Mr. Duffy passed through Chicago a few days ago in his way to Hot Springs and estopped off a day. The result was a temporary shelving of World's Fair topics by the Chicago press and the wholesale use of upper-case D's in reducing to type what Mr. Duffy did and said.

About five years ago this celebrated member of the Duffy family was cleaning out sewers in a New England town for the sum of $2 a day. That was all right, for sewers must be cleaned out, you know, and it isn't every man who has the gift to do it right. In addition to the increased partonage attached by the animated rivalry which would naturally exist between the clubs in the struggle for championson honors. The Crockery City Baseball Association is probably in better shape to move in the matter than any other associa-tion in the valley, as they already have grounds in shape and are strongly organized, with plenty of good material from which to select a inst-class team. The consolidation of the Crockery City and Eclupse clubs has brough all the desirable ma-terial under one minagement, and we would have no fear of being able to make a great light for the honors when the season opens. To bring the proposed league down to some-thing of a practical nature it is suggested to have a meeting to the near future at some cen-trally located place (probably Stubenville) and effect an organization. He also urged the citi-zens to aid the men, and in return asked the men to patronize the local merchants instead of the company stores. James McBride and Mike Dismon also made strong addresses. At the close of the meeting the following resolution was adopted: the only outcome was another tight. They have had a falling out with John T. Brush, if what is said can be believed. The appointment of the committees, consisting of Abel, O'Neill and Robinson, to "help' in the Cincinnati question is significant. It is said that this committee has online charge of the matter and that Brush will be given the "go by" for this reason-Brush wants too much. He wants the League franchise in Cin-cinnati, the support financially of the other League clubs and the balance of the $80,000 due him on the Indianapolis deal. The League men argue that Brush should be willing to shoulder the cxpense of the new Cincinnati club himself, and for this reason a split be-tween them and the will Hoosier is the result. The trick failed, as the old man kept the girl with him while he was under arrest. He showed her marriage license and was dis-charged. Old man Perry began proceedings last night to annul the marriage. He says he will prosecute all parties connected with the marriage in the Ohio courts. A meeting of managers of amateur ball clubs located in and about Pittsburg will be held during the week to take steps toward organizing a local league.
