WHY HEN TAKE THEIR OWN LIVES,

The Effectiveness of an Alibi Dilated Upon in Another Sermon.

OTHER PULPIT TOPICS OF YESTERDAY

"The Causes of Suicide" was the timely topic selected by Rev. Dr. J. G. Townsend, of the Unitarian Church, yesterday morning. During his remarks the doctor said: Suicide seems almost to be the fashion. Some, no doubt, take their lives because their minds are unbalanced. But suicide is usually the result of deliberate choice. Men flee to poison, the pistol, or the knife. because they are unwilling to face danger, sorrow, poverty or disgrace. Suicide is the result of mental or moral weakness; that is, of cowardice. Men fear to face the consequences, and leave, in their cowardice, their friends to face them. Any one can be bold enough to flee to pistol or the water, but it takes real courage to face a living danger with a new purpose, or atone a fault with a real re-

When an accused person establishes the fact that he was elsewhere when the crime charged against him was committed he has proved an alibl. So effective has this method of defense proved to he in the past that the temptation to employ it unjustly has led to the baldest perjury. It is a plea that requires to be rigidly examined and the testimony and the continuous period of the seathlishment of moncence. Courts are not generally inclined to look upon such a defense with favor, as it is discussed by faise testimony. THE PRAYER ANALYZED.

Rev. Mr. McCorkle Gives the Principles and Conditions of Prevailing Prayer. "Principles and Conditions of Prevailing Pirst Congregational Church, Allegheny, yes terday morning. Rev. S. N. McCorkle, the pastor, said:

"What are some of the foundation principles of prevailing prayer? First, the disposition to pray is ineradicable. Even the infidel, when calamity threatens or comes, is the first to loudly call on God. Every heathen or pagan sacrifice is a prayer. The second foundation principle is revealed in the way God has allowed Himself to be spoken of and the names by which He allows Himself to be called. The by which the allows Himself to be called. The instances are incumerable which filustrate this truth. Another foundation fact is the 300 definite promises about prayer and for the praying ones given in the Word of God.

Now, with these foundation principles, like 80 many flagstones to walk out upon in this investigation, we will see that the following conditions have place in every prayer that prevails: A sense of want, gratitude, humility, obedience, forgiveness of injuries, asking for approved objects, persistence, union with other praying ones, and appropriate effort.

WHY JUDGMENT IS WITHHELD.

God Stays the Avenger That the Sinner May Repent.

"Delay in the Execution of Sentence No Premium on the Commission of Sin" was the subject of the Rev. J. W. Sprouil's sermon at the Central R. P. Church, Sandusky street, Allegheny, yesterday morning. The subject was discussed in a general way. Mr. Sproull opened by saying that the seeming discrepan- the highest. Union services were held morning and even-ing yesterday by Trinity and St. Mark's congrecations of the Lutheran Church at Trinity Church, Arch street and Stockton avenue. The Rev. C. B. otwithstanding This, There Has Been a Falling Off in Production-It Looks as if Prices Would Not Go Up Higher for Some Time to Come.

The drill has revealed no astounding results in any section of the field for the past week. While this is true in the main, operations at Wildwood and McCurdy have been characterized with interest, and in third pools several important wells have made their advent. Notwithstanding there has been a batch of new ventures completed in the southwest district, there has been a slight decline in the production. The number of dry holes also is a conspicuous feature in the week's work, and in several localities where at least work, and in several localities where at least ordinary producers were looked for, diminutive wells and dusters were found. From some potent influence the market has depreciated 2½ cents since Monday's quetations, which added to the already gloomy aspect of the situation has not particularly inspired the average producer with brightened, lofty anticipations of a new era of prosperity in the immediate future. Just how long the present state of affairs will prevail cannot be predicted with any degree of certainty, but a careful and philosophical review of the trade in all its ramifications naturally leads to the presumption that the market value of crude will not be appreciated to any great degree for some time principal to flee to pistol or the water, but it takes real courage to face a living danger with a new purpose, or atone a fault with a real repeatance.

"It is even the fashion to teach the doctrine of suicide, as if one has the moral right to cut the ties of obligation which bind him to his fellows, or lay down the burden he himself ought to carry. The duty is, rather, to look through the crevice of opportunity out upon the great ocean of good."

In his sermon Dr. Townsend spoke on "The Rooms We Live In," saying, among other things: "Where does he live? The thought goes deep. Does he live in the wide and spacious rooms of the mansion of the soul, or does he live only in the basement of his nature? For in the soul's house there are many mansions, many rooms—not only the lower rooms of the passions, but the rooms of beauty, affection, justice, truth and aspiration. How many keep these beautiful rooms closed, and live in the basement of gluttony, intemperance and avarice?"

EFFECTIVENESS OF AN ALIBI.

Rev. E. B. Donehoo's Last Evening's Sermon on an Interesting Tople.

Last evening Rev. E. R. Donehoo, pastor of the Eighth Freshytierian Church, preached from the text: "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of snners, nor sitteth in the sermon the speaker said:

When an accused person establishes the fact that he was elsewhere when the crime charged.

the poverty, the need and the suffering about him. The sin was not in growing rich, for we are all expected to do that honorably if we can, but his fault was in failing to recognize that what came to him was for the use of others beside himself. To all men I would say, avoid selfisbness as you would a snake. No more serious mistake can be made than to believe that what we have belongs solely to us. While suffering and poverty exist in the world every man must be devoted to God and his fellowman."

THE PRAYER ANALYZED.

The old Riddle well is still drilling in the sand, but there is little hope of finding better singling. The well will be tubed in a few days. It looks like a 20 or 30 barrel pumper. Notwithstanding that two or six new wells have recently been added to the finished list the production has declined over 1.000 barrels. The highest day's production reached was about 1.200 barrels as shown in the appended table:

..2,915 McDonald—Recently there has been considerable talk in the country newspapers about a 150-barrel well on the McDonald farm, and a Pritsburg morning paper, as usual, has joined in the boom and no doubt will claim, as it always does, the first publication of this important piece of news.

There is no well in this neck of woods producing this amount of oil, nor was there ever any foundation for a report of this kind. The well referred to is most likely McDonald No. 2, which has been shot, and is producing from 10 to 12 barrels a day, presumably from the Gordon sand.

Saturday's Oil Markets. The market opened steady yesterday, with sales of about 30,000 barrels at 74%c. This was the hest of people. He then went on to show the wonderful mercy of God in delaying the hand of the avenger until the criminal had time to repent, and how often that fact is taken by that class to abuse God's mercy by simply continuing until they are hardened in sin.

In his closing thought the speaker brought on the idea of the wonderful confidence of a child of God, who believes that in the end the wicker will be punished for their sins and the good rewarded.

When we want to sell out at that rate we know where to dispose of the entire stock at once, without spending money to make it known. But when it comes to giving you good, honest, reliable footwear for little money, then we say not a firm in town can approach us. The goods they offer at still lower prices may look the same, but you'll find the difference in the wear.
