18th for Pernambuco, Brazil, Mrs. Scott has been in poor health for about a year and a change of COMBADE LEVI B. RICHARDS, of Post 117. has recovered from his illness, and is now a regular attendant at his post meetings.

PAST DEPARTMENT COMMANDEE DENNIS Ton is enjoying a much needed and well earned rest after his arduous duties of the year.

COLONEL W. H. MOODY, W. A. C. will start off with the names of many of the most promi-nent ladies of the ward as charter members.

COMBADE C. R. SHEFLER, of Post 155, has on, dinner and german favors. Loose demonstrated to the old boys that he can catch a cue quickly, hence the demand for his serbunches to carry and corsage bouquets a specialty, N. PATTERSON,

ALL the novelties in millinery in largest variety, at Rosenbaum & Co's.

CAMP 33 will attend the National Encamp Prot, S. A. Andrews and Prof. McCollough are ment of the G. A. R. at Detroit in a body and among the speakers. Every month, for some time, Superintendent Hamilton has been giv-ing lectures in pedagogy to the teachers and directors of large school districts. ment of the G. A. R. at Detroit in a body and have appointed a committe-to make the neces-sary arrangements for going. As nearly every man has expressed his intention of going there is no doubt the camp will make quite a display with their natty uniforms and sabers.

It was stated on undoubted authority yester-QUITE a number of the members of Camp 33 day that Prof. C. A. Riddle will at the end of took part in the drill with Company E, Fourthe school year saver his connection as princiteenth Regiment, las'. Friday night, for the pal at the Minersville School and engage in the practice of law in Pittsburg. Mr. Riddle has for a number of years occupied a prominent position in educational circles. part they are to take in the "Fall of Atlanta," which is to be given by Post 88 and in which Camp 33 is to take part. Sergeant Farren, of Camp 33, will take a prominent character in the

G. A. R. Post 41 has presented sheet music containing a number of new selections, to the pupils of the Washington School. A chorus of 200 voices from the Washington School will sing MRS. ELLA L. JONES, of Altoona, Pa. National President of the Ladies' Aid Socicties, has during the past week been visiting at the exercises next Decoration Day. Major Davis and wife and other friends in this . . .

Miss Engenia Rayburn, of the O'Hara School encouraging report of the condition of her charge. During the past year the membership was on Friday evening elected writing and drawing teacher of the Howard School. of the organization has nearly doubled, and the . . . Enancial condition of the national body has so day. The report contains a number of remarks The High School class, teachers and princiand suggestions of interest to the different or pal, Miss Rose McCleary, of the Albion School, ganizations, and gives the details of the work-ings of the Guard for the past year. During the visited the Verestchagin collection last Tues day evening. . . .

ings of the Guard for the past year. During the year 275 commissions were issued, 174 having expired and 87 being recommissioned, The num-her of marksmen in the division was increased to 4,549, of whom 1,049 were sharpshooters, General Hastings also recommends the building of a new State arsenal with facilities for the manu-facture of ammuniton to be used by the Guard. The report, as a whole, shows that the State militin has made considerable advancement toward perfection during the administration of the late Adjutant General. Generat, Willey has announced the dates The Teachers' Permanent Certificate Committee yesterday completed its examination held for the last five Saturdays at the Miller uilding. Arithmetic and business forms street b were the final studies.

Cleveland last Friday in the person of G. W. Peek, of Encampment No. 30. AFTER April 1 Encampment No. 6 will The regular meeting of the Minersville change its meeting place from the hall at 54 School Board is next Tuesday evening. The contest over the election of a Central Board representative may be decided then and may not. GENERAL WILEY has announced the dates for the regular annual inspections of the Second Brigade. The Sixteenth Regiment heads the . . .

The Dean Literary Society of the High School holds their twentieth annual entertainment next Friday evening at the High School chapel. The Phi Kappa Pi Society has its an-nual entertainment scheduled for March 20. . . .

23, and ending with Company F, at Indiana, April 6. The Tenth Regiment follow, Mrs. Van Waggoner, the new supervisor of drawing in the schools, has been visiting many of the schools during the week, taking them in of the schools during the week, taking them in numerical order. When she understands what is most required in this branch she will likely organize classes for instruction.

THE School Review under its new management is attracting a great deal of attention among teachers. It makes a feature of illusthe anniversary ceremonies a grand banquet will be held. rating, and the March issue contains a splen trating, and the plaren issue contains a splen-did portrait of General Sherman. It is well edited by Mr. Will S. Power, and the business end of it is in the hands of Mr. Edwin M. Brickell. The young gentlemen evidently have the proper conception of what their jour-nal should be, and well deserve the success that is clearly theirs. is already theirs.

. . . ACCORDING to the census bulletin, just issued at Washington, the number of pupils in the State of Pennsylvania on June 2 last was 965,444-461,953 male and 475,953 female. There are 24,493 teachers-16,111 females and 8,382 males. Allegheny county has 82,571 pupils-41,582 males and 40,989 females-and 1,601 medical teachers.

Mr. G. L. Faurote, Niles, Mich., states GOSSIP OF THE GUARDS. that while engaged in business in Indiana be handled a full line of Chamberlain's medicines, and that his sales on Chamber-MAJOR J. C. KAY is recovering from a bad lain's Cough Remedy were very large. The attack of the grip, contracted while East several weeks ago, remedy, he said, gave first class satisfaction

The second s

A MEETING of the Board of Control of the to his patrons; also, that he always used it Eighteenth Regiment was held last evening in the Diamond Street Armory and a number of routine matters transacted. exclusively in his own family whenever remired and with the most gratifying results. Let anyone troubled with a severe cough or COMPANIES A and B of the Eighteenth Regiment were inspected by Colonel Smith last Monday evening, both organizations appearing to advantage, particularly Company B, and Lieutenant Wassell was complimented for good results of his labor during the past year. A BILL has been introduced in the State Leg-wsu islature providing for the pensioning of any member of the National Guard who may be injured while on duty. The bill is a most worthy one, and should be favorably consid-ered. Lexislation of a similar character has been passed in a number of Western States.

MAJOR PATTERSON, the Second Brigade In spector, returned home last Wednesday from a trip through the East. The Major's inspection orders this year require him to make a memororders this year require him to make a memor-andum of the cash balance of State funds each company commander has on haud. Judging from the inancial condition of most of the city companies, Major Patterson will not have much trouble remembering the amounts of the bal-of cases and numbers among his patients man to the wiles of the genial Alex., by this time of our most prominent families. Patients living the latter is no doult quite a landed proprietor. at a distance can be treated at their own homes GOVERNOR PATTISON has announced the Call or address appointment of Major W. W. Greenland, of

DR. J. VAN DYCK. 502 Pean avenue, Pittsburg

Hours: 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. | Book Free, mh7-ssu

A DELIGHT TO LADIES!

A clear, lovely complexion! How to obtain it? Why! n=e Madame A. Ruppert's World-Renowned Face Bleach. It will positively do all that is claimed, will remove all blemishes, moth freekles, discolorations or any skin discase. It is harmiess for external use, is not a smetic, but a skin tonic, leave the skin soft, nooth and white. Call or send 4 cents in stamps for scaled particulars. Price, $2 per bottle, three bottles for $5, the usual amount required.

MME. A. RUPPERT,

Rooms 203 and 204 Hamilton Building, 93 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburg, Pa. fe8-8n

TRAVEL TO EUROPE WILL BE UN-USUALLY heavy this season, and accom-nodations should be secured early. We repre-sent the most popular steamship lines, soil drafts, foreign coin, etc. MAX SCHAMBERG dc.Co. 527 Smithfield st., Pittsburg, Pa. Es-tablished 1886. fell-wsu

That will interest every lady. Becent arrivals of new and beautiful Dress Goods war-rant us in saying that their equal was never seen in this market at the prices asked. P. S.-Our Cloak Department is offering you some choice garments at less than cost o dispose of this remaining stock.

sale by druggists. THE best portraits that have been painted in this city for years have been from photographs taken by Dabbs, and the likeness in Mr. Dabbs' conception.

WE will call on you with samples and furnish estimates on furniture reupholstery. HAUGH & KEENAN, 33 Water street, su

COMRADE LOUIS SCHULTZ, of Post 155, is bephens, on next Friday. The meeting will be an open one, and will doubtless be largely attend-ed. The lecture was delivered before Encamp-ment No. 1 not long ago. ELABORATE arrangements are being made by Eucampment No. 1 for the celebration of # received the following lotter: "We have great pleasure in extending through you to the many posts throughout Alleghen, county a most cordial invitation to take part in our grand parade on Wednesday. April 29, at 1 o'clock P. M., during the week of our annual encampment, which convenes here. We have secured a l-cent rate from every rail-road reaching here. We have that we may greet at that time a harge representation from every post in your district. "W. F. RIDGELY, "Chairman of the General Commut.ee." Lee's surrender on April 9. It will take place at Turner Hall, Forbes street, Many promiat Turner Hall, Forbes street. Many promi-nent men are expected, including Generals Bragg, of Wisconsin: Butterfleid, of New York, and Duvall, of West Virginia, and Major Faimer, of Brooklyn. All national officers are expected also. The Second Brigade Band and a fine quarter are on the programme. Several of the first singers of the city will assist. After