SENSATIONAL SUITS.

A Note Extorted From a Gentleman by a United States Marshal.

JUDGMENT BROUGHT ON THE NOTE.

A Tin Plate Factory One of the Possibilities at Scranton.

THE NICELYS RECEIVE ROOM MATES

PURCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. facts will no doubt be brought out in the trial here, March 18, on the motion to have a judgment of $10,000 against H. E. Sutherland set aside. Mr. Sutherland's affidavit states that he is a merchant, and has been a resident of this place for 30 years. One week ago last Saturday two men—one of them United States Marshal Barring—entered his store and arrested him. They read no warrant and hustled him off to Wilkesbarre without even permitting him

At Wilkesbarre he was not allowed to see his attorney. He was taken to an unfrequented part of the city, into the third story of a building, where his fears were worked upon in every way Marshal Barring and Detective O'Brien. After this United States Commissioner Hahn released him until Monday. At the Luzerne Hotel, Barring and Sears visited him on Sunday, and told him he was in great danger of being sent to the pen-itentiary for sending libelous letters to Rev. Mr. Donehoo.

Mr. Donehoo.

Sutherland says he was excited and prostrated, and signed a note for $10,000, payable to the aforesaid Rev. Mr. Donehoo, and now finds that $4,000 of it had been assigned by that gentleman to United States Marshal Barring, who, he says, used improper influences to "work" him. Barring denies the affidavit, and the truth will likely come out at the trial.

to escape.

Dave Nicely received the news very quietly and only remarked that he could get along without quarreling. Both men slept badly last night and refused an interview with the newspaper men yesterday, and were rather prepared for the placing of the death watch.

BIG IRON SALE AT SCRANTON.

A Tin Plate Factory May Soon Be Established in That City.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. Moffat's first official act under the consolida-tion was to notify the 2,000 employes of the two mills that half time orders ends to-day, and that hereafter full time will be worked. W. W. Scranton, the retiring President of the Scranton Steel Company, received $200,000 to attach his signature. to attach his signature to an agreement to re-main out of the steel rail business for two years. He is contemplating the location of a mammoth tin plate factory in Scranton.

THEY THREW INKSTANDS.

Two Representatives.

Head, of Little River, participating in a fight, The question of calling a Constitutional Convention was under consideration. Mr. Sevier having introduced a substitute for the Senate bill providing that the question should be sub-mitted to a vote of the people, instead of the Legislature calling the convention, as provided by the Senate bill.

Mr. Head, an Independent, said that from the vote cast two years ago in Boone county—370 for and 1,836 against—the people did not want a Constitutional Convention. Mitchell said the people of Boone county were not like those of Little River county, who went about shaking hands with the "niggers." The lie was then passed, and inkstands, spittoons and other articles that were calculated to do injury were exchanged between the two men. No one was injured during the fight, but several members were well bespattered with ink and tobacco juice. The Speaker ordered the Sergeant-at-Arms to place the disturbers under arrest. The both apologized.

A NEW WAY OF MAKING SUGAR,

It Is Successfully Used by a Manufacturing Firm in Cuba. HAVANA, March 12.-News from Cienfuegos states that the proprietors of a large sugar plantation near that city are converting into sugar all the molasses produced on their estate. They use in this conversion a new process, which has just been employed by them, and which affords admirable results. It is stated that no chemical agent enters into the operation, and that the sugar is naturally obtained by mixing the molasses from the centrifugals with the cane ground in the first mill.
