Lord Salisbury Finds the Newfoundland Matter a Serious Question. PARLIAMENT IS AGITATED. Even Conservatives Desire Colonial Wishes to be Respected. FEARS OF A REVOLT EXPRESSED. The Island and French Hostility Not Desired by Uncle Sam.

GOSSIP FROM THE ENGLISH CAPITAL. (FOOTPRINT, 1891, BY THE NEW YORK ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LONDON, March 20.—The gravity of the Newfoundland question only begins to dawn on the country. In yesterday evening's debate in the House of Lords the leaders on both sides avoided, as far as possible, touching probable conflicts between the streets of London, which they could not avoid imparting an impression that developments are likely which may give rise to serious trouble.

Lord Salisbury, in the gravest of recent ministerial deliveries, weighing every word with care, admitted that it was difficult to look without grave apprehension to the future, in view of the strong feeling in France against the slightest relaxation even of the most extreme and unreasonable of her claims. Lord Salisbury refrained from disclosing what indications would be offered to Mr. Ribot, the French Foreign Minister, to consent to an arrangement satisfactory to Newfoundland. He was equally reticent on the question whether armed coercion would be used to enforce the Knutsford bill.

Salisbury's Ominous Declaration. The island, he said, had been the sport of historic misfortune; it was an illustration of the continuity of history. These phrases recall speeches on the same side which have justified the worst form of Irish oppression. The debate has profoundly agitated the members of the House of Commons. Sir J. P. Hennessy intended to-night to move an adjournment in order to immediately challenge the Government policy, but was induced to postpone his motion in view of the fact that the Government is settling against the bill as a too stringent measure.

Lord Kimberley's partial assent to Lord Salisbury's proposed amendment does not represent either the feeling of the Liberals or the policy of the Liberal leaders. The tone of communications exchanged to-day by Mr. Gladstone, Mr. Morley and other Liberal leaders is in a strong measure in favor of the Newfoundland Government, and has Sir J. P. Hennessy moved to adjourn he would have had a following sufficiently strong to force the Government to reconsider its position. The Government is settling against the bill as a too stringent measure.

Pressure From Conservatives Also. If Mr. Smith's reply on Monday does not meet the wishes of the Liberals, the Government will have to face, in addition to the parliamentary resistance, a strong pressure among the Conservatives to concede the delay which the Newfoundland Legislature asks before passing the bill. Lobbying to-night and to-morrow will be very active and will place until the delegates of the Newfoundland Legislature who are coming to London, he had ample time to be heard. Lord Salisbury declares that any attempt by the Newfoundland Legislature to pass measures necessary to secure the temporary modus vivendi. The Liberal leaders will advise the delegates to begin a new crusade in support of Newfoundland in demanding that the final settlement include the withdrawal of the French from the Newfoundland coast, opinions gleaned in the lobby of Parliament from the members of parties, agree that it is impossible to permit the Government to concede colonies.

News From Chile. Advice from Paris relative to the importance of Rebel Achievements. PARIS, March 20.—Official advice from Chile received here say that the insurgents now only occupy Talca, Iquique and Panguay, and that the rest of the country is quiet. These advices also state that the Government is concentrating its troops on the borders of the northern province of Tarapaca.

AN HONEST MAN. Turns Over $10,000 Found by Him That Had Laid on the Streets for Weeks. (BY DENNIS'S CABLE COMPANY.)

PARIS, March 20.—A purse containing $10,000 in cash was lying about the streets of Croix-Rouge, where it had lain for five weeks, mixed with slush and snow, until it was finally picked up by a passerby on Monday last. The finder was honest, so the tradition tells, and turned over the treasure to the authorities, and they carefully put the money away in the safe and looked for the owner who had lost it. Their search was for a long time without result, until finally they discovered that the pocketbook had been the property of an officer, who had been dead in the streets for some time, close to where the money was found. There is, therefore, no doubt that this wealth has been lying in the streets ever since.

MOVING TOWARD PARIS. Boulanger Takes Up His Residence in a Brussels Suburb. (BY DENNIS'S CABLE COMPANY.)

PARIS, March 20.—The Boulangerists have just permitted to be announced that General Boulanger has taken a small house in the suburbs of Brussels, where they expect him to remain permanently. The rate that was made on the houses of several parties suspected of favoring Boulanger yesterday is supposed to have been incited by the fear that the general himself, taking up his residence so near to Paris, might begin a new crusade against the Government. The Boulangerists, however, claim that nothing was discovered in this raid that would bear out any such idea.

THE SOCIALIST MAY DAY. Resolutions Passed to March Over the Dead Bodies of Men Who Interfere. He said the figures and marks upon them were in the handwriting of one of his clerks. He could not tell whether or not the $3,000 had been paid Monday or not. The books would show. He did not remember that any currency had been paid out of the bank since the last remittance to the Fresno office in San Francisco, the Crocker Woolworth Bank.

WORSE THAN FIRST REPORTED. The Louisville Bank Failure Turns Out to Be a Very Bad One. LOUISVILLE, March 20.—The failure of Theodore Schwarz & Co., bankers, turns out more seriously than was first supposed. Their liabilities will reach nearly $750,000, and it is probable that not more than 10 cents on the dollar will be paid. The firm has kept up for several months past its most desperate efforts, and the legality of its operations during that time is now questioned. A large number of transfers of real estate have been made, and several sales have already been brought to set aside such transfers. The amount of these real estate transactions is about $103,000.

OMAHA, Neb., March 20.—Several witnesses for the plaintiff testified in the Captain Catley court martial to-day. They were non-commissioned officers and privates, and all agreed that the captain joined his command within six hours after it took the field against the Indians December 30. RELIGIOUS POLITICS. COMMISSIONER MORGAN REQUESTED TO STEP DOWN AND OUT. He is Charged With Discriminating Against Catholics as School Teachers—A Wholesale Removal in Wisconsin—President Harrison Demands His Resignation.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—President Harrison is after the scalp of Indian Commissioner Morgan, and he has telegraphed him at Chicago that his resignation would be acceptable, not only to himself but to the Interior Department. The causes leading up to this action are interesting, and favor religious politics. Mr. Morgan's protest bears so heavy a cross that it is fair to say that the Senate debated a long time before confirming his nomination to his present place. It is charged that he has been running his bureau in the interests of those of the Protestant faith, and instructed the Indian agents all over the country that they were not to exercise to show any favors to the school teachers of the Catholic belief. The result is said to have been that his orders were obeyed to the letter, and only Protestant teachers were favored.

BETTER SECURITY WANTED. Mr. Stewart Shows Where a Dishonest Treasurer Could Rob the State. Representative Samuel Stewart, of Verona, went to Philadelphia last night to attend a meeting of the committee to prepare a plan for the better protection of the State treasury. Mr. Stewart says at times the Treasurer's office has as much as $100,000 more at his disposal. His bonds call for $500,000. A dishonest man could easily reimburse his bondsmen and skip with the balance to Canada or Brazil.

It was one of the finest in the city, and among its members are some of the wealthiest and most prominent residents of St. Louis. Rev. Myron Hodges is the pastor. The cornerstone was laid May 30, 1873. The church cost $115,000, and was insured for $60,000.

THE LARGEST MORTGAGE ON RECORD. The Directors are Arranging to Saddle It on the Union Pacific. NEW YORK, March 20.—Sidney Dillon, President of the Union Pacific Railroad, today confirmed the report that the Directors were arranging to place a mortgage on the Union Pacific. It is stated that the mortgage would be for $250,000,000, the largest ever recorded, and will provide for taking up the underlying stock as they move, and also for an immediate issue to pay off the floating indebtedness of the road. The plan is expected to be completed in time to present to the stockholders at their meeting next month.

CARE OF THE INSANE. The State Board of Charities' Bills Receive Favorable Consideration. (FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, March 20.—The bills approved by the State Board of Charities, appropriating in the aggregate $800,000 for increased accommodations for the chronic and criminal insane, have been introduced in both Houses, and in the Senate they have received the favorable consideration of the Committee on Appropriations. A bill has also been reported in the Senate allowing counties having proper facilities to maintain insane at the expense of $1 a week to the State. This bill would relieve the overcrowded State hospitals to a considerable extent, as a number of counties have suitable buildings for the accommodation of those unfortunate.

A GOOD COMMITTEE. Appointed to Investigate the Soldiers' Orphan School Scare. (FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

HARRISBURG, March 20.—Speaker Thompson has done well in the appointment of a committee to carry out the purposes of the resolution providing for an investigation into the financial workings of the soldiers' orphan schools during the time when the colored children were frightened and left Representatives Baker, of Delaware; Representative Gillan, of Franklin, and Captain Nesbit, of Allegheny, are men who can be depended on not to shrink from the performance of their duty with accuracy. They will constitute a majority of the committee, and for this fact those who are anxious to have the ill-potten gains made by the management of the orphan schools exposed to the light of day ought to be thankful.

ANOTHER GAME BILL. A Copy of Lytle's Defunct Measure Introduced in the Senate. (SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) HARRISBURG, March 20.—A bill was introduced in the Senate by Mr. Rapsher, of Carbon, appropriating $1,000 for the erection of a monument to the late and illustrious discoverer of anthracite coal in Pennsylvania, and by Woods, of Millin, to prohibit the chasing and killing of wild deer, cranes and birds for the State, except by the first of October and the first of December. A WISE RESOLUTION. (FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) HARRISBURG, March 20.—Representative Senor, of Indiana, was wise in calling up his resolution to-day to place the anti-discrimination bill on the calendar, as the attendance was too small to justify any hope of success.

BACK FROM CALIFORNIA. One of the Golden Gate Specials Returns to the Starting Point. One of the Pennsylvania Golden Gate excursionists, passed through the city yesterday, going East. There were 110 passengers on the 13 of whom got off at Pittsburg. Ex-Governor Hoot of New Jersey, was on the train. The tourists were unfortunate in striking storms in Southern California. The Golden Gate Specials were glad to get out of the State. The trip across the continent, however, was delightful. One gentleman remarked that he had not worn an overcoat for comfort while in the West.

CARPENTER tells some good stories about famous men in THE DISPATCH to-morrow. One Picture Appreciated. THE PITTSBURG DISPATCH contains a very suggestive cartoon, the subject being the Congressional escort of the remains of Senator Hearst to California, about which so much has recently been written. The picture is a caricature of the funeral car and the coffin, and bending over it the weeping relatives of the dead man. At the other end is a table, and around it are seated the members of the Congressional escort, in the manner of the champagne and playing cards. The atmosphere appears to be filled with tobacco smoke, while the mourners of a July time are all far more of truth than of poetry.

STAGE WHISPERS. "STILL ALARM" is soon due at one of our theaters. "SUPERBA" is so much of a success that the Hansons expect to continue it on the road for several weeks longer. LITTLE MINNIE Terry is to play Princess Elizabeth in Henry Irving's forthcoming production of "Charles II." in London. E. H. SOYERER has a new comedy, "The Master of Woodbury," and the Duquesne comic opera to succeed "The Godolons" has been put in rehearsal at the Savoy, in London, and, as usual, "it has not been named." "THE HELENETTA" will receive its first English production at the Avenue Theatre, London, March 24, and notwithstanding the fact that Mrs. Kendall and other English players are coming to the city for the coming season, it is said that Stuart Bropson prophesies that its purely American flavor will be its death warrant.
