THE WORK OF A SECRET SOCIETY.

MORE NEWS FROM THE COKE STRIKERS

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE ! STEUBENVILLE, March 19 .- Sheriff J. L. Curtis telegraphs to witnesses in this city that the trial of Francheschi Caruso for the murder of Michael Gallo, on the West Virginia side of the river, has been continued until the June term. In conversation with a very intelligent Italian this morning it was gleaned that it was not improbable that Caruso was a member of the Camorista, which bears to Naples the same relation that La Maña does to Sicily. This is more probable from the fact that one of the men killed by the incensed citizens of New Orleans Saturday was named Giaccimi New Orleans Saturday was named Giaccimi Caruso, and is unquestionably a cousin of the Italian now in jail for the killing of Gallo.

The informant says that the majority of the Italians about Pittsburg and vicinity are from the vicinity of Naples, and know the revengeful disposition of the Camorista. This is the reason most of them decline to say anything about this murder publicly, but among themselves they declare that Caruso must hang. Furthermore, to give more color to the fact that he belonged to an oath-hound band of assassins, it is cited that Caruso has braced up wonderfully lately, and is being furnished with plenty of money to defend his trial. It might be, if everything were known, that Gallo was a victim of the Gazzone de Malavira as much as for his money.

PROBABLY A MURDER,

What Was First Taken for an Accident Was Perhaps Premeditated. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH !

McKeesport, March 19.-The injuries Charles Parker, who fell from a car on the Baltimore and Ohio, will likely prove fatal. It was at first supposed he fell accidentally, but it now transpires that he was knocked off by some enemy, who struck him in the back with Parker was formerly a detective and was on the Tube Works police force. He brought a good many had citizens to time.

CARNEGIE'S ALLEGED BAD FAITH.

The Employes of the Closed Edgar Thomson Works Quote an Old Promise.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. BRADDOCK, March 19.-The vast number of workmen at the Edgar Thomson Steel Works are taking decided exception to the firm of Carnegie Brothers & Co. allowing the mill to remain idle. They say they received assurance from Andrew Carnegie three years ago that if they signed the sliding scale and returned to work the Edgar Thomson would run if not an-other mill in the United States was in opera-

Mr. Carnegie's words at that time were: "We will all be partners, and there will not be a man at this mill who will not be eligible to become a

NEGOTIATING WITH AN OPERATOR,

The Dunbar Furnace Company Will Probably Accede to Strikers' Demands. SPECIAL TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCHA SCOTTDALE, March 19.-Messrs, Hay and DeHaven, representing the United Mine Workers, renewed negotiations with the Dunbar Furnace Company to-day for a settlement of the strike at their plants. The company was offered the same conditions extended to Dillinger and the other independent producers—that of resuming at the old rates, with level full wagons at the face of the mines, and no nonwagons at the face of the unionists to be employed.

The company has the proposition under consideration, and it is expected will accept it, when other small operators will likely follow.
