THE MUSIC WORLD,

Plans of the Mozart Club to Transform Old City Hall Into a First-Class Auditorium.

A TEN-YEAR LEASE TO BE ASKED.

Getting Ready to Carry Out the Broad Project of a Lecture Series and Free Tuition.

CONCERT FOR THE STATE TEACHERS.

A Budget of News Items for Lovers of the Art Divine is This Neighborhood.

The Mozart Club comes to the front again with broad and far-reaching plans, calculated to be of much advantage to our musical community, if they be realized.

At last Monday's rehearsal it was announced that a wealthy friend and patron of the club had signified his desire to present it with a pipe organ, practically equivalent in size and quality to the fine instrument in Carnegie Hall, Allegheny. The enterprising managers the club have for some time been endeavoring to obtain from the city fathers a long-term lease-10 or 15 yearso Old City Hall, and it is their intention, i the lease is given, to remodel the old auditorium completely. The exits will be increased and improved-a most desirable feature; the rear ball of the hall will be fitted with movable platforms by which the seats will rise in thers; the gallery will be extended around the sides and improved; the stage will be altered into better permanent snape for concert purposes and the new, big organ built in at the back, and the whole hall reserved, seated and fitted up as a first-class auditorium should be. Here is a chance for Pittsburg to begin next season with a convenient and suitable concert hall, seating 1,500 or 1,600 people, or more on a pirch-just the thing we have so sadly needed for years. The importance of this reed in our musical life is such as to give every reason to all music-lovers to exert their influence, if there were need for it, in stuer to assure the granting of the lease by the municipal authorities,

In that hall will be accommodation for all manner of high-class musical and other assemblages that now seek in vain for suitable quarters and are stunted and discouraged for lack of them. The presence of a comlete cencert organ will give opportunity for the organ recitals (and the practice instruexisted and have proved such a popular boon in Allegheny, even without the patrobage and overseeing of such a body as the

About the first of April the club will move into its new headquarters in the Hostetter block on Fourth avenue. There it will have a rehearsal room holding 300 or more persons, besides half a dezen rooms leaching purposes, etc., several of which if last be in a position to carry out its broad plans for series of lectures on topics and free tuition, which were length in this department some time aga, It is also in contemplation to publish from that bendquarters a monthly musical journal, to be the official organ of the club and to include the librettos for its own concerts and the programme of the organ rethereby saving present expenses and paper. The reheared room will also, it is expected, serve as a half for recital pur-

make their new rooms a veritable head center of active musical in-fluence along the most varied and useful lines, while their hoped-for permanent con-cert hall and its grand organ are to fur-nish opportunities for the larger musical enterprises that should be the fruit of such

The plans are laid; the workers are thoroughly in earnest. The greater part of the money at first needed is already in It remains for the general musical sublic, by their support and patronage of a nat has already long been Pittsburg's foremost musical organization, to assure and make permanently successful these admirably framed plans for advancing the com-

Even in that case the concert must have been charmed as a double benefit in its results, both a the managers and to the association. And that wanted here be in that to grumble at? I had as a matter of fact the minuagers of the star Course were not "in a hole" when they decided to the association all the profits of this second, the sund'season-ticket sale made to vision that there would be a large loss on his concert, funds here would be a large loss on his concert, funds hope previous and accessfully given two or three previous and accessfully given two or three previous fully given two or three previous the strings with the same small sale icities) then their prudent course issen to cancel the concert, for set they had abundant time and one and referr the few dollars to the tucket like and one with the last like a of the potocoad series. The less they it is baid from the season sale just so much excater was the risk they voluntarily assed on behalf of the association in guaranteg the large expenses.

the greater was the transportation in guaranentered on behalf of the association in guarantreing the large expenses.

These considerations are ample to expose the later coupliness of certain published croakings, and this much the writer deems it proper

CHARLES SANTLEY, the famous English burstone, will soon sail for America; his tour bugins at Montreal March 31.

MR. ANTON SEIDL and his excellent orchesre and his notable programmes will again form the musical attraction at Brighton Beach for landweeks beginning June 27. Mr. Seidl will per $10,000, and deserve it, too. ANOTHER feminine composer has won suc-es in England-Mess Resalind Efficient, daughter of the Eistop of Gloucester, whose dramatic eventure has been given at the Worcester Fes-tical and at the Crystal Palace, London. I Casca Mani will leave Havre for Nuw York, March 14, to make an American tour, which will include Boston, New York, Chicago and the festivals at Indianapolis and Friesburg. MR. HARRY M. MAYS, the baritone, whose incipient fame while a former resident of Pitts burg has been largely extended by his success as a church and concert singer in Philadelphia during the last year or two, has been brought back here by the mutations of business, and his rich voice will once more be heard in the land of iron and steel. Two of New York's leading musical weeklies have lately printed likenesses of Antonia Mielke, of the Metropolitan Opera House, who is to be a prime attraction at Pittsburg's May Festival. The Courier says of her: "Mrs. Mielke's work during the season has been ad-mirable, distinguished for musical sincerity and dramatic force." IT is stated that Mr. Ad. M. Foerster's symphonic poem, "Thusnelda," is to be given by Carl Venth in Brooklyn on the 29th inst.; that his string trio is to be played at Easton, Pa., early next month, and that Mr. Seidl is going to open our May Festival appropriately with a new "Festival March" from the pen of Pittsburg's well-known composer.

MRS. J. E. PORTER, the well-known soprano, will close her ten years of musical activity in this community with her appearance next Saturday afternoon at the free organ recital in Carnegie Hall, Allegheny, Mrs. Perter ex-pects to leave next week to join her husband, who has located at Roanoke, Va. MANAGERS HENRICKS AND WEBSTER an sounce the postponement from the loth to the 24th inst, of the next concert of the Star Course at Carnegie Hall. Miss May Beesley will sing; the other performers have not yet been definitely decided upon. The last concert of the course, which was to come in April, has been abandoned and holders of season tickets will have a proportional part of the price refunded to them on application.

AT the meeting of the Art Musicale in Mr. P. J. Bussman's studio last Thursday evening the programme was carried out by Miss Mamie Renck Miss E. Lewis, Miss N. Becker Miss Frankie McCreery, Miss E. Oehmler, Miss Mary Bankerd, Messrs. F. J. Bussman, Leo Oehmler, John A. Stronss, F. W. Bearl, Ross W. Drum and John A. Bell. Mr. Oehmler played Ethelbert Nevin's "Habanera" for vio-lin, which is still hot from the press.

LILLI LEHMANN is to get 600 florins a night orsinging six times at the Vienna Court Opera House. This is said to be the largest fee ever paid to an artist there; Lilli got twice as much in New York. Then they say that Jean de Reszke is to have $1,000 a night during the London opera season—one of the biggest figures ever paid there for a tenor—and this is to be increased by Mr. Abbey for his services at the Metropolitan, New York, next season. Truly, the English-speaking lands are the singers' El' Dorado.

AT the fourth Peabody Symphony concert, given at Baltimore last night, was given the first performance of a new symphonic poem, by Mr. Richard Burmeister, of that city. It is enitled "The Chase After Fortune" (Die Jagd tuch dem Glueck), and is said to have been inspired by Henneberg's well-known painting of the same title. Presumably Mr. Burmeister's musical translation of the color poem differs widely from that made by Franz von Suppe in bis operetta of the same title, known to Ameri-can audiences as "Clover."

ART SOCIETY's one bundred and sixty-second recention, to be held next Thursday evening, at the society's rooms, Academy of Science and for which so strong a need has have proved such a popular Mr. Beveridge Webster, in his talk on "Musical Motives and Their Manipulation," will use as examples the Scherzos in Beethoven's Opus 2. Nos. 2 and 3 and it is hoped to see most of the auditors bringing their music along. Mrs. Kate Morgan Smith, soprano; Miss Elizabeth Webster, planiste, and Miss Sybil Smith, accompanist, will assist in the rest of the programme.

In the Vienna Musikalische Rundschau of February 10 this announcement is made: "Theodore Reichmann will be back in Vienna in April, when he will give a grand concert with orchestra in the great Musikverein's hall. The artist will be heard in excerpts from 'The The artist will be heard in excerpts from 'The Flying Dutchman,' 'Haus Helling,' 'Vamnyre,' 'Meistersinger' and 'Walkure,' 'How's this, Mr. Retter? Is not the principal barntone of the Pittsburg festival tied tightly enough to prevent his running away home so early? Since the possibility of Niemann's coming here for the festival has during the week become an impossibility, let us trust that this Reichmann runnor is but a canard. rumor is but a canard.

The comparison is anything but complimentar: to Philacelphia. This, from the Philadelphia Music and Drama, is a generous comparison, but it mus be remembered tha Pittsburg does not, like the Eastern metropolis, possess several good musical monthlies and such a bright weekly to supply the same dem. nd. Acknowledgment is also due to Chicago e leading musical paper, the Indicator for its kindly reference last week to the "well-written musical department" of this journal.

CONSTANTIN STEENBERG IS compine out to CONSTANTIN STERNBERG is coming out to this neck of the woods at last. That this is good news the regular reader will already know from past reference in these columns to this excellent planist, composer, essayist and teacher, who is said to be a prince of good fellows to boot, and who certainly constitutes one Last Word on the Benefit.

The recent cancert for the benefit of the Pennsylvania State Augo Teachers' Association did no vality to that the tensury the sum of 120 52, one-half of the indebtedness that the Philadelphia meeting left hanging threateningly over the association.

[Communicated.] THE NEW GOVERNMENT. THE CONTEST FOR THE HEADS OF

DEPARTMENTS IN ALLEGHENY. Chief Murphy Has the Call as Old Public Safety-A Councilman Gives His Reasons Why He Should Be Elected.

The contest for chiefs of the different departments of the new city government of Allegheny will be settled to-morrow. It has been a warm one, and at its close can virtually be said to be settled in the interest of John R. Murphy for Chief of Public Safety. In speaking of the matter last night a prominent member of Allegheny Councils said: "It is about over, and I am glad of it. At the beginning of the contest I was opposed to Chief Murphy, but have every reason now to change my mind, and am for him and believe he will be elected. The application of the tartial last was made. publication of that article last week made him hosts of friends. His manly confes-sion of a youthful indiscretion, and saying to the people of Allegheny I stand upon my record with you for the last 20 years. It you are not satisfied with that, then do not elect me. But if you think my services have been such as to entitle me to your confidence, then I have every right to appeal to you for your support. Take Murphy as he is, and I tell you he deserves a great deal of credit for the record he has made in every public position in which he has been placed. He was born and raised in Allegheny, and his mother and sister are still living here. Called to fill the position of Chief of Police under Mayor Wyman, the first time he ran, and filling it with a great deal of ability, and then under ex-Mayor Pearson, assuming a subordinate position and filling that to the satisfaction of Mayor Pearson and his chief, and with so much ability that at the great Knights Templar gathering at Washington he was selected by the Allegheny commanderies to accompany them as a guard against thieves and pickpockets. Three years ago he was appointed to the position of mercantile appraiser of the county, and filled the bill to the complete satisfaction of the commissioners. When Mayor Wyman was re-elected he reappointed Murphy as Chief, and he certainly has done his full duty. He has cleared the city of thieves, so much so that, excepting petty thieving generally done by small boys, a robbery of any kind is rarely heard of. Now, that is his record, and it is known to every citizen of Allegheny, and should he be elected Chief of Public Safety, which I believe he will be, you mark me if his administration of the affairs of the office will not be of such a character as to call forth the hearty commendation of even those who now oppose him. Why don't he come back at the people who are villifying him? Well, I asked him that, and he declined on the ground that while he had any amount of ammunition to fire at them he did not believe in feshion. them, he did not believe in fighting a cam-paign in that way; that if what a man did when he was a boy were to be counted against us all now, I tell you we would all hide our heads. I know of my own knowledge that he has information which, if pub-Ished on some of his opponents, would create a decided sensation; but when he gave me his reason, I was compelled to admit that it was the manly way in which to be a candidate for office. They have said their worst about him, and he admits the New Year's eve frolic, but the charges against him have fallen so flat that I know myself of at least three votes who have changed to him on account of it. Do you remember the manner in which Hartranft was villified when he first ran for Goyernor, and how he was beaten until the abuse became worse, when the reaction set in and he was triumpi antly elected? So it will be with Murphy. If the voters o. Allegheny had their way in making this selection he would be chosen by a vote of ten to one, for Murphy never, when he was able refused to do a man a favor and those who know him best are his closest friends. Allegheny Councilmen will make no mistake never have occasion to regret it by electing him to-morrow night. He has the executiv him and will do all I can." THE beautiful display of spring millinery goods in one of Kaufmauns' show windows (Fifth avenue side) is but a mere indication of the more beautiful display within. New millinery department opens to-morrow.

WILL HAVE A NEW CHURCH. Coraopolis Presbyterians Outgrow Their

Old Meeting House. Presbyterianism is flourishing in Corapolis. Some years ago Miss Sarah Me-Fadden decided that Forest Grove was too far away from Coraopolis, and after a great deal of hustling from Presbytery to Synod and back again, and giving no rest to the sole of her feet for many months, she succeeded in securing ground and constructing an edifice. She got a part, or perhaps all of the pews, out or Dr. Strong's church, on Smithfield street, Some thought the church ample for all time, but the energy of Calvin's followers has dissipated that idea, and Rev. Mr. Cochran will likely soon preside in a new and larger sanctuary. J. H. McCabe, Sr., has enlarged his dona-tion of land, and plans have been made for a $14,000 structure, $8,000 of which have already been subscribed, and the remainder is expected to be procured soon. The present building will be moved to the rear, and while the new structure is building will be used for services, after which it is proposed to convert it into a schoolhouse or some other purpose for congregational uses.

MARKET STREET. Store, 433 WOOD ST HAIR ON THE FACE, NECK, ARMS OR ANY PART OF THE PERSON

AND THE GROWTH FOREVER DESTROYED WITHOUT THE SAIGHTENT INCEXT OF DISCOLORATION OF THE MOST DELICATE SEIN.—DISCOVERED BY ACCIDENT.

IN COMPOUNDING, an incomplete mixture was accidentally spilled on the back of the hand, and on washing afterward it was discovered that the heir was completely removed. We purchased the new discovery and named it:

MODENE. It is perfectly pure, free from all injurious substances, and so simple any one can use it. It acts mildly but surely, and you will be surprised and delighted with the results. Apply for a few minutes and the hair disappears as if by magic. It has no resemblance whatever to any other preparation ever used for a like purpose, and no scientife discovery ever attained such wonderful results. IT CANNOT FAIL. If this growth be light, one application will remove it permanently; the heavy growth such as the beard or hair on moles may require two or more applications before all the roots are destroyed, although all hair will be removed at each application, and without the slightest injury or unpleasant feeling when applied or ever afterward.— woobset represents electroctriss.—

Recommended by all who have tested its merits—Used by people of refinement.—Gentlemen who do not appreciate nature's gift of a beard, will find a priceless boom in Modene, which does away with shaving. It dispolves and destroys the life principle of the hair, thereby rendering its future growth as nutter impossibility, and is guaranteed to be as harmlesse as water to the skin. Young persons who find an embarrassing growth of hair coming, which we have the principle of the hair, thereby rendering its future growth as nutter impossibility, and is guaranteed to be as harmlesse as water to the skin.
