Gordon-Cumming Swears That He Will Fight It to the End.

LONDON, March 9.-The editor of the Dwarf interviewed Sir William Gordon-Cumming tomay and asked him about the events connected with the Tranby-Croft scandal. Sir Gordon said in the course of the conversation that he had decided to take a trip south and thought he should go to Spain where he should remain until called here for the action he is taking. The interviewer asked whether there was any truth in the report that an abandon ment of the action of a compromise had been at one time contemplated. Sit Gordon replied tigorously: "No, I will be firm as a rock on this matter, and shall see the terrible business out to its end. Don't you realize that everything in my whole life is at stake?" The Ducary added in printing this in-terview that despite the determined attitude of the accursed man, it feels confident the case will never come to trial, and it would have been amicably sectiled long since were it not for the podurate tenacity displayed by one of the par-tires to the now famous compact. at one time contemplated.

A Lion Takes Part in a Performance That Was Not on the Bills.

BY DUNLAP'S CABLE COMPANY.]

PARIS, March 9 .- A sensations' accident oc curred yesterday at the Cirque d Hiver, where the spectacle of "Nero" is being performed. In the piece lions are introduced, and they had gone through their part as usual, and all had returned to their cage at the close of the performance except one, whereupon the keeper, a man named Seeth, attempted to force him back by using a steel-pointed thong. The animal, however, did not take kindly to the method of coercion, and turned on Seeth, knocking the thong from his hands and fastening his teech in his legs. Secth should for help, and the assistants tried to drive off the beast with javelins and spears, keeping up such a sharp attack that the lion finally released his hold and slunk into his cage, but the wounded man is not expected to live.

LONDON, March 8.-Newspapers here print a statement from Mr. Alcock, Secretary of the Surrey Cricket Club, that he is cancelling the fixtures made for the American Cricket Team by E. H. Crowhurst. In an interview with a by E. H. Crowhurst. In an interview with a correspondent Mr. Alcock sold he made ar-rangements with Mr. Crowhurst to play all the best English cricket clubs against the Ameri-can team providing it was first class. He cabled to America December 7, asking for particulars and got an answer that the team would leave for England in May. Soon afterward Alcock saw in the American newspapers notices that there were dissensions in selecting the team and that it would not be first-class in any re-spect. After waiting for advices from Mr. Crowburst, and hearing nothing, Mr. Alcock notified all the English teams that negotiations were ended. Cow Butter Way Up in G. Cow butter, or at least what purports to be such, is retailing at 40 cents a pound, and some think that if it were not for bull butter the former would be run up to 75 cents or $1, and yet hay is cheaper than it has been any time previous at this season of the year in the life of the present generation.

Sickness Causes a Postponement.

The twentieth annual entertainment of the Dean Literary Society, which was scheduled to take place at the High School Chapel on March 13, has been postponed. The cause is said to be the illness of some of the participants.

To cure costiveness the medicine must be more than a purgative; it must contain tonic, alterative and cathartic properties.
