prospects are ior a still further advance. In grocery lines the feature of the week has been the rise of $\frac{3}{2}$ per pound in coffee, both green and roasted. The produce trade has developed nothing new. The looked-for rise in creamery butter failed to show up, and prices are substantially the same as a week ago. When creamery butter sells in a jobbing way at 380 Be per pound, as it has done the past week, it becomes a luxury and consumers di-minish. The decrease of consumers has checked the upward movement. The loss in butter consumption has been great gain to the dealers in butterine, who are now reaping their greatest harvest. prospects are for a still further advance.

Taint. Old chronic cases that physicians declare incurable are cured in every instance where S. S. S., has had a fair trial. I honestly believe that S. S. S. saved my life. I was afflicted with the very worst type of contagious blood poison and was almost a solid sore from head to foot. The physicians declared my case hopeless. I quit everything else and commenced taking S. S. S. After taking a few bottles I was cured sound and well.

was a rush to sell Lackawanna at the opening, but it soon became evident that there were supporting orders in the stock, all the offers being accepted with considerable bidding for the stock. The bears withdrew their forces in the face of this manipulation, and nothing was left to oppose the upward bent of the market. There was the usual dulhess and stagnation in the general list, but the stocks mentioned were joined by some others, while among the specialities Rome, Watertown and Ogenaburg continued to advance rapidly on slight sales, and scored a final gain of S per cent, closing at the highest price. National Cordage, Colorado Coal and others were conspicatus for strength, which continued right up to the close, notwith-standing a further loss of the banks' reserve, which is now brought below $10,000,000 for the first time in some weeks. The usual realizing sales in the last few minutes had scarcely any perceptible influence on the list, and the close Rales in the last few minutes had scarcely any perceptible influence on the list, and the close was quiet and firm at the best figures. In his moments of repentance, he would go home and take his little girl of 8 years, and embrace her convulsively, and cover her with adornments, and strew around her pictures and toys, and everything that could make her happy; and then, as though hounded by an o'll spirit, he would go out to the en-flaming cup and the house of shame, like a fool to the correction of the stocks.

Another Good Test in Choosing.

Again: Any amusement that gives you a dis-taste for domestic life is bad. How many bright domestic circles have been broken up by sinful amusements! The father went off, the mother went off, the child went off. There are to-day the fragments before me of blasted households. Oh, if you have wandered away I would like to charm you back by the sound of that one word "home." Do you not know that you have but hitle more time to give to domestic welfare? Do you not see, father, that you children are soon to go out lato the world, and all the influence for good you are to have over them you must have now? Death will break in them you must have now? Death will break in on your conjugal relations, and alas, if you have to stand over the grave of one who per-ished from your neglect! I saw a wayward husband standing at the the death-bed of his Christian wife, and I saw her point to a ring on her finger, and heard her say to her husband. "Do you see that ring?" He replied. "Yes, I see it." "Well," said she, "do you remember who put it there?" "Yes," said ne. "I put it there," and all the past seemed to rush upon him. If from our death-pillow we have to look back and see a life spent in sinful annusement, there will be a dart that will strike through our soul sharper than the dagger with which Virginis slew his child. The memory of the past will make us quake like Macbeth. The iniquities and riot-ing through which we have passed will come upon us, weird and skeleton as Meg Merrilies.
