BY F. MARION CRAWFORD,

A BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR KEECH'S.

The coming spring season opens under most auspiciously favorable circumstances for Pittsburg's far-famed Cash and Credit Emporium. The stock now displayed under the roof of this concern is the largest ever shown here, the styles the most desirable, the qualities the most reliable, the prices away down at rock bottom, the system of easy payments as liberal as enterprise and civility can make it, the salesrooms (owing to recent additions) more spacious and larger than ever before, Verily, not many houses have ever had the good fortune to open a season amid such promising prospects
